SPORTING COMMENT

By ("TEC")

Judging by the showing made by the Abegweits against the Crystals, fast western sextette in the past two games and particularly in the last game Tuesday night in Summerside, it looks as if the locals will be topped favorites in the running for the island championship. However, the proverbial "chicken counting" before the hatching has upset more than one apple cart in the past, therefore the Crystals although on the short end of two straight defeats may make a whirlwind comeback to force the locals over every foot of ice for the title.

The Summerside team this season although for the most part boys yet in their teens have proved themselves worthy opponents, and their performances as a consequence beyond the most sanguine dreams of their supporters. The season is not yet over and many scalps are bound to adorn their wigwam.

The Moncton Atlantics reputed to be one of the fastest and cleverest hockey aggregations in lower Canada are at present mourning the loss of Fred Gould, their fast centre and Ernie Kervin, defence who have jumped to Montreal where they will participate in the Industrial League there. However the Monctonians are not the only ones who have suffered in the same way. Coincidentally enough the Abegweits have lost a centre and defence in the persons of "Whackey" McEachern and "Chick" Williams former stars who have left these stamping grounds for Waterville, Maine. Williams and McEachern's many friends wish them ever success in Uncle Sam's domain.

The intermediate Abegweits held their first workout at the Arena last evening and was productive of some very clever hockey. Jack Gordon, Abbie senior centre has the youngsters under his wing and is confident of rounding a smooth working machine out of the material now practicing. The following players are on hand: B. Collings, U. Blanchard, E. McDonald, J. P. Squarebriggs, H. Stevenson, B. Doiron, G. McMahon, G. Nelson, B. Sherren. Another practice will be held this evening at which a large turnout is expected. A representative lineup will be picked to face Prince of Wales College Friday night after the senior game.

Curling is at full swing in the local rink these nights. Matches for the Wright Trophy are merrily going on and some strong and interesting competition is being dished up.

The Montreal Gazette in a temperate and mild-mannered discussion of the reason for Maroon's slump, declares that the fact that other teams strengthened while Maroons stood practically still in the acquisition of star players is responsible for their low estate. The Gazette credits many other teams with being more than twenty-five per cent faster, while Maroons have added no speed to their attack or defence. The Gazette points out that Ottawas, who were in much the same boat except for the acquisition of Adams to offset the acquisition of Dutton, have been winning consistently. They credit Ottawas with a smart move here, as they assert Adams has added considerable zestiness to Ottawas' attack. The improvement in the Ottawas subs comes in for considerable praise. In other words Ottawa has shown its superiority in being able to develop sub players into performers who can fit in and replace the regulars without any loss of efficiency. In this regard they are one of the most remarkable teams in the league. In two seasons Finnigan, Kilrea and Alex. Smith, in reality half a team, have been moulded from just promising subs into stars.

Gene Tunney has lined up under the banner of Tex Rickard for his next fight. He will get something approximating a million dollars for his fight. He knows he will get it—because Rickard, like the "woman," always pays. Who he will fight is a mooted question. It may be Delaney because Rickard dotes on the international angle, which is his best money-getter. Delaney, a Canadian, would supply just the proper tinged spark to the Ottawa subs, which is the Ottawa subs even as much other foreign lumps considerably, but no one has shown even as much form as the late lamented Wild Dempsey. He has experimented with may get the return shot though Rickard is not overly fond of "repeaters."

1926 Winners on Maine and New Brunswick Circuit

"John Willard, veteran Presque Isle reinsman, headed the list of leading money winning drivers on the Maine and New Brunswick Circuit," in a compilation made by Claude L. Taylor, of Presque Isle, for the past season, including both the circuit meetings and racing at fairs.

"Having such sterling racing campaigners as Bessie McKillo, Floyd Direct, Earl North and Grendolyn Aubrey in his stable, the Grand Old Man of Maine racemod had a most successful year, winning over $7,000.

"Joe Johnson, Portland driver, stood second to Willard, having a splendid racing stable, which among other things, won him twelve firsts and thirteen second moneys during the early months of his campaign.

Dead Driver in Third Place

"The late Wallace McWilliams captured third place in the mad scramble for leading honors, his most consistent winner being the sensational Peterkin.

"The Houlton reinsman, Harry Nevins, as usual, was right up among the leaders and is sure of a powerful racing stable next season.

"Ralph Burrill, Leon Toole, 'Red' Hanafin, Billy Brickley, Billy Keyes, and Will Utton had a most satisfactory season.

"Bessie McKillo, star member of John Willard's stable, proved a good investment for the Mooseleuk Club of Presque Isle, winning $3,500 last year on Maine and New Brunswick tracks.

Hedgewood K. Got the Money

"Hedgewood K., brilliant Woodstock pacer, proved to be a gold mine for his owners in 1926, winning $2,600, and taking seven first moneys. He is a splendid racing prospect for next season.

"El Verso and Peterkin, members of the Reed Stable of Fort Fairfield, were a profitable pastime for their owners, their combined winnings totalling over $4,700.

"Floyd Direct, owned by Walter Carmichael, of Presque Isle, was a consistent season winner whose winnings amounted to $2,000.

"Hal Mahone and Auto Pacer, free-for-alls, were below the $2,000 mark while such high class pacers as Early Todd and Kazoff were far behind the first few leaders.

Earl North Still Wins

"Earl North, another John R. Braden, of Presque Isle, proved that he is not through yet by enriching his owner by some $1,200 in 1926. Another old standby the past season was Dan Hedgewood, who rather staged a come-back for his many friends.

"Northern Knight in Ralph Burrill's stable last season proved to be most successful investments for their racing patrons. Another season should find them more than able to hold their own with the best of turf material.

The figures as compiled by Mr. Taylor, follow:

| Driver             | Winnings |
|--------------------|----------|
| John Willard       | $7,776  |
| Joe Johnson        | 5,960    |
| Wallace McWilliams | 4,575    |
| Harry Nevins       | 4,220    |
| Ralph Burrill      | 3,690    |
| Leon Toole         | 3,420    |
| 'Red' Hanafin      | 3,120    |
| William Brickley   | 2,995    |
| Billy Keyes        | 2,420    |
| Will Utton         | 2,055    |

Wanderers Get Collar Berth By Dartmouth

"HALIFAX, Jan. 19. Staging a dazzling rally that overwhelmed their opponents in the second period Dartmouth last night emerged from the city league hockey clash at the Arena on the long end of a 6 to 2 score and sent the Wanderers into the cellar position.

After holding the harbor town sextette to a 1-1 tie in the first period and jumping into the lead early in the second, the Wanderers collapsed and Dartmouth scored four goals in rapid succession. From then on the Redland cohorts were never dangerous and Dartmouth outplayed the locals.

The Radford brothers and Sammy MacDonald and Johnny Patterson were the best performers for the winners last night, while Jack Lewis gave a wonderful display in the net for the losers, and Bill Arthur put over one of his best games in years.

The ice was in wretched condition and made fast hockey impossible. The surface was covered with holes and combination play was not attempted by either club. About 800 witnessed the match.

Speaker Demands That Johnson Produce Evidence

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 18. — William Boyd, counsel for Trif Speaker, former manager of the Cleveland Indians, issued a statement here today in Speaker's behalf, challenging Dan Johnson, President of the American League, to reveal any proof of alleged irregularities for which Speaker was relieved of his connection with the Cleveland Club.

Notch up Four to Two Victory in League Fixture

ANTIGONISH, Jan. 19. — Antigonish defeated New Glasgow 4 to 2 in a hectic game at St. F. X. Memorial Rink tonight. The visitors were reinforced by McLean and Del Sullivan recently purified veterans and carried on their line-up Riddle MacDonald who hails from New Glasgow. The old timers turned in a good game and were in the fight all the time, but failed to outskate their teammates. The squads were evenly matched but goalie Sears had it on young Lennon and turned in a remarkable performance, stopping 23 of all various shots to his rivals. The game was started by Wm. Duff, who placed the puck in play and then skipped gracefully off the ice.

Sussex-Norton Game in Deadlock

Intermediates Play Twenty Minutes Overtime to 3 to 3 Tie

SUSSEX, Jan. 19. — The Sussex Intermediates hockey team battled to a 3 to 3 tie in a twenty minute overtime game here tonight with Norton that proved interesting from start to finish.

In the first period Bryant scored for Norton after four minutes play. Shortly after, Prescott evened the score for Sussex. In the second period H. McArthur scored for Sussex after ten minutes play, but Norton came back strong and Cripps sagged the net and evened the score again.

An excellent brand of hockey was seen in the final period, and after hard playing Bryant scored for Norton and shortly before he finished Prescott scored for the home team, and the score was even at the end of the period.

It was agreed that two ten minute overtime periods be played. This was accomplished and ended without breaking the tie.

Is Swamped With Numerous Offers

TORONTO, January 19. — Special despatches to Toronto papers today indicate that George Young, hero of the Catalina Channel swim, will not return to Toronto for at least a month, and perhaps longer; that he has signed motion picture and theatrical contracts, and that he is emphatically standing by the contract with Henry O'Byrne, his trainer and coach, by which O'Byrne receives 40 per cent of the prize money further earnings during the year.

O'Byrne certainly earned his share of the prize money," a special despatch to the Toronto Star quotes Young as saying, "I had to have his money, his time and his brains to get across. I'd have been out of the race if it hadn't been for him."

Amateur Join Pro.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19. — The New York Americans today announced the signing of Bert Hughes, local amateur hockey player. Hughes, who played with the Knickerbockers in the Metropolitan Amateur League, will be farmed to Niagara Falls of the Canadian Professional League for seasoning.

ICE RACES AT ST. PETER'S

A fair sized crowd of spectators viewed the first race of the season held by the St. Peter's Driving Club, Thursday, Jan. 13th. The ice was in good condition and some very close finishes were witnessed. Jessica the Great, that fast little pacer owned by Chester Pratt, won the A class with speed to spare. Alberta Patchen, driven by Frank Jay, finished second, showing some flashes of real speed although not being quite fast enough to reach Jessica. The B class furnished the best racing of the day, bringing together Mac. Waltz, owned by Albert Quigley, Col. G. owned by Alton Anderson, and Lucky Strike a promising 4 year old colt owned by Jack Ladner. These horses are evenly matched and produced interesting racing, finally finishing in the order named. The C class also provided good racing. This class was won by Colorado Boy, a young colt recently purchased by Chester Pratt, and driven by Roy McBeath, with Wilfred L. second. Barney B. trotted very fast the first race, making it interesting for Colorado Boy, but broke badly in the second and third heats finally finishing in third position.

The next race will be held Thursday, January 20th, when Eastern Lady, owned by Alfie Webster, Marie, will start against Jessica the Great. The other classes, which also have several new starters, which should provide exciting racing.

The rivalry between the merchants of St. Peter's is even keener in sport than in business, four of the principal merchants boast of the principal merchants boast of speed plenty. Chester buys a prospect and Jack scouts around dealers.

Lone Marker for Colts is Chalked

FREDERICTON, N. B., Jan. 19. — Fredericton broke into the win column of the Southern N. B. Hockey League tonight, and it was at the expense of the Sussex team which was beaten, 5 to 1, in a fast and clean game tonight. It was the shot of Wall, a relief player, on a pass from behind the Fredericton net that saved the dairy team from a shutout. The home team was careless at this point or the goal would not have been scored.

A fairly good attendance was out for the match, which ends the first section for Fredericton. The fans saw a good game and the showing of Fredericton gives encouragement for a better standing in the second section, which begins this week.

Americans Sign on Another Player

NEW YORK, Jan. 19. — The New York Americans today announced the signing of Bert Hughes, local amateur hockey player. Hughes, who played with the Knickerbockers in the Metropolitan Amateur League, will be farmed to Niagara Falls, of the Canadian Professional League, for seasoning.

When wall paper becomes soiling, looking, try cleaning it the following way: Dip a clean duster in dry powdered borax and rub it all over the soiled parts. This method is even more effective than rubbing with bread.

If bread has risen too high before being put in the oven it will be coarse grained.

"MARRIAGE LICENSE?" IS PERFECTLY CAST PICTURE

Characters in Absorbing Drama Actually Come From Countries Shown in Production.

"Marriage License" the latest Fox Film production to be directed by Frank Borzage, now playing at the Prince Edward Theatre, is what might be termed an ideally cast picture. Not only are the characters true to type, but they actually come from the countries they are supposed to come from in the picture.

Alma Rubens, who is featured in the leading feminine role, is supposedly a Colonial—and since Miss Rubens is an American, descended from old New England the imagination does not have to be greatly stretched to let her head the list. Emily Fitzroy, the unbending Lady Heriot, was born in England and was prominent on the English stage before coming to America and pictures. Edgar Norton, Beardon in the picture, is an Englishman who has distinguished himself as an actor both in London and America.

Lantheorne Burton, who plays the barrister, is really only enjoying his vacation in Hollywood after a most busy season on the London stage, screening of this excellent program George Cowl, Wanda's childhood friend, is another English actor having appeared first in English repertoire companies in London before adventuring in America.

As for Charles Lane, Sir John Heriot in the production, he has played so many English noblemen and baristers and has lived abroad so much, people forget he was actually born in Illinois.

Richard Walling, who plays the boy, Robin, is thoroughly American however, which really makes him an exception to prove how ideally and realistically the characters are cast.

"Marriage License?" is adapted from "The Pelican," the stage success by F. Tennyson Jesse and H. M. Harwood. The theme is that of a mother's sacrifice for her son, paralleling the old legend of the pelican who gives her life blood to feed her young.

The News and Sports Reviewer made up the balance of the picture program. The music by the Prince Edward Orchestra was of the usual high order. The last busy season on the London stage, screening of this excellent program George Cowl, Wanda's childhood friend, is another English actor having appeared first in English repertoire companies in London before adventuring in America.
