KING'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Offices in Montague, Capt. W. A. Johnstone, Manager; and in Souris, Percy G. Seaman, Manager.

ADVERTISERS and subscribers in Souris and vicinity are asked to hand all matters for 'The Guardian' to P. G. Seaman, the company's agent at that place.

The Guardian's correspondent in the East writes: Again the eastern contingent has left for the mighty harvest fields of the West. Though their departure was not signalled in the same dramatic manner as the departure of the veteran volunteers for the African yield, yet their labors have the same result...

The many friends of Miss Nellie McLoren, Bru's well, will regret to learn that she is seriously ill.

Most every person has something to dispose of. All who reside in this county should hand an advertisement of some to their nearest Guardian Branch Agent and thus sell it quickly.

ADVERTISERS and subscribers in Montague and vicinity are asked to hand all matters for 'The Guardian' to Capt. W. A. Johnstone, the company's agent at that place.

50,000,000 FOR ADVERTISING

James H. Duke, the tobacco king of Long Branch, New Jersey, recently claimed in an interview that he had spent more money in advertising than any other living man. He said that the figures would reach fifty million dollars.
