O'Neill of Harbour Grace, Newfoundland, reached the city on Friday. The Right Rev. Father Chisholm of Antigonish, N.S., also arrived yesterday.

St. Paul's Anglican Church, Charlottetown, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday evening, June 3, at 7 o'clock, when Irene Dorothy Boughton, daughter of Mrs. Percy Cain of Toronto, Ont. was united in marriage to Flying Officer Royce Wilkes (Bud) Little, son of Mr. John Little and the late Mrs. Little of Barrie, Ont. by the Rev. A. LeDrew Gardner.

The bride, given in marriage by Squadron Leader A. F. McKillop of Charlottetown and London, Ont., looked charming in a soft brown tailored suit with white accessories and carried a bouquet of lily of the valley and talisman roses in full bloom. The bride and groom were attended by Flight Lieutenant and Mrs. A. H. Heywood of Charlottetown and Toronto, Ont. Flying Officer Alex MacDonald also of Charlottetown and Toronto acted as usher.

A small reception for immediate friends was held at the Charlottetown Hotel. Among the guests were Mrs. K. McKenzie of Barrie, Ont., sister of the groom, Lt. V. Bechaz, RCNVR and other numerous friends. The bride and groom left for a short trip on the Island and on their return will reside in Charlottetown.

One of Prince Edward Island's most widely known and esteemed citizens passed away in Vancouver on Saturday in the person of Colonel H. D. Johnson, M.D., of Charlottetown. Death was due to a heart attack. The deceased was attending a meeting of the Canadian Legion war services. A telegram was received by his widow here on Saturday morning that he was seriously ill in hospital, and word was later received that he had passed away at 4.15 p.m. on Saturday.

The late Dr. Harry Dawson Johnson was born in Charlottetown on June 28, 1863, a son of the late Dr. Hammond and Annie (Dawson) Johnson. His paternal grandfather, Hon. Harry A. Johnson, M.D., a native of Lincoln. England, was also a prominent practising physician.

Dr. H. D. Johnson attended Prince of Wales College and McGill University, graduating with his M.D. degree from the latter institution at the early age of twenty-one. He practiced for a year at Eldon before removing to Charlottetown, where he continued in active practice until his death.

His ability in his profession was widely recognized, and he held many different positions of trust and confidence in the course of his long career. He was a past president of the Prince Edward Island Medical Society, an honorary Councillor of the Canadian Red Cross Society, a prominent member of the Canadian Medical Association and also of the Association of American Surgeons, and the St. John's Ambulance Association.

Veteran of Two Wars

He was a veteran of both the South African and the First World War. In the former he served with the rank of Captain in the Canadian Field Hospital, and in the latter with the rank of Lieut.-Colonel. After the last war he took a leading part in organizing the Great War Veterans' Association and subsequently the Canadian Legion, and took the keenest interest in everything relating to the welfare of his comrades in arms. Despite the many calls on his time, he was constant in his attendance at meetings of the local branch of the Legion since its establishment. He also served on advisory boards in connection with obtaining pensions and readjustments for returned soldiers, and was known as a stalwart champion of war veterans and their dependents.

He also took a leading part in the affairs of the Prince Edward Island Hospital, and served as chairman of the board of trustees for many years.

In his younger days Dr. Johnson served four years as a member of the City Council, and also as city health officer. A Liberal in politics, he was at one time president of the Liberal Association of Charlottetown.

His religious affiliation was with Trinity Church, of which he was a lifelong member.

He was a member of the Masonic order and of the Oddfellows.

As a young man Dr. Johnson was an outstanding athlete. He was three years a member of the McGill University football team, and was also prominent in baseball and cricket.

He had an exceptionally pleasing personality, and was held in the warmest admiration and esteem by all who came in contact with him.

He is survived by his widow, formerly Miss Davine MacLeod. also two children, Mr. Hammond Johnson and Mrs. Harold (Anne) Cross, Montreal and a sister, Miss Mary Johnson, Charlottetown, to all of whom The Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

It is expected that the remains will arrive in Charlottetown on Friday evening, and will be accompanied from Montreal by Mr. Hammond Johnson.

Col. J. L. Ralston, Minister of Defence, arrived in Summerside yesterday afternoon by plane from Dartmouth, N.S. He is to remain in Prince County today, probably visiting rural areas of his constituency. Tomorrow he is scheduled to go to Charlottetown and inspect the military training camp at Beach Grove. From this Province he will go to Sydney, N.S.

Snow enough to whiten the ground fell in the western and northern section of Prince County Saturday afternoon in the wake of a rain storm that brought a precipitation measured at 1 63 inches in a few hours. And Saturday night as the weather cleared the temperature dropped until a low of 28 above zero was registered at the Charlottetown Experimental Station. Mr. Warren Burns, the weather observer, said that once the temperature reached 30 4 it will damage tender crops, such as beans, tomatoes, etc.

The Tignish area was sad to have had the heaviest fall of snow.

At 9 30 Saturday night the temperature was 38 above while last night, after a somewhat warmer day, it was 46.

The sudden death occurred at Forest Hill on May 10th, of Virginia Catherine, only daughter of Sgt. and Mrs. Stewart MacLaren, at the early age of nineteen months

Death is always sad, but when it comes so suddenly it leaves her parents heart-broken. She was a bright and loveable child, and won the hearts of all. She will be sadly missed by her parents, also four brothers, Roy, Johnnie, Albert, Wesley. She also had one sister, who predeceased her a number of years ago. She passed peacefully away on the above mentioned date at 3 o'clock a.m.

Her funeral was held on Sunday and was very largely attended, service starting at 1.30 p.m The hymns sung were: "When He Cometh", and "Safe in the arms of Jesus". The service was conducted by Rev W I Green of Dundas United Church The hearse was driven by Malcolm Stewart. The pallbearers were: Johnnie Gillis, Redgie McAulay, Albert McKinnon, and Joe Morrison.

"Budded on earth to bloom in heaven."

FRIDAY

—WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty and interesting wedding took place at George Street United Church, Peterborough, Ontario, on Saturday, May 13th, when Rev. H. L. Roberts united in marriage Florence Eleanor daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reeves, Freetown, P. E. I. and Gerald son of. Mrs. Myrtle Lester and the late Harry Lester, of Birmingham, England. The popular young couple were attended by friends. All join in wishing them every success and happiness.

—VISITS SUMMERSIDE — Mr. George Gregg Fuller, United States Consul at Saint John, for New New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, paid a short visit to Summerside yesterday morning while enroute from Charlottetown to the mainland. He was accompanied by Mr. H.F. Nelson, district passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific Railways. Mr. Fuller called on Mayor Lidstone who took him on a short sight-seeing tour of the town. He spoke appreciatively of the beauty of the town and said he planned to return for a longer stay. While here he also called on Mr. George Wahl, Mr. P.G. Clarke and Mr. W.M. Mellish.—S

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER. — The home of Mrs. Richard Stevenson, New Glasgow was the scene of a happy event on Wednesday evening, May 10th, when Miss Margaret Howatt, one of the season's popular brides was tendered a Miscellaneous shower. To the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March played by Mrs. W. B. Bulman, the bride elect was ushered to the seat of honour by Miss Anna Stevenson, and then presented with a beautiful bouquet of flowers by [illegible] Campbell. In a [illegible] decorated basket the gifts arrived and carried in by Misses Mary Larkin and Amy Toombs. Miss Joyce Hooper cut the ribbons and the humorous verses were read by Mrs. Richard Dickieson, Mrs. Foster Sellars arranged the gifts on the table. The gifts consisted of Linen, China, Silver and money. In her usual pleasing manner Miss Howatt thanked her friends for this pleasant surprise. The "Shower" was held in the dining room, which was prettily decorated, the colour scheme being carried out in pink and white. Later a dainty lunch was passed. On the following Friday Miss Howatt was united in marriage with Mr. Eric Bell of Stanley Bridge. The couple are followed by best wishes from all.

The annual meeting of the Charlottetown Auxiliary of the Protestant Orphanage was held Thursday afternoon in Zion Church ladies parlor.

The President, Mrs. J.P. Clarke, presided and a large number of members and interested friends were present.

Reports received were very outstanding, showing the work of the year had been carried on with exceptional success

On behalf of the board of trustees Mrs. H S Henderson extended sincere appreciation to the officers and members for their notable contribution to the carrying on of the work of the Orphanage, and extended an invitation to those present to attend the annual meeting of the Provincial Auxiliary being held in the Orphanage Friday June 23rd. General regret was expressed over the removal from the Province of Mrs. J. Elmer Dunning and the absence through illness of Mrs. H H. Horne. Both ladies have been enthusiastic workers for a number of years.
