BEST OF LUCK, ABEWEITS!
It is rumored that a number of new faces will be seen on the Abe-weits lineup tonight when the local face the well known Truro Bearcats. New or old, the Nova Scotia team are in for a very warm evening—and one long to be remembered.

Nicholson, Saunders and Williams report themselves in the very best of condition for the fray, with the other members of the team just as perky. Still, the Abbie net guardian, says Hille, but is prepared to receive rubber tonight—"at the highest market price."

SWEET CHARITY?
Young Stribling and "Tuffy" Griffiths were headlines in a charity show at Chicago recently, but the main bunters saw that charity began at home first, Stribling receiving $20,000, and Griffiths $15,000. Other boxers received $7,000, while the stadium, including expenses, cost $20,000, leaving but $5,000 for charity. The word charity certainly takes in a lot of territory.

CANADA HAS REAL CONTENDER
For the first time in boxing history since the days when Tommy Burns held the world's heavyweight championship, it is believed that Canada has a real contender for the highest honors in the prize ring in the person of George Chevalier, towering giant from the Quebec woods. Standing six feet, eight inches in height, weighing 255 pounds of solid brawn, bone and muscle, without an ounce of fat, with huge hands that should constitute terrific weapons in the ring, Chevalier is now undergoing the final stages of a careful physical preparation to fit him for actual ring combat. The young Canadian giant was discovered by Armand Vincent, Montreal sports promoter, and occasional manager of boxers in other years. Vincent first saw Chevalier working on his father's farm, near Inverness, Que., some 130 miles from Montreal, and became impressed with his possibilities.

HOW ABOUT IT GIRLS?
The Crystal Sisters, that clever band of lady stick wielders from Summerside, and Maritime Champions at that, should get together for early organization, and perhaps if application is made early, Montreal may consider a title game in that city. It would be a great honor for the girls, fine advertising for the Island and something new and novel to have an elimination series for the Canadian ladies' hockey championship.

AGITATION DYING DOWN
That agitation to increase the width of the goals and thereby increase scoring has died down with recent games. It has been shown that goals can be scored by those teams that go seeking after them. Nine and ten goals have been scored in recent contests, and the doubters are no longer sceptical. The enforcement of the present rules will bring scoring if persisted in. While fans complain often that referees insist on tooting their whistles, and stopping the over line play they might give a thought to players who persist in stopping up the play by deliberately whirling over the line ahead of the puck carrier. They are the ones deserving the censure as they are the rule breakers, while the referees merely enforce what must be even to them a distasteful rule. Some club players seem to take keen joy in gumming up proceedings by dashing ahead of the puck carrier, and they are not considered by any means simple Simons in regard to hockey strategy.

NO BROADCAST TONIGHT
It has been definitely decided by the Forum management that the Abe-weits-Bearcat game will not be broadcast.

DOESN'T PAY TO LAY BACK
The way to win hockey games is to score as many goals as possible, and the surest way to win is to score more than the opposition. No team in this era can afford to lay up a little after getting a lead, for instance, as Ottawa will tell you, because someone will come along with a new method and upset the Apple cart as Cecil Hart did against Senators. No lead is secure against a team that will go goal-getting in

Eastern Hosiery Contest

Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock a large crowd assembled in front of the show window of the Island Radio Co., C. F. C. Y., while Mr. Hubber, Superintendent of the Eastern Hosiery Mills, measured a pair of silk stockings to decide the winners in the recent guessing contest. The stockings were unravelled and passed through a Brown and Sharpe measuring machine which is accurate to the fraction of an inch.

When the task was concluded it was shown that 2,018 yards of silk were used in a pair of stockings. The judges were Miss Dorothy Stewart and Mr. E. F. Acorn.

LETTER OF SYMPATHY

To Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacPhail, Cornwall, P. E. I.
Dear Mr. and Mrs. MacPhail:—Your many friends in the Cornwall congregation have appreciated your services as janitor of the Cornwall Church for the past thirty years. Your services began two years before the present church was built, and has continued until laid aside recently by illness.

We wish to express our appreciation of your very faithful services. You have always kept the church in good condition and your hands toiled the bell which called our people together to worship God.

We sympathize with you in your severe illness and it is our prayer that God may bless you both and restore you to your accustomed place on the Lord's day and to your place in the home and community. We commend you on this Thanksgiving season to God the Giver of every blessing and ask you to receive this small token of our appreciation and good-will.

AVONDALE INSTITUTE REPORT

—The annual meeting of the Avondale Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. R. G. Fleming on Nov. 19th, seventeen members and six visitors being present. The meeting opened with the singing of the Ode, reading of the creed, and answering the roll call. Minutes of the annual and monthly meeting were read and approved. The Secretary gave a report of the year's work and a vote of thanks was extended to the retiring officers and new ones were appointed as follows: President, Mrs. R. A. MacKenzie, vice president, Mrs. Allan Wyand, secretary treasurer, Mrs. R. G. Fleming, assistant, Etienne Wyand, directors, Mrs. Chester Woolner, Mrs. Fred Clark and Mrs. B. C. Woolner. Auditors, Mrs. H. A. MacKenzie and Mrs. G. L. MacNeill. Two new members were welcomed at this meeting. Lunch was then served. Meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.

"What is your husband's average income?"
"Well," replied the wife, "I should say about midnight."

Some people's curiosity reminds us of the little boy who opened his drum to find where the noise came from!

Just because a man can't repeat a "tongue twister" it doesn't mean he isn't sober, a Derbyshire judge has held. He dismissed a drunkenness charge against Hubert Watson, a truck driver, who couldn't say "The Leith police dismisseth us" when the police asked him to.
"I want to get a hair cut," said a young man, trim and tall. "That's funny!" said the barber. "Better let me cut 'em all!"
