WHITHER GOEST THOU?

Value Of Fox Show Not Confined To Exhibitors, But Extends To All Concerned In The Industry

(By W. R. Shaw)

The Fox Show, which will be held within the next few days, stands in the very forefront of features of this kind throughout the world. Familiarity with an industry that has meant within recent years economic salvation to a large number of our people, and close proximity to this great Show has caused to some extent an under estimation of this great Exhibition of a modern industry. Distance and unfamiliarity might possibly have developed a more absorbing interest in the Show, and a more intense desire to visit it and enjoy its fascination, beauty, and thought-provoking demonstrations. In a center where thousands are engaged in Fox ranching, the congregation at one point, in intensive competition of from 400-600 of the industry's best foxes, should exert an irresistible attraction for the great majority of those who are daily caring for foxes in their own ranches.

Not For The Few

The criticism is sometimes heard that Exhibitions of this kind are only for the few who have superior animals. This is true in so far as actual Exhibitors are concerned, but the inspiration and value of the Show extends to every individual who is engaged in the industry. In any well balanced and prepared scheme of livestock extension, the Exhibition must occupy a prominent place. It brings into the public gaze the best productions of the ST. ANDREW'S W. I.

The regular monthly meeting of the St. Andrew's Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Major Smallwood Tuesday evening, Oct. 5th. Roll call was answered by "Sing, say or pay."

The balance of the collection for the library fund was paid. The reports of the committees were then given and new ones appointed as follows: Entertainment: Mrs. Ray Smallwood and Miss Winnie McIntyre; school, Mrs. J. P. McIntyre and Mrs. Mrs. J. C. Peters; sick, Mrs. Ray Smallwood and Miss Winnie McIntyre. A lengthy discussion took place on the condition of the out-houses at the school. It was moved and seconded that the matter be brought to the attention of the trustees. After the business of the meeting was concluded a short programme was carried out as follows: Reading, "Home"—Miss Lucy McIntyre; reading, "A Club Women's Tea and Reception"—Mrs. John C. Peters. Mrs. John MacIntyre invited the members to her home for the November meeting, roll call to be answered by paying membership fee.
