How to Have the Best Cough Syrup and Save $2, by Making it at Home.

Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large quantity of plain syrup. If you take two cups of granulated sugar, add one cup of warm water, and stir about 2 minutes, you have as good syrup as money could buy.

If you will then put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a 16 oz. bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup, you will have as much cough syrup as you could buy ready-made for $2.50. It keeps perfectly.

And you will find it the best cough syrup you ever used—even in whooping cough. You can feel it take hold—usually stops the most severe cough in 24 hours. It is just laxative enough, has a good tonic effect and taste is pleasant. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

It is a splendid remedy, too, for hoarseness, asthma, chest pain, etc. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in galic acid and all the healing pine elements. No other preparation will work in this formula.

This recipe for making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup is now used and prized in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada. The plan has often been imitated but never successfully.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

AMBER.

Although amber has been found in different places, its only important centre is the coast of the Baltic. According to Pliny, the elder, the "sap" was produced in the islands of the "northern sea," and worked there by the natives in the early days.

When Nero sent Julianus, the man who managed his gladiatorial matches, to procure the precious product, the horseman detailed by Julianus for the hard part of the commission came back with amber in quantities so lavish that even the netting used as protection against wild beasts was fastened with amber buttons.

Germany first conceded the right to mine and to use the amber on the shores of the Baltic Sea, in return for 40,000 kilograms of crude amber to be delivered annually, but, as the profits of the concessionists were great, the German Government increased the consideration of the concession to $7,500 kilos crude amber per annum. Since 1866 that amount has been increased, and the companies working the concession have made an annual delivery of 200,000 kilos per annum in payment for their privilege.

Amber is the result of a disease. The first forest that exuded gum was a sick forest; a pathological case produced amber as another pathological case produces pearls.

At least four species of pine trees grow in the forest. Two of these are still in existence in Japan. Most of the trees had been wounded from one cause or another, and from their wounds ran resin. Drawn by the odor of the resin, insects swarmed into the trees, to be caught in the warm gum, to stick fast, and to die, embedded as we see them now in specimens. These conditions continued through uncounted years. Then new, strange forces came, the ground fell in, the seas rose, and the sick forest was engulfed. From the beds formed in those seas men drew the amber remaining in the sand.

The amber taken from the sea is called sea-stone (sea-stone). Legend attributes to amber (the power to ward off its masters, the favored of the witches, of their danger, and when handled by its master to turn pale to gleam with rippling light, and to emit a perfume.

PURIFIED HIS BLOOD

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills Healed Mr. Wilson's Sores

When the sores of the body—bowel, kidneys and skin ducts—get clogged up, the blood quickly becomes impure and frequently sores break out over the body. The way to heal them, as Mr. Richard Wilson, who lives near London, Ont., found, is to purify the blood.

"For some time I had been in a low, depressed condition. My appetite left me and I soon began to suffer from indigestion. Quite a number of small sores and blotches formed all over my skin. I tried medicine for the blood and used many kinds of ointments, but without satisfactory results. What was wanted was a thorough cleansing of the blood, and I looked about in vain for some medicine that would accomplish this."

At last Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills were brought to my notice, and they are one of the most wonderful medicines I have ever known. My blood was purified in a very short time, sores healed up, my indigestion vanished. They always have a place in my home and are looked upon as the family remedy."

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills cleanse the system thoroughly. Sold by all dealers at 25c a box.

Why Suffer from Piles?

Zam-Buk gives certain ease.

Friction on veins (the hemorrhoid veins) that are swollen, inflamed and tormented with blood, is what causes the terrible pain and stinging and smarting of piles. Zam-Buk applied at night will be found to give ease before morning. Thousands of persons have proved this. Why not be guided by the experience of others? Mr. Thomas Pearson, of Prince Albert, Sask., writes: "I must thank you for the benefit I have received from the use of Zam-Buk. Last summer I suffered greatly from piles. I started to use Zam-Buk and found it gave me relief, so I continued it and after using three or four boxes I am pleased to say it has effected a complete cure."

Mr. G. A. Dufresne, 182-185 St. Joseph Street, St. Roch, Quebec, P. Q., writes: "I can highly recommend Zam-Buk to everyone who suffers from piles."

Magistrate Sanford, of Weston, King's Co., N. S., says: "I suffered long from itching piles, but Zam-Buk has now cured me."

Mr. William Keaty, of Upper Nine Mile River, Hants Co., N. S., says: "I suffered terribly from piles, the pain at times being almost unbearable. I tried various ointments, but everything I tried failed to do me the slightest good. I was tired of trying various remedies, when I heard of Zam-Buk, and thought as a last resource I would give this balm a trial. I procured a supply and commenced with the treatment. After a very short time Zam-Buk effected what several other ointments and medicines had failed to do—a complete cure."

Zam-Buk is also a sure cure for skin injuries and diseases, eczema, ulcers, varicose veins, cuts, burns, bruises, chaps, cold sores, etc. 50c box all druggists and stores, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Refuse harmful imitations.

"DAD, HERE'S TO YOU."

We happened in a home the other night, and the parlor door was ajar. I peered in and saw a man sitting at a table. "What is Home Without a Mother?" Across the room was another man. "God Bless Our Home."

"Now, what's the matter with 'God Bless Our Home'?" He gets up early, lights the fire, boils an egg, and wipes off the dew of the lawn with his boots while many a mother is sleeping. He makes the weekly haul out for the butcher, the grocer, the millman and the baker, and his little pile is ready before he has been home an hour.

"If there is a noise in the night Dad is waked in the back and made to go downstairs and find the burglar and kill him. Mother darns the socks, but Dad bought the socks in the yarn afterwards. Mother does up the fruit, Dad bought it all, and jars and sugar costs like the mischief."

Dad buys the chickens for Sunday dinner, serves them himself and draws the neck from the ruins after everyone else is served. "What is Home Without a Mother?" Yes, that's all right; but what is Home Without a Father? Ten chances to one it's a boarding house, Father is under a slab, and the landlady is the widow.

Here's to you—you've got your pants—you may have lots of 'em—but you're all right, and we'll miss you when you're gone.—Com.

Pursuant to, and by virtue of, a decretal order made in the above cause on the third day of October, A. D., 1910, by the Honorable the Vice-Chancellor, and to me entrusted for execution, I will set up and sell at public auction on the premises on Wednesday, the 15th day of November next (1910), at the hour of twelve o'clock noon, all that tract, piece or parcel of land situate, lying and being on Lot 32 in Queen's County bounded as follows, that is to say:—

Commencing on the west bank or shore of the North River at the north boundary of land in possession of Benjamin Dockendorf, thence running south 88 degrees and 31 minutes west by the magnet of the year 1764 along the said north boundary of Benjamin Dockendorf's land for the distance of 108 chains and 30 links, to the east boundary of land in the possession of James Drake, thence north 3 degrees and 50 minutes west along the same a sufficient distance to give a rectangular width of 7 chains and 56 links, thence north 88 degrees and 35 minutes east to the east side of the North River Road, thence northwardly along the same 5 chains and 75 links or to the south side of the old Ferry Road, thence eastwardly along the said road to the shore of the North River aforesaid, thence southwardly along the said shore to the place of commencement, containing by estimation one hundred acres of land a little more or less.

Also all that land on said Lot 32 being the strip of land on the north side of the Ferry Road at the rear of the farms of the late Clement G. White, the late Joseph M. Kenzie, Hugh McEwen's and Donald McDonald's farms containing about four acres.

The said lands will be sold free of dower and free of all incumbrances.

The sale will be confirmed by the Court of Chancery without expense to the purchaser.

A deposit of ten per cent. of the purchase money will be required from the purchaser on the premises being knocked down to him at the sale and the balance on the delivery of the deed.

Dated this 17th day of October, A. D., 1910.

THE FARMER'S WIFE.

Few realize the important part that the farmer's wife has taken in the country's development. Her work, her patience, her encouragement, her children have made possible the splendid development of today. When the farm was started, and likely on the frontier, perhaps with but little to start with, she helped her husband; she managed the home—cooked, sewed, mended for the family, and at times for the hired men. In busy times she often helped with the milking, cared for the milk, made butter, raised chickens, managed the garden, often supplying the necessary groceries and clothes with the egg and butter money. When hired men were scarce, she even would take a hand in the field work. No work too hard, no trials too severe when husband was discouraged; she furnished the hope, the cheer, the inspiration to go on. Mortgages coming due, crop failure, a horse dying, husband sick, gave her up. No, she never gave up, and seldom complained.

By the hard work of husband, wife and children, as they got large enough to help, and that was almost as soon as they were able to toddle, the debts were paid, a big barn replaced the straw shed, or perhaps a good stable. Then came the big house, and often with all the modern conveniences. More to care for, but offset by hired help; to turn work over to help is hard for one who is used to doing it all one's self.

The old memories often come back. They were happy days of achievement, days of accomplishment. Now John is old enough to go away to school, and he studies medicine. Henry takes up law, and James studies to be a teacher, while James has gone to town to go into business. The old folks are alone again, except for the occasional visit. Soon they bring families. The home is again the scene of children's activity. Bouncing back the memories of the time when John and Henry were tots in all their activity, mischief and work.

Friends come out from town and from the adjoining farms to visit, to enjoy the big lawn, the inviting shade, the fruit, the roost chicken. They admire the fine buildings, the splendid farm.

Go to any business enterprise, and the boy from the farm is usually in charge. So the farmer's wife has been mother of most of the leaders. All honor and credit to the farmer's wife. She ought to have a statue in the town square.

Added to the Long List due to This Famous Remedy.

Glanford Station, Ont.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for years and never found any medicine to compare with it. I had ulcers and falling of the uterus, and doctors did me no good. I suffered dreadfully until I began taking your medicine. It has also helped other women to whom I have recommended it." Mrs. HENRY CLARK, Glanford Station, Ontario.

Gardiner, Me.—"It was a great sufferer from a female disease. The doctor said I would have to go to the hospital for an operation, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound completely cured me in three months." Mrs. S. A. WILLIAMS, R. F. D. No. 14, Box 39, Gardiner, Maine.

Because your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without trying Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has cured many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, indigestion, dizziness, and nervous prostration. It costs but a trifle to try it, and the result is worth millions to many suffering women.

If you want special advice write for it to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. It is free and always helpful.
