The latest news, first of all.

E. Jacob Beaton, Hunter River, is spending his holidays in this city.

H. W. Turner, O'Leary, returned home yesterday from a visit to this City.

Miss Edith Rogers, City, returned yesterday from a visit to B. D. Rogers in Amherst.

Rev. W. McLeod will conduct Divine Service on Appin Road on 2nd at 11 Hampton 3 and Tryon 7 p. m.

Miss Kiely of Goff & Co's has returned to the city after spending a few days in Stanley and vicinity.

Mr. Rossborough from Campbellton, Ont., has been transferred to this city as manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia.

Allan and Mrs. Macquarrie celebrated the fifty-seventh anniversary of their marriage at their home in Searletown on Thursday the 24th inst.

Wonderland shows last an hour—three reels, containing from four to six pictures, an illustrated song and a specialty for the nominal admission fee of five cents.

Two new families and neighbors have taken up their abode in Hunter River viz: Willard Sellers and Wm. Parton whose many friends wish them every success and happiness in their new homes.

The many friends of Hon. S. E. Reid, Tryon, will learn with pleasure that he has recovered from his recent cold which was not at all severe, and has been a common complaint among many recently.

There is on exhibition in one of the windows of The Rogers Hardware Company Limited the celebrated Oxford O. K. Range manufactured by the Gurney Massey Co. The price of this range is $35 and will be reduced one dollar each day until sold. This is Gurney Massey's finest range.

In view of the forthcoming visit of the wonderful pianist, Mark Hambourg, to Charlottetown, it will interest many to recall the fact that on March 6th, 1907, Mr. Hambourg married Dorothy, daughter of Sir Kenneth Muir Mackenzie, Clerk of the Crown and permanent Secretary to the Lord Chancellor. Mrs. Hambourg is paying her initial visit to Consett in company with her husband, and will, of course, visit Charlottetown on this occasion.

It is necessary that all news, letters to Editor, etc., sent to The Guardian for publication, be accompanied by a signature and address, the handwriting of which some member of the writing staff is familiar, as well as sufficient postage for a reply or the return of the manuscript if not published, should this be desired. The Guardian takes no responsibility whatever for the publication or return of any matter forwarded to individual members of its staff.

An Oyster Bed Bridge correspondent writes: Thomas Carr is doing a pushing business in and around New Glasgow with his gasoline outfit. Patrick Walsh has returned to Oyster Bed after spending his Easter holidays at his home in Hope River. Vincent Carr, has returned to Charlottetown where he is taking a course in the Charlottetown Business College—Misses Berta and Winnie Colmore paid a short visit to Oyster Bed recently. They were the guests of Edith and Mrs. Carr. Gordon Carr was in the city Wednesday. He returned home by rail yesterday morning.

Originators of the Big Shows Imitated but Not Equalled Mischievous Rival

A story that will keep any audience interested. See how the hero is left to perish in a snow storm and the rescue by a crowd of school boys, a sharp snappy picture that is sure to please.

Across the Island of Ceylon

Could one have a more delightful treat? Such beauties on every side as the train winds its way through the land of Ceylon. The mountains in the distance huddle in the distance upon which the traveler can feast his eyes and palms and plants of every description seem to abound in this land of plenty.

Romance of a Rocky Coast

A whole reel that is an interesting story sure to please. All stories that have the breath of the sea interest patrons of picture theatres and this is one of the many. It's a story of love and one that will be sure to please.

Launcelot and Elaine

A vitagraph "film de luxe" one of the most ambitious products of this progressive house. It is a free rendering of Tennyson's poem of the same name in "Idylls of the King" and clearly illustrates its main features. The staging has been done with care and illustrates admirably the costumes and customs in vogue during the time represented.

BUD CARMIN
 in illustrated song and specialty.

Curtis Smith and W. McKenzie, Hunter River, are to leave shortly for the North West.

Malcolm S. Kiely, Covehead, has returned to his home after spending a few days in this city.

R. C. Goff, City, is expected to arrive by the Earl Grey this morning, after a business trip to Montreal.

Misses Katie and A. Graham, Bradalbane, spent their Easter holidays in Hunter River the guests of P. A. and Mrs. McKenzie.

There will be public services next Sabbath as follows in the hall at Bradalbane 11 a. m., Rosevalley 3 p. m., Hartsville 7 p. m.

Among the outward passengers by the Minto yesterday were: Fred Nash Jr to Halifax; Harry Westaway, Georgetown, to Pictou.

G. E. Frye of the International Correspondence Schools formerly stationed at New Glasgow, N. S., and well known here, has been transferred to Yarmouth, N. S.

John A. Moreside, North River Bridge, has returned to his home after spending a short time in Stanley the guest of Inspector C. W. and Mrs. Kiely.

The forty-seventh anniversary of New Glasgow Division, S. O. T., will be held in the hall at that place on Saturday eve, April 2nd. An especially good program is prepared for that occasion.

No one should miss reading Wonderland's program for tonight. There is an exceptionally fine bill for "The People's Theatre." Across the Island of Ceylon—Scene—is a lone worth the price of admission.

All Guardian advertisers should phone 132-3, daily, up to 6 p.m., and after that hour, 133. For subscriptions, phone 132-2 up to 6 p.m., and for news, phone 133 at any hour up to 3:30 a.m. When 133 does not respond, ring 124. It is a waste of time except to phone as above.

Mrs. H. C. Wolbrabe and family of Charlottetown, Mass. arrived by the Earl Grey some few days ago. They will spend the coming summer with John and Mrs. Beaton, Hunter River. Mr. Wolbrabe is a conductor on the N. Y. & H. R. Railway and will visit the province in the coming autumn.

She passed away at her home in Pictou on Tuesday, March 22nd, after a few hours illness. Maria M. Peck, thirty-five, beloved wife of Peter Peck. She leaves to mourn, besides a sorrowing husband, one daughter, Janie, aged nine, to whom the sympathy of many friends goes out, in their sudden and sad bereavement.

Rev. W. McLeod concluded a short series of services in Bonshaw on night of 25th. During the winter he conducted Evangelistic meetings seven weeks in the entire field. Although because the attendance, the keen hearty interest expected of all professedly God's children and the general honest believing effort required by the master was below what was quite possible "showers of blessings" were not realized, believers were evidently made more hopeful, faithful and surely a few others led to "the hold the Lamp of God."

At her father's residence Graham Road, New London, on Friday, March the 25th, Rebecca Bell, beloved wife of William Glover of Mill Valley and third daughter of George W. McKenzie, aged thirty one years and ten months. She leaves besides a sorrowing husband, three little children, the eldest scarce five years old and the youngest only ten months, to mourn their sad and irreparable loss. Her remains were followed on Sunday, March 27th, by a very large concourse of people to Clifton Cemetery, where interment took place. The services at the house were conducted by the Rev. John Murray. The pallbearers were Isaac M. Brown and John A. Whitehead, John W. McLeod and Harold McLeod, Heath Bowness and Harry Bowless.

If you have a good looking boy who is attending the Public Schools, he will reap the benefit of what the Kermesse will accomplish. 4-1d11.

STOCK NOTE.

The Union Institute of Egmont Bay has purchased from Hon. John MacMillan, Fairview, a very superior Ayrshire Bull. This fine animal is five years old, weighs about 1,800 lbs., comes of the very best strains of the breed, of which he is a typical representative, and his stock are noted for their deep milking qualities. The members of the Union Institute are indeed to be congratulated on securing such a splendid animal.

PROHIBITION IN NOVA SCOTIA.

HALIFAX, March 31.—In the House of Assembly, yesterday, a motion asking the Government to grant the Province prohibition was discussed and adjourned pending the presentation of a Government measure which will repeal the present license law, virtually placing the Province under prohibition.
