

WAS VERY WEAK NERVOUS AND MELANCHOLY

Mrs. Geo. McKenzie, Campbellford, Ont., writes:—"A short time ago I was troubled very badly with my heart and nerves, the cause of it, I think, was my going through the change of life."

"I was very weak and melancholy, and so nervous I could hardly bear to hear a clock ticking, and I did not sleep well."

"I was advised to try so I sent at once for a box; took them and got another, and before they were all gone I felt good, my nerves are fine, I do not mind any noise, and I can sleep well. I can not recommend them too highly to those suffering as I did."

Price 50c. a box at all druggists and dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

ENTERPRISE GUARANTEED CABINET HEATER

Is finished so splendidly that it will harmonize with the furnishings of the most luxurious homes; heats so well it will take the place of two or three stoves; is so simple that a child can look after it.

LOOKS LIKE A VICTORIA. HEATS LIKE A FURNACE.

THE ENTERPRISE CABINET HEATER acts just like its big brother, The Enterprise Pipes; heats the home with moistened, healthful, heated air; not like the hot blaze of the ordinary stove, nor the parching heat of other systems.

GUARANTEED

THE ENTERPRISE GUARANTEED CABINET HEATER, is guaranteed by the makers and Holman's to give you absolute and perfect satisfaction. Illustration above is of No. 40.

See THE ENTERPRISE CABINET HEATER before you buy and save years of regret and dollars in money.

PROSPEROUS ISLANDERS performed the ceremony in the presence of about fifty guests. The bride entered the parlor, on the arm of her brother-in-law, Mr. Parker Bouchard, who left for California 20 years ago. The maiden name of the bride was Margaret Mc-Bridal Chorus played by Miss Aud-Donald, native of St. George, P. E. I. They have eight children. One stood before a background of pot-son and three daughters are mar-ried plants. The bride looked charming in a gown of white taf-feta, with veil arranged in cap style and caught with rosebuds in San Francisco. Mr. Bouchard She carried an arm bouquet of ros-es, carnations and fern. The brides-maid, Miss Mary Dunn, friend of the bride, wore a dress of mauve Archat, C. B., and left there for P. E. I. when he was 14 years of age. They enjoy a beautiful home in a suburb of Richmond Calif.—Oak-land Maple Leaf.

MAJOR FRED VOKES WEDS MRS. LAWRENCE MURPHY—One of the best known officers of military fame. After the ceremony a buf-fet luncheon was served to the Vokes, R.C.E., of the Royal Military college staff, was quietly married on Monday night, Oct. 3rd, to Mrs Bes-sie E. Murphy, widow of Lawrence W. Murphy, of Kingston, Ont. Ma-jor Vokes is prominent in sports at the R.M.C. and this year is coach, trainer and manager of the R.M.C. rugby squad, while his son is a cad-et at the college and plays on the first team. Mrs. Murphy, who is a P.E. Island lady, nee Bessie E. West, is also well known in Kingston and Frontenac county, her husband being for many years a member of the Frontenac cheese board. The cere-mony was performed by Capt. Rev. Father J.F. Nicholson in the arch-bishop's palace, Major and Mrs. Vokes leaving immediately for Tor-onto and other points to spend their honeymoon.—Toronto Daily Star.

DIAMOND-COULSON—On Wed-nesday evening, Nov. 9th, at eight thirty o'clock, a very pretty wed-ding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Parker Gratto, Albion St., West Side, says the New Glasgow News, when Miss Gertrude E. Cou-lson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wil-liam Coulson, Montague, P. E. I., was united in marriage to Mr. John P. Diamond, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Diamond, Washington St., New Glasgow. Rev. I. A.
