Particulars of Son's death
Mr. J. Connolly, Iona, this week received the particulars regarding the death of his son, Sgt.
Observer Vincent M. Connolly who was killed in air operations in Egypt two months ago.

Writing to offer his most sympathy and that of all the members of No. 37 Squadron, in the great loss you have suffered through the death of your son, Sergeant Michael Vincent Connolly, who lost his life last night, I feel it will help you to know that he could not have suffered as his death was instantaneous.

Mr. J. Connolly had done most valuable work as Observer since he was posted to this Squadron in June 1941. He was most efficient, reliable and conscientious in his work, and all the other members of his crew had complete confidence in him. He will be sadly missed by us all.

A letter was also received from Robert Forester, Chaplain of the Royal Air Force, which read in part as follows: "From the bottom of my heart I sympathize with you in the tragic loss of your son.
There is nothing I can do and so little I can say, that will help you at this sad time. He was a great lad, and most popular in the Sergeant's mess, and his pilot tells me what a good Observer he was.
It seems impossible to understand why the lives of these boys should be required, but one thing is certain, they leave us a challenge which you and I cannot ignore. We, all of us, must continue the fight they were fighting with us. We must see that the sacrifice of the greatest thing they had to offer - their lives - so will never be given in vain. They offer their lives so cheerfully; I saw your son start out on his last trip, full of laughter and happiness and fun. He knew what he was facing, but to him it was worth it; he was happy to give his life in the great battle for good against all that is evil, and he is still fighting that battle, but so much more clearly and efficiently than we who are left behind. You were instantaneously killed while on a bombing raid, and was buried in a Military Cemetery out in the Western Desert at Pauka; and his grave will be cared for by the army authorities."
Observer Connolly's mother also received a letter this week from her son which had been written before his regrettable death.

He was well-known in Charlottetown having been a popular student at St. Dunstan's University for several years.

Regular I.O.D.E.
Meeting held
The regular meeting of the Royal Edward Chapter of the I. O. D. E. was held in the Chapter rooms on Monday, Nov. 24th. The Regent, Mrs. H. Gordon presided.
The meeting was well attended.

Before proceeding with the business on hand the Regent spoke of the sudden passing of Mr. W. E.
Stewart. The late Mr. Stewart joined the Chapter shortly after it was organized and has ever lived up to the order's motto "Ever Loyal". She was one of the most faithful and enthusiastic members and will be greatly missed.

Mrs. J. A. Matheson also spoke feelingly of the loss sustained by Mrs. Stewart's death.
The treasurer's report showed that when all the bills were paid, our balance in both the Chapter and war funds would be low, however this was justified when we considered the amount of work accomplished.

The Wool Committee reported a new supply of yarns on hand and stressed an urgent need for warm clothing for the prisoners of war - 65 finished articles were turned out.

TAKE A LOOK AROUND YOU!

This is a good season of the year to size up poultry flocks, and poultry profits. Take a look around you.
Notice the number of good poultry raisers (like those whose names we have listed below) who make money on their birds year after year, who year after year depend on Bray Chicks for the right kind of start.

The right kind of start is going to be even more important than usual in 1942. On the one hand, there is an enormous demand to be filled . . . the increasing needs of our own civilian population and armed forces, and the urgent need of Britain. (Recent official reports state that Great Britain will take every export-able egg Canada can produce between now and next Spring.) On the other hand, feed prices are up and labour is scarce . . . you can't afford to waste feed or time on second-rate stock. So, for 1942 fast and economical growth, low losses all along the line, high production - all these things that poultry raisers have learned by experience to expect in Bray chicks - are going to be needed more and more.

Raymond Doucett, Hunter River, P. E. I. - "Nicest bunch of pullets I ever had."
William A. Pinet, Burnsville N. B. - "This is the sixth time I have ordered Bray Chicks.
Have always been fully satisfied."
Hon. E. A. Smith, Shediac, N. B. - "Have been receiving day-old chicks from you for a number of years. Without exception, I have always had splendid satisfaction." Mrs. Sylvester Adams, Stewiacke, N. S. - "If I had 1,000 chicks I would want them all to come from the Bray Hatchery, as I can depend on them to grow and lay well. There's nothing like a Bray Chick."

Mrs. Lawrence MacLennan, Willowdale, N. S. - "The chicks I bought from you weighed heavier and I lost fewer of them than any I ever raised before. I have a lovely flock."

E. M. B. Ellis, Alberton, P.E.I.
- "Make mine Bray Chicks next year. Be sure to send me your 1942 list."

Win a Flock of Bray Chicks

If you are interested in chicks at all, we feel you should be interested in Bray Chicks. And here's a way to turn that interest to your practical advantage, right away - a sure way to get 10 chicks added on free to your 1942 Bray Chick order, and a fair chance to win one of 20 prizes, ranging from 25 to 200 Bray Chicks. No canvassing, no entry fee, nothing to buy or sell. Someone is going to get a mighty nice flock out of this - free.
It might be you. Just mail us the Canadian Legion Monthly meeting

There was a large attendance at the meeting of the Charlottetown Branch Canadian Legion B.E.S.I. held in their rooms Grafton St., Thursday evening, November 27th.
In the absence of the President through illness, Vice-President, J. T.
Robinson presided. Two new members were accepted into memo-berhood: John Miller MacDonald, Charlottetown and Donald James Campbell, Grand Traverse, P. E. I.
The Chairman of the P. O. P. and Picture Committees in their intercom report showed that the financial results would be equal to if not above last year. The Report of the Remembrance Day Parade Commission, given by a member in the absence of the Chairman told of the splendid co-operation of all who had any part and especially the Officers Commanding Detachments from all Units in this area.

The Special Committee in connection with the Legions Total War Effort reported that good progress was being made and more publicity would be given shortly.

After hearing of the formation of the Air Cadet Corps, a grant was authorized for their assistance in providing uniforms.
It was announced that there was now room for thirty more men who can qualify for the Veterans Home Guard.

The Charlottetown Branch was pleased to have present a number of the Officers of the Provincial Command including the President, R. L. Mollison and Secretary on official visit and several other visiting comrades from Summerside and Kensington Branches. All of these gave short addresses stressing their pleasure in being able to meet with us. The Provincial President dwelt particularly on the need quoted frequently from the most recent circular from the Dominion Command.

An interesting war picture was next shown and following which a cake was served.

A very successful meeting then closed.

A VISIT TO SANTA CLAUS - A Beautiful Visitor

June and Ted were talking to the rabbit when there came a tap on the door.

"Come in," said the old rabbit.
The door opened and in came a beautiful fairy queen.

"Hello, Starbright!" cried the rabbit. "Meet my two new friends."

"How do you do?" said the fairy.

The old bunny told Starbright how the children got lost and wanted to get home.
