Ch'town Boys Receive First Air Cadet Wings

Marking the first time that Island boys had been so honored, Sgt. Donald Townshend Thompson, and Corporal Henry Edward Brown, members of No. 60 Air Cadet Squadron, Charlottetown, commanded by F. C. Gordon Rayner, last night received their Air Cadet Wings from the hands of Squadron Leader G. R. F. Gross, Officer Commanding the R. C. A. F. Station at Summerside.

Brief but impressive, the ceremony was part of the wings parade held in P. W. C. auditorium, commanded by Pte. Lefebvre, E. D. Reid, former O. C. of the squadron.

Accompanying Squadron Leader Gross was Flying Officer A.L. Wolfenden of London, Egge, former R. A. F. member but now attached to the R. C. A. F. at Summerside.

In previous years Richard Hurst of Charlottetown and Stewart Banks of Conway had successfully completed the same course but the presentation of wings was not in vogue in that period.

St. Mary's Memorial Hospital, Sherbrooke, will receive more than $10,300 in federal aid when completed early this summer.

Each project was recommended under the terms of the national health program by the provincial health ministers concerned - Hon. Dr. F. A. McGrand in New Brunswick, Hon. L. D. Currie in Nova Scotia and Hon. A. W. Matheson in Prince Edward Island.

Little Change In Ice Conditions In Recent Days

Light alternating north and south winds, which have been moving the ice packs back and forth, have prevented ice conditions from improving during the past few days, stated Captain Angus Brown, official ice observer for the Department of Transport last night.

Conditions in the Northumberland Strait have improved somewhat but there is considerable ice in the south-east area. This ice extends to the Strait of Canso and the Cape Breton shores.
