A trip to Pictou by the S. S. Northumberland tomorrow would make a delightful outing and the return excursion fare is but $1.50, including tea. These excursions will soon be over so citizens should endeavor to enjoy the sea breezes as often as they can.

It is announced that Rev. Neil McQuarrie of Florida, U. S. A., will deliver a series of Bible lectures at the Desable Church, Lot 29. The series will begin Sabbath, Aug. 6th, at 3 p. m. and will continue each night for a week or ten days. The lectures are to be given from the Gospel of St. John. Everyone invited to attend. The itinerary of the British Press Association has just been received at the Dept. of Agriculture. The party consists of twelve members. They will be accompanied by J. Obedt Smith, Assistant Superintendent of Emigration, London, England. They will leave P. Du Chene by Government boat at 12 o'clock for Summerside on Friday, August 11th. This morning at 6.30 in the Lunsels Street Baptist church, Rena Elizabeth, daughter of T. James and Mrs. Ward, of this city, was united in marriage to Bliss A. Smith, of Hopeville Hill, N. B., bookkeeper for W. H. Hayward & Co. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. F. McCutcheon in the presence of relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The couple were unattended. The large number of wedding presents received, including cut glass and silver, is a token of the esteem in which the young couple are held by their many friends. Two beautiful pieces of statuary were the gift of the employees of W. H. Hayward & Co. After the ceremony the happy young couple left on the morning train for a trip through Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island. On their return to the city they will reside at 27 Celebration street.—St. John Exe.

A correspondent writes:—The farmers of this vicinity have about finished their hay-making which has been a very light crop this season. Herbert Georvette, New Dominion, has been visiting here recently, the guest of Alex. and Mrs. McDougall, Hammond Alchorn, Rocky Point, spent Sunday at Hillcrest. Wm. McNeill gave a very enjoyable open air concert a few evenings ago with his Edison phonograph which was very much appreciated by those who listened to the beautiful selections rendered. What might have proved a serious accident occurred a few evenings ago when one of the local sports was suddenly surprised when his two hind wheels of his carriage dropped off throwing the occupant to the ground. Some mischievous boys had evidently loosed the nuts of the wheels, hence the accident. The occupant escaped however without serious injury either to himself or carriage, but had the horse which was attached, been a wild one it might have been otherwise.

The number of colonial born people in English life is quite large. In one column of the London Telegraph the other day there was a news item to the effect that Mrs. Twining—mother of the Marchioness of Donegall—and Mrs. Rideout held a reception party at the Dominion Club ground, Crystal Palace, for a Canadian party of teachers "now on a visit to the Mother Country." Also that when the Majesties visited the Royal Infirmary, Edinburgh, they were received by the superintendent, Colonel (Dr.) Warburton. This gentleman is a P. E. Islander. A few lines further down in the column is a paragraph about a wedding at the Brompton Oratory, when Captain Verevilly Champion de Crespigny, fourth son of Sir Claude and Lady Champion de Crespigny, of Malden, Essex, was married to Eora, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James MacSloy, of St. Catherine's, Ontario. These, as stated, are from one column only—but it was the Court Circular column.
