

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children
Mothers Know That
Genuine Castoria
Always Bears the Signature of
Chas. H. Fletcher
In Use
For Over
Thirty Years
CASTORIA

Exact Copy of Wrapper.

WEDNESDAY.
SOCIAL ENJOYED. The Young Peoples' Social in Zion Church Monday night was a splendid success in every respect. About three hundreds were present and from 8 o'clock to 11 not a dull moment passed. The Rev. Geo. C. Taylor occupied the chair when the following Florence Ings. Duet—Dorothy Plano Duet—Jean Ross and Jean Fraser. Solo—Jennie Brown. Reading—Florence Ings. Duet—Dorothy Davis and Dora MacDonald. Reading—Samuel Proffitt. Solo—Christine Kiely. Reading—Mrs. A. J. Houle. Reading—Miss Ruth McGregor. After the programme 'all repaired to the Social Room where games were played for an hour and a half. This was followed by lunch and that again by songs and choruses. The young folk parted for their home by singing "Auld Lang Syne," "Good Night Ladies," and the National Anthem.

St. Paul's Church, this city, was the scene of a quiet but very pretty wedding at 8 o'clock last evening when Mrs. Ruby Beatrice Lord, daughter of Mrs. T. Sutton of Melbourne, Australia, became the wife of Lieutenant Philip E. Palmer, son of Mr. H. J. Palmer of this city. Rev. H. D. Raymond, rector of St. Paul's officiated and Miss Lillian Earle was the organist for the occasion. The couple were unattended, the bride being given away by Mr. W. W. Clark. She looked very charming wearing a navy blue suit with fur trimmings. The ushers were Messrs Fred Cox and Harold Palmer. The ceremony took place in the presence of a large congregation. The invited guests consisted only of the immediate relatives and friends. The church was very prettily decorated with sweet peas by the girl friends of the young couple. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of Mrs. Lord.

DIAMOND DYES
Any Woman can Dye with

Each package of "Diamond Dyes" contains directions so simple that any woman can diamond-dye any old, faded garments, dresses, coverings, everything, whether wool, silk, linen, cotton or mixed goods, a new, rich, fadeless color. Buy "Diamond Dyes"—no other kind—then perfect results are guaranteed even if you have never dyed before. Druggist will show you Diamond Dyes Color Card.

Brighton, where a reception was held. They leave this morning on a wedding trip to Halifax and Montreal. Many beautiful presents were received including a silver tea service from the staff of the Fisheries Department where the bride held an important position, and from the Department of Soldiers Civil Re-Establishment, the groom being in charge of the vocational branch. The popular young couple have the best wishes of a host of friends.

DISTRIBUTING STARS.—The Department of Militia and Defence, Ottawa, is having considerable difficulty in distributing the 1914-15 Stars, owing to the change of address of those who are entitled to them. The majority of these "Stars" have been dispatched through the mails to the last known address of the recipient, but many of them have been returned, as the individuals have changed their address. Therefore, all returned men, who are entitled to this decoration, and who have not yet received it, are requested to forward their names and addresses to the Secretary of Militia Council for attention of Director of Records, Ottawa, in order that the "Stars" may be forwarded to them.

THURSDAY.
A prominent and highly respected resident of Spring Valley passed away on Thursday last in the person of Mr. William McNeill. The deceased was a successful farmer, and a public spirited citizen who took an intelligent and helpful interest in all questions concerning the betterment of his community and the province. He was a member of the Malpeque Presbyterian congregation and served for a number of years on the Board of Managers. He was 65 years of age and leaves to mourn his wife, two daughters and two sons. Mrs. Preston Ramsay of Hamilton, Mrs. Preston Ramsay of Hamilton, and George of Spring Valley and James on the homestead.

BRACKLEY METHODIST CHURCH.—That the people of Brackley are alive is evidenced by the interest shown in the Methodist Church there. During the past month or so their church has undergone extensive alteration and repairs. A handsome tower has been erected on the east end of the building, providing a new and spacious entrance, and adding greatly to the appearance of the church. The outside of the building has received two good coats of paint, and the roof has been stained a dark green. Concrete steps replace the old ones at the church entrance. The interior of the building is greatly improved by the new ceiling constructed of beaver board, tastefully painted in cream color; and the oatmeal paper with its pretty border adds much to the beauty of the edifice. The seats also have been repainted and other fixtures renovated. Altogether the work is very commendable and reflects much credit on the energetic committee in charge. The carpentry was executed by Mr. Norman Brown of Cove Head, and the painting by Mr. Vernon Howatt of Charlottetown. The re-opening services will take place on Nov. 7th, a fuller announcement of which will appear later.

In the Aberdeen Hospital, Trenton, N. S., on Friday morning, July 29, a few hours after undergoing an operation for appendicitis there passed to his reward, Mr. Benjamin Graham, aged 45 years. While still in the prime of manhood he was suddenly called to his Heavenly home. Mr. Graham's death makes a gap in the community that cannot easily be filled. He will be missed in his work shop in the Steel Works where he was loved by his fellow workmen. In the Presbyterian church where he was a constant worshipper but more especially will Mr. Graham be missed in his own home. He was one of those big hearted, jovial fellows, who was happiest when he was making some one else happy and his home was an ideal one, where the young and old loved to gather, spending pleasant hours together, knowing that they were warmly welcomed. The funeral took place from his late residence, High St. Trenton, and was very largely attended. On account of the absence of his pastor, the services at the home were conducted by the Rev. Geo. Farquhar of St. Andrew's church, New Glasgow, assisted by Rev. George Beak of the Methodist church, Trenton. At the close of the service, the Masonic Order took charge of the remains. Interment with Masonic honors at Hillside cemetery were performed by the Order. The sympathy of the community is extended to his sorrowing wife, daughter Sarah and little son, Arthur, besides numerous relatives and friends.

FRIDAY.
THE FUR INDUSTRY.—The current issue of the Saturday Evening Post, of Philadelphia, has a splendid article on the subject of furs by Floyd W. Parsons in which the whole history of the fur business in all lines is reviewed and records given of the values before and after the war, etc. Reference is made to the Silver Fox industry in Prince Edward Island which adds to the local interest.

On Oct. 11th at an early hour Mr. Malcolm Gillis passed peacefully to his reward, after an illness of about three weeks. Up to that time he was very well although he suffered at times with rheumatism. All that loving care and nursing could do was done to prolong his life. He will be missed in the home where he was always kind and considerate.

He leaves to mourn, besides many relatives and friends, two sons, Malcolm and Alfred and one sister and one brother. His wife predeceased him 6 years ago. The funeral was conducted by Rev. J. H. McKnight, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Montague. Interment in Lower Montague Cemetery.

WEDDING BELLS.—On Monday morning, October 13th, St. Dunstan's Cathedral was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding, when Miss Ethel MacNab, became the wife of Mr. Leo Doyle, the well known contractor of this city. Rev. Maurice McDonald rector of the Cathedral officiated. The bride looked charming in a navy blue travelling suit with brown furs, and wore a very becoming hat. Miss Stella Doyle acted as bridesmaid, while Mr. Wilfred McKenna did the honors of best man. After partaking of a dainty wedding breakfast, the happy couple left by the early train for Halifax and Montreal. The hosts of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle wish them a long and happy journey through life.

Mr. Chester McLure just back from New York and Montreal speaking of the fur situation reports that the markets still depressed owing to the strike of the garment workers not being completely settled. However, arrangements are being made with the workers and trade is now beginning to open up although at lower prices for raw furs than at this season last year. The trade is quite hopeful that when this present lull of raw furs is over, that the next six months will show considerable improvement in prices. The recent London sales, while showing a heavy decline in most raw furs, is gratifying to the silver fox farmers, in that their products have suffered less than any furs being offered. The American sales will begin January 17th and the Canadian auction sale will probably be two weeks previous to the Montreal auction or immediately following as the date for the Montreal auction has not yet been definitely decided. Conditions in Montreal for the retail fur trade have been exceptionally good considering the warm weather this season.

—WON THEIR APPEAL.—Messrs. Brace, McKay & Co. received a telegram from Montreal on Monday stating that they had won their appeal case in the Superior Court there. This case has been before the courts there for the best part of three years. It was tried in the Court and judgment in November of last year. The firm then appealed, and judgment in their favor is the result. This suit, as we understand it, hinged upon what is meant by "free on board." The respondents, Wm. Schmidt and others, refused to accept the drafts on a shipment of potatoes claiming the right to examine the potatoes before they did so. The court, we understand, has decided that "f. o. b. Summerside" carried with it that payment had to be made in Summerside and that it was due when the potatoes were shipped on board the steamer here. This suit has given rise to much interest among business men and we congratulate the firm on their success. We learn, too, that there can be no appeal from the last trial court—Island Farmer.

Died at Wood Islands in this Province, on Friday, October 16th, 1920, Mr. Archibald Bell, aged seventy-four years. The deceased was a son of the late Donald Bell, and was born and spent his life at Wood Islands. He was, perhaps, the most successful farmer in that settlement, and the fact that he leaves one of the finest homes in the Province, speaks well for his energy and progressive ideas. Although of a retiring and unassuming disposition he was, nevertheless, of a kind and considerate nature—open-handed to the needy, attentive to the distressed and a neighbor beyond reproach.

Mr. Bell was twice married, his first wife was Miss Mary Gill's of Montague, and his late partner, Miss Katie Munn of Wood Islands, survives him. He also leaves three sisters to cherish his memory, namely, Mrs. Angus Munn of Vancouver, B. C. and Mrs. George O'over of G.M.N. Mac—y m r oser fer and Mrs. M. G. Anderson both of Charlottetown.

The funeral which was one of the largest seen in that section took place on the following Monday at the new Cemetery at Wood Islands—the Rev. A. S. Stewart, a former pastor, officiating. The floral tributes were many and very beautiful, evidencing the esteem in which the deceased was held during life. To the sorrowing widow and bereaved sisters the Guardian extends its sincere condolence.

Ganong's
Chocolates

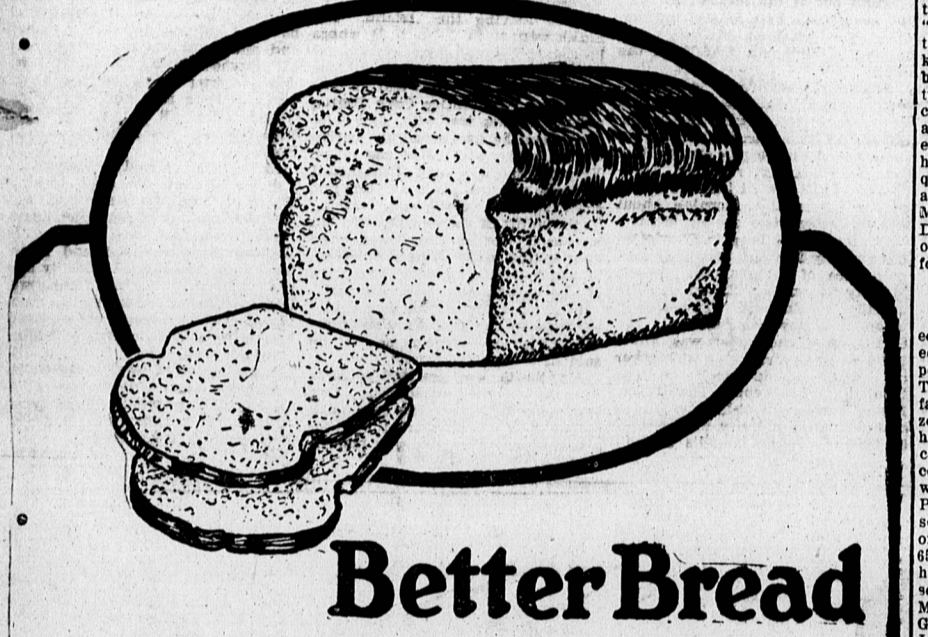

It is so easy to entertain unexpected guests when you have a "company box" of G. B. Chocolates expressly for such occasions.

Nothing to prepare—no trouble to serve—and a delightful treat for your visitors.

Originated by
GANONG BROS. LIMITED
ST. STEPHEN, N. B.

Makers for 50 Years of Fine Chocolates.

The finest in the Land

Better Bread

IT is no secret that bread made with Beaver Flour is better than—"just good bread" and has a taste and flavor all its own.

The reason for this is: Beaver Flour contains all the richness and goodness of selected Ontario Winter Wheat combined with the strength and body of Western Hard Wheat.

The scientific blending of these wheats is the feature that makes Beaver Flour so much superior to other brands, and enables it to impart to bread a delicious nutlike, homemade flavor.

BEAVER FLOUR

is not something new—for the past fifty years it has demonstrated to Canadian housewives that it is the ideal flour for all baking purposes.

Ask your grocer for Beaver Flour and use it in your next baking—the results will surprise and delight you.

Beaver Flour is ideal for all baking purposes.

THE T. H. TAYLOR CO.
LIMITED
CHATHAM, ONT.

MACDONALD'S
Cut "Brier" Smoking Tobacco

15¢ a Package
Half Pound Tin 85¢

"Brier" has been Canada's favorite Smoking Tobacco for over 40 years. The same old original quality can now be had in Cut "Brier".

The Tobacco with a heart