The pretty country village of Tryon was last evening the scene of one of the most interesting social events of the season. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elliphalt Muttart their daughter Miss S. Jessie was united in the holy bonds of wedlock to Mr. Wm. S. Steeves of Charlottetown. Rev. G. F. Dawson performed the ceremony in the midst of a large number of guests. The groom was supported by Mr. A. C. Saunders, and Miss Sou Maney, Cape Traverse, attended the bride, while Miss Annie Muttart, sister of the bride, acted maid of honor. The bridal costume was of white silk, and the bridesmaid and maid of honor were attired in white muslin with trimmings of pale blue. The bride wore a travelling suit of navy blue camel's hair. A large and elegant number of wedding gifts testify to the popularity of the happy couple. This morning they drive to Summerside and take passage by the Northumberland en route to Montreal, Toronto and Buffalo. They will be absent about two weeks. Joining with a host of friends THE GUARDIAN tenders good wishes for a happy journey through life.

A SHADE of sadness passed over this neighborhood on last Monday evening as the telegram brought us the news of the death of our esteemed and well beloved neighbor Miss Grace McNeill who died a few days ago in the Hospital in Boston. She paid us a visit last summer when she looked the picture of health and loveliness and bidding us a warm farewell returned to Boston. She made friends for herself there and though all was done for her in the Hospital that skill and kindness could do yet one thing was missing, no brother or sister was there.

No dear beloved one was nigh.
But strangers closed her dying eye.
Her remains were taken from Charlottetown by the Electra to Beach Point thence to the home of her childhood at Little Sands, where friends and neighbors met to mingle their tears with the brothers and sisters at home. She was laid to rest on Friday at Wood Islands, a number of people leaving their harvest to pay their last tribute of respect to one whom they loved so well.

IN THIS LOCALITY.
The medicine dealers in this place say that there is no preparation on the market to-day that has anything like such an enormous sale as Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Would this extraordinary demand for Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills continually and gradually increase if people were not being benefited and cured by their use? Certainly not. One pill a dose. 25 cents a box.

These are the best shopping days for ladies who admire the chic trimness of the tailor-made suit.
A day or two ago there came to us a fresh lot of new fabrics adapted to this end.
They're in rough and smooth finish, and chiefly in warm autumnal appearing colors.
There are garnets, and browns, rugged greys greys and greens, and a lot of mixed effects. As to prices, it's a little difficult to state them satisfactorily, on account of being so many different things.
But come, expecting to find the first thing, at a little lower price than elsewhere. You'll hit it.
