His friends wish him success in his purchase.

LETTER OF CONDOLENCE.

The following letter has been sent to Mrs. Wm. Lowther, Cornwall:

Dear Mrs. Lowther:—The Quarterly Official Board of the Cornwall Circuit met in regular session on Wednesday, Nov. 29th inst. Hereby it would tender to you and your family its heartfelt sympathy in the great loss which has so recently come into your home in the removal of your husband to the Church of the First born above. As a church we miss him, both because his helpful, tender, genial disposition has gone from us and above all because we no longer have his bright Christian example to follow. While we mourn our loss yet we rejoice with you in the knowledge that to him the Master's summons was not unwelcome but his departure from this life was but a going to the Home beyond to receive the treasure which he had laid up for himself in the Father's house, that inheritance not made with hands eternal in the Heavens. We sorrow not as those without hope for we know that he is not dead but sleepeth and to the sound of the trumpet of the archangel he shall come forth to be forever with his Redeemer and Lord. We pray for you that in this your hour of trial and grief the God of all grace may sustain and help you and may you know that in His all wise Providence all must be well.

Signed on behalf of the Board, Hugh Millar, Supt.; George Cruwys, Rec.-Secty.

OBITUARY.

Entered into rest at High Bank, Nov. 15th, 1911, Donald McLeod, aged 78 years. Deceased was an intelligent, upright citizen; conscientious and honorable in his dealings with his fellow-men. He fearlessly opposed error in all its phases, and voiced his sentiments in favor of right principles regardless of personal considerations. For a number of years he was Justice of the Peace, and also was Postmaster of the above named place at the time of his death. He was a friend of education, and took a deep interest in religious matters, having in early life made the "Good Confession" and united with Church of Christ at Montague. During his last illness, knowing the inevitable was at hand he "set his house in order" and calmly awaited the summons of his Master. Besides his wife, he leaves a family of six sons and three daughters, four of whom reside in Montana viz:—John, Malcolm, Alex. and Christine; Wm. in Nevada, Mrs. Hammond Nicolle at White Sands, Norman, John D. and Isabel at home, who will miss the counsel and warm greetings of an affectionate father.

"We'll meet again," the true heart speaks,
When dearest ones depart;
And in the pleasing prospect seeks
Balm for the bleeding heart;
No lingering look, no parting sigh
Our future meeting knows,
There friendship beams from every eye,
And love immortal glows.

HORSE NOTE

For some days our attraction has been attracted by a handsome black gelding, five years old, owned by Brent Strang, 380 Townsend Street. From his owner we learn that this classy piece of horse-flesh was selected by Ed. Crosby, a horseman of Cape Traverse, P. E. Island. He is sired by Brazilian, 2.19, the best horse ever imported into Canada ann has for his first dam Elmo, second dam Old Administrator; third dam Old All Right, and the fourth dam, Salahin, and can be registered for the asking. No present day tribe excels his breeding. He looks sixteen hands in harness so commanding is his carriage, his tail is an ornament of pride as well as defence, his neck is almost ideal in beauty, his stroke is high and slashing yet he goes very light. Sydney is noted for high society horses and the owner of Satan, as he is called, should feel proud to flutter the ribbons and cluck behind such nice goods when joy riding on our beautiful driveways this winter.—Sydney Post.

A very sad death marked the initial trip of the C.G.S. Minto in connection with the winter service between this Province and the mainland.

On Saturday the Minto left this port at nine o'clock, taking with her one of the winter buoys for Cape Tormentine. About noon as she approached her destination Moses Gallant, a seaman, accompanied by a companion, were instructed to go forward and cast the lead for soundings. He had left the chains and was returning, when, Mr. Gallant slipped and fell overboard. This was about 1000 yards from the Cape Tormentine wharf.

A very strong tide was running to the west at this time.

Immediately a boat was lowered but Gallant evidently did not rise again as he was not seen although the Minto remained on the scene for over an hour. She then departed for Summerside and docked at three o'clock p.m.

Young Gallant's death cast a shadow over the whole ship's company and the fatality is keenly felt by his officers and shipmates.

The deceased was a native of Rustico, where his mother—the only near relative surviving him—still resides. He was 27 years of age and about four years ago was married to a Miss Gallant, also of Rustico, who predeceased him about a year, as did also one child.

The late Mr. Gallant had been engaged on the Minto for the past two years and much sympathy will be felt for his untimely death under such regrettable circumstances.

Capt. Murchison was in conversation with the deceased's mother on Saturday in Summerside and informed her of her son's unfortunate but purely accidental death.

IN MEMORIAM.

The death occurred at Garfield on Saturday morning, Nov. 10th, of Murdoch McKenzie in the 57th year of his age. The deceased was a kind and inoffensive man of genial disposition and a good neighbor. He was well liked by all who made his acquaintance. He was a son of the late George MacKenzie and leaves to mourn two brothers and a sister. Some years ago he married Miss Barbara McDonald, daughter of the late John W. McDonald, who with one son, survive him. Much sympathy is felt for them in their bereavement.

Lonely the home and sad are the hours,
Since dear Murdoch from us is gone
But oh! a brighter home than ours
In Heaven is now thine own.

Only a few days of pain and sorrow,
Then the dear one was called away;
Just at the dawn of one sad morn
We heard the Angels call.

The greatest kind of Christmas present

the greatest Christmas present of its kind, the

Edison Phonograph

a gift for ALL the family, a gift for ALL the year, and for ALL the years to come

THINK of the money that is thrownaway on trifles at Christmas time—the candy that is eaten, the toys that are broken, the Christmas cards that are merely glanced at and thrown away. What have you to show for last year's Christmas?

Now think of the Edison Phonograph—the gift of a lifetime, that brings to every member of your family all of the very kind of entertainment each prefers—not merely for a day or a year, but for always. That's what makes the Edison the greatest kind of gift.

The Edison brings you the four great advantages which you should look for in a sound-reproducing instrument, and which you will find only in the Edison—exactly the right volume of sound for your home; the sapphire reproducing point, which does not scratch or wear the records and lasts forever—no changing of needles; Amberol Records, which play twice as long as the ordinary records, rendering each composition completely, the ability to make and reproduce your own records, in your own home, just as true to life as the records made in our laboratory.

That's what makes the Edison Phonograph the greatest gift of its kind.

There are Edison dealers everywhere. Go to the nearest and hear the Edison Phonograph play both Edison Standard and Edison Amberol Records. Get complete catalogs from your dealer or from us. Edison Phonographs, $16.50 to $240.00. Edison Standard Records, 40c. Edison Amberol Records (play twice as long), 65c. Edison Grand Opera Records, 85c to $2.50.
