

OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

POULTRY MARKET—Poultry is coming in fairly good for the Christmas trade and farmers are bringing fairly good prices for their birds. Summeridge prices are as follows: Turkey from 15c to 24c; old hens 12c; chicken from 12c to 15c; 14c and 12c; geese 12c and 12c; ducks 12c and 12c.

Fire completely destroyed the residence of Mr. Cecil A. Jenkins, 100 Edward Road, two miles from Charlottetown, Saturday night. Loss was estimated at approximately $6,000, partially covered by insurance.

MOTORED FROM O'LEARY—In spite of the heavy snowfall of the past few days, Mr. Edward Lidstone motored from O'Leary on Saturday morning, making the journey in fairly decent time. Mr. Lidstone brought some of the rangers down with him, who disposed of some pelts at a reasonable figure.

SACRED CONCERT HELD—The Prince Edward Theatre was filled to capacity last night when a sacred concert was presented by the Charlottetown Male Chorus, directed by the Cherry Valley Ladies' quartette and Miss Vera MacInnis. Mr. Albert Blain, conductor of the Male Chorus and Mr. Albert Blain, organist.

HOME FOR HOLIDAYS—Miss Margaret Webster, Charlottetown, and Lorne MacKay, students at the Western University, London, Ont., have arranged to spend their Christmas holidays at their home, on St. Anne's Street, on Thursday from Ricker College, Houton, Maine. Helen DeBois, student at Macdonald College, Montreal, and Lemuel Proves, student at Toronto University, arrived last evening.

EARLY MORNING FIRE—A small house at 263 King St., occupied by Mr. Brian Connors and owned by Ernest Prunty was badly damaged by fire early this morning. The blaze, believed to have originated in the pantry, had gained considerable headway when discovered about 4 o'clock.

DEATH OCCURRED YESTERDAY—The death occurred yesterday morning at East Baité of Mrs. Clara Coffin, widow of the late William Coffin. Mrs. Coffin had been ill for some time and, after taking treatment in the City Hospital, seemed to be improved, but on her return home other complications set in. She leaves one son, Percy Coffin, and two daughters, Mrs. Allan Bruner and Mrs. Ward Chang, all of whom were present at her passing. The funeral leaves the home on Wednesday at two o'clock to Kingsboro Baptist Church where services will be held.

ON NOV. 30th the residents of Leoville, Prince Co. were shocked at the sudden passing of one of their outstanding citizens in the person of Arcade J. Gaudet at the advanced age of 89 years. The deceased had been ill for a short time and his death coming so unexpectedly proved a great shock to his immediate family. During his illness, he was tenderly cared for by loving hands and all that medical skill could accomplish, proved of no avail and on Tuesday morning in the presence of several of his children his soul winged its flight to its eternal reward.

A large circle of friends will learn with regret of the sudden passing of Mr. William Walsh, 80, at his home in this city about 9:30 yesterday morning.

Although not enjoying the best of health for some time past, the deceased was about as usual but complained of severe pains in the vicinity of his back. Before the arrival of a doctor he passed away. The late Mr. Walsh was for a number of years employed as a farmer at Falconwood, where he was known as a competent employee and held in high esteem by his employers. He retired from this position about three years ago, and has since been living quietly at home.

He leaves to mourn the following: family: William and John, City; Harry, New York; Mrs. A. J. McCann, Charlottetown; and Mrs. Fred S. Gaudet, City; Mrs. Bertha MacDougall, New York, who arrived in the city about a week ago; Miss Marie, Hartford Conn.; and Mrs. R. O. Osborne, Brook yn. N. Y. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Richard Macdonald, 27, and Charles Macdonald, 23, brothers, were drowned within sight of their home at Chepstow, three miles east of Souris Saturday afternoon when their motor boat capsized as they were attempting to land on a surf-raft beach. The accident took place 50 yards offshore. Two brothers Walter and Ronald Macdonald who had landed a few minutes previously and were preparing to assist their brothers were eye witnesses of the tragedy.

The bodies had not been recovered last night. Mounted Police directed dragging operations yesterday and a police cutter assisted. The two victims of the accident had gone out in a 22-foot boat about 9 o'clock Saturday morning to fish cod off North Lake, 15 to 18 miles from their home at Chepstow. Snow squalls began from the south-east at 11 o'clock and the wind increased in velocity and at 12 o'clock Walter and Ronald Macdonald and two brothers, took a 23-foot boat and went to fish in the bay. Both boats approached the shore together about 4:30 in heavy snow and fog. The larger boat was first landed on the beach and the two occupants pulled it out of the surf with a capstan which fishermen in the section use for the purpose. The men in the smaller boat were given the signal to come ashore and began to turn towards the beach. Suddenly the weather on shore saw a huge wave strike the boat and overturn it. As the capsized craft lifted on the crest of the next wave one man was seen clinging to its bottom but when the boat lifted again he was gone. The brothers on shore were unable to launch a log in the heavy surf and stood helplessly while the overturned boat was dragged out of the surf but SSIDE POLICE COURT—In the Summerside Police Court yesterday James MacDougall was given two months in jail for stealing the car of G. W. Phillips from his residence on Summer Street. A drunk was committed to jail for drunkenness and another had his bail bond of $100-extended.

ILLNESS REGRETTED—Mr. William T. Welner, 48, Forester Street, Brookline, Mass, formerly of Charlottetown, has been under treatment in the New England Deaconess Hospital, Boston, since October 1st. First he had an operation on his leg and the ankle amputated. A few days ago the leg was amputated. However, he is getting along well and hopes to be able to return home in two or three weeks time.

CITY POLICE WERE looking for two men last night whom they believed were involved in the robbing early Monday morning of Arthur T. Sexton, former Charlottetown man now residing at Borden. It was learned last night. Sexton had been robbed of $11 and a silver watch, police said.

According to information they received, authorities said, Sexton had been accosted by two men when he came out of a cafe on lower Queen Street shortly after midnight Sunday. They asked for a cigarette and he gave them one. The two men walked along with him for a short distance and then left. Near the corner of Grafton and Pownall Streets Sexton said he was again accosted by the two men who asked for twenty-five cents. After a short conversation, in which Sexton told the two he had no change, nothing but bills, they knocked him down and took his money and watch.

Police said they had been given a good description of the men by Sexton who declared that he recognized them as former school acquaintances. Sexton is employed on the S.S. Charlottetown at Borden.

Ten milch cows, five calves, and three horses were burned to death last evening when fire of unknown origin destroyed a barn owned by Warburton Murray, Pluville, ten miles from O'Leary. 700 bushels of oats and a quantity of hay were included in the loss. One horse was saved from the blazing building. No accurate estimate of the loss was available last night but it was believed to be in the vicinity of $3,000. It is not known whether there was any insurance.

The fire was discovered shortly after 6 o'clock, it was said, and had at that time gained considerable headway. A stiff breeze fanned the flames which spread with great rapidity. The flames could be seen for miles in the adjoining districts said. Residents at Pluville could not be reached last night to learn full details of the fire as the district has no telephone communication.

It was believed, however, that a second barn not far from the one destroyed had been saved from the flames.

AT THE OPENING OF THE County Court of Prince County yesterday Judge D. Edgar Shaw took his seat on the Bench for the first time and Clerk J. F. Arsenault read his appointment, after which Mr. Heath Strong, K.C., on behalf of the Bar of Prince County, who were present in court in a body, read the following address: To the Honourable D. Edgar Shaw, K.C., Judge of the County Court of Prince County, Prince Edward Island. May it please Your Honour: We, the undersigned, members of the Bar of Prince Edward Island, residing and practising in Prince County, desire to offer you our most hearty felicitations on your recent promotion to the honoured position of Judge of the County Court of Prince County.

Your Honour has had a long and extensive practice at the Bar of this Province, and you have also capably filled the position for many years as Magistrate for Queens County, and you are therefore eminently fitted for the high position which you have been called to and we feel sure that you will deal with all cases that come before you impartially and effectively.

We are delighted to know that you are to become a citizen of the Town of Summerside, and knowing something of your pleasant social qualities and happy entertaining abilities your coming will be all the more welcome to us.

We wish you many years of happiness and prosperity in the high office to which you have been elevated. (Signed): Heath Strong, C. D. McCallum, Thane A. Campbell, Wilfred Tanton, George M. Matheon, Ernest H. Strong, Morley M. Bell, Lewis G. Lewis, W. Henry Noonan, Walter A. Darby, Richard S. Hinton, Donald O. Stewart, J. Watson McNaught, James E. Wells, Adrien F. Arsenault, T. L. Compiton, Chester P. McCarthy.

Judge Shaw made a fitting reply expressing gratification for the kindly address and intimating that this would be an encouragement for him in the days to come to fulfill the duties of his office to the best of his ability. He referred to the gentlemen who preceded him on the bench in Prince County in a fitting manner, stating that his aim and ambition would be to emulate their high example and his motto would be as suggested by an eminent member of the Bar of another province in a congratulatory message that his association with the members of the Bar would be most pleasant, his judgment fair and honest and his mistakes as few as possible.

TEMPERATURE IS DOWN—Mr. Warren Burns, meteorologist at the Charlottetown Experimental Station, last night reported the temperature at 8 p. m. was 11 degrees above zero with a 20 mile-per-hour westerly wind which combined to make a chilly night for Christmas shoppers. At 8 p. m. yesterday six degrees above zero was recorded as compared with 32 degrees Monday.

At an adjourned meeting of the Summerside Town Council, Mayor Robinson presiding, a resolution was passed to raise the amount of the grant to the Prince County Hospital from $200.00 to $400.00.

Mr. C. Ross MacKenzie was appointed Town Clerk, the appointment to take effect on January 1. Police Officer Peter White, who has been acting in the capacity of Chief since the resignation of Chief Kinch, was appointed Chief of Police for the Town.

Bills passed were: town paid bills, $264.98; unpaid bills, $678.07; electric light paid bills, $357.07; unpaid, $1279.96.

BRIDAL SHOWER—A large number of neighbours and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McMurdo, Kelvin, to tender a shower in honor of their daughter Miss Margaret Jean. The house was tastefully decorated in pink and white for the occasion. The bride-to-be was ushered to the drawing room and seated in a bridal chair by Mrs. Stephen Burns while Mrs. Edward McMurdo played the wedding march. The numerous and useful gifts were opened by Gladys Walker and George Yeo, while Mary Stewart and Jennie McKay read the accompanying verses. Elva Stavert and Mildred McKay carefully arranged them on the table. Miss McMurdo thanked her friends for the lovely gifts and invited them all to join in singing "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow." A dainty lunch was served by the ladies and the remainder of the evening pleasantly passed in music and social chat after which all departed to their homes wishing Miss Margaret many years of happy wedded life.

A number of friends and neighbours gathered in Sea View Hall on Tuesday evening to tender a reception to Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Campbell who had recently been married. The bride and groom were escorted to seats of honor on the platform to the strains of a wedding march played by Mrs. Lorne Campbell. A large basket prettily decorated and laden with all kinds of parcels was brought in. They were opened by Mrs. Lester Duggan and the humorous verses were read by Marjory Bryenton while Pauline Coulson arranged them nicely on the table. Mr. Campbell thanked all friends for their great kindness and all joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows." Mr. and Mrs. Campbell received many gifts of linen, china and glassware, pieces of wedding silver and envelopes. The remainder of the evening was spent in music and dancing, and a delicious lunch was served by the ladies, after which all departed to their homes after wishing the young couple every happiness. Mr. Arthur Stewart capably filled the office of chairman throughout the proceedings.

BRIDAL COUPLE HONORED—On the evening of December 14 a large number of relatives and friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stavert to honor their son Robert and his bride (Gladys Profit) who had recently returned from a honeymoon trip. During the evening Mr. Percy McMurdo called the company to order while Mr. Albert Walker read a suitable address to Mr. and Mrs. Stavert, and Mr. Arnold Walker on behalf of the friends and neighbours presented them with a beautiful China cabinet. Mr. and Mrs. Stavert thanked the friends for their kindness, after which all joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows." The remainder of the evening was enjoyably spent in music and contests. Mrs. Harold Laird and Mrs. Edward McMurdo played some nice selections on the piano accompanied by Arnold Walker and Robert Hogg on harmonica. A dainty lunch was served by the ladies, and after a hearty sing-song and "God Be With You Till We Meet Again" all departed to their homes after wishing Mr. and Mrs. Stavert many years of happy wedded life.

WILLIS-ACKLAND NUPTIALS—A pretty mid-December wedding took place at Hampshire on Friday evening, the tenth, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Ackland, when their daughter Gertrude Caroline was united in marriage to Mr. Samuel Willis Wilbur Wilkins (son of Mr. Willis and the late Hubert Willis of Kingston). Rev. Byron G. Manzer performed the ceremony. The bride who was given away by her father, was attired in a blue Deja gown with collar and cuffs of white. She wore a coronet of sunset roses and carried a bouquet of similar beautiful blooms. Miss Annie Watson of Charlottetown played Mendelssohn's Wedding March as the bridal party took their places under a blue and silver crescent arch illuminated by the light of blue candles. Forty guests were banquetted in the dining room which was decorated to suit the festive season. During the evening Miss Watson and Mrs. Frank Willis entertained the guests with musical selections. Mr. and Mrs. Willis will make their new home in Kingston.

A very pleasant evening was spent on Tuesday Dec. 7th when members of Memorial Lodge L. O. O. gathered at the home of Mrs. John Howatt, Hillsboro Street, where a sister Mrs. W. H. MacLeod was an honored guest.

FIRE ALARM—The firemen responded to a second alarm yesterday morning at 11:20, for a blaze at 514 Sydney Street, occupied by Edw. Myers. A line of hose from the kitchen faucet was used to extinguish the blaze which did not cause much damage.

THURSDAY—SAID NEWS RECEIVED—Mrs. Olive MacNeill of Summerside, has received word that her cousin, Miss Lois Lee O'Donnell, graduate of Rhode Island Hospital, Providence, died on December 12th from a compound fracture of the skull caused when she was struck by a car on November 11th. Miss O'Donnell was 22 years of age. Her father, Mr. John O'Donnell was formerly of St. Laura Thomas of North St. Eleonors. Miss O'Donnell visited her mother's home last summer and relatives and friends here will regret to learn of her untimely demise.

IS PROMOTED—Captain W. A. Smith, clerk of the local police court, has been promoted to the rank of Major and the command of No. 6 District Signals, Royal Canadian Signals, with headquarters in Charlottetown, according to word received here from the National Defence Department, Ottawa. Major Smith succeeded Major P. B. Conrad who has been transferred to the reserve of officers of Military District No. 6 with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel. Major Smith served overseas in France during the war from May, 1916, to May, 1918. He went to England in 1916 with the No. 2 overseas battery seige artillery.

WEDDING BELLS—A very pretty marriage was solemnized at the United Church Parsonage, Kensington, on Wednesday, October 27th, when Miss Margaret Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McMurdo of Kelvin, was united in marriage to Mr. James Evans McKay, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McKay of Clifton. Rev. B. C. Salter performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was attended by her sister, Ruby, and Harold McMurdo. The young couple were ably supported in the groom. After the happy couple motored to Charlottetown. In the evening a sumptuous wedding supper was served at the bride's home to the immediate friends and relatives of the bride and groom. Later in the evening a party of serenaders waited upon the young couple and extended their good wishes and were all served with refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. McKay will reside in Clifton where the groom is a prosperous young farmer.

DECEMBER WEDDING—The marriage took place at the Rectory, Kensington, on Wednesday morning, December 1st, 1937, of Gladys Profit, youngest daughter of Mr. Profit, of Clifton, and Robert Edmund Stavert, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stavert of Kelvin. Rev. B. C. Salter performed the ceremony. The bride was supported by her brother Clayton Stavert. After the ceremony the happy couple motored to Borden for a honeymoon trip to New Brunswick. On their return a reception was held at the bride's home on Wednesday, Dec. 7th when a wedding supper was served to the immediate relatives of the young couple. The usual gay bunch of serenaders put in an appearance and in a jovial and hearty manner offered their congratulations amid much merriment. The young couple will reside in Kelvin where the groom is a prosperous farmer and fox rancher.

he funeral of the late Mr. William Waddell of Cape Traverse which took place on Monday, Dec. 6th, was largely attended in spite of the very disagreeable weather. After a short service at the home kindly led and a short prayer the remains were taken to the United Church. The hymns sung were: "We Cannot Think Of Them As Dead, and Peace, Perfect Peace." Miss Mary Mullett sang very beautifully and with much feeling "No Burdens Younger." A comforting message was delivered by his pastor, Rev. Ralph Barker, who conducted the services both at the home and the church. Many beautiful floral offerings testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held. Mr. Waddell, who passed away after a lingering illness will be greatly missed in the community of which he was a prominent citizen. He was a successful farmer and miller. He was for many years a member of the United Church and was a member of Mount Moriah Lodge A. F. and A. M. He leaves to mourn their loss his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Willy Irving of Borden, two sons, Glenn and Clarence, both of Cape Traverse, a number of grandchildren and the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. Cleaver McLean, Charlottetown; Miss Louise Waddell and Mr. Samuel Waddell of British Columbia; Mr. Augustus Waddell of North Tryon, and Mr. Murdock Waddell of New York. Mr. Waldron Darrach of Kensington, conducted the Masonic service at the grave. The following were the pallbearers: Messrs. Fred Bell, Douglas Bell, J. H. Hewitt, Leslie Campbell, Leigh Lowther, and Montague Campbell. Interment was in the United Church cemetery at Cape Traverse.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Mr. William Walsh was held yesterday morning from the residence of his son William, 74 Bayfield St., to St. Dunstan's Hall, where Requiem High Mass was sung by Rev. P. McMahon, D. The pall bearers were Messrs. Martin, Riddell, Binns, John F. Reardon and Sgt. Allen McInnis. Service at the grave was conducted by Rev. G. McCormack.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Ellis, for thirty years residents of Tyne Valley, have taken up their residence in their lovely new home just east of Summerside. Before leaving the "Valley" they were wailed on by friends and neighbours and presented with an address and parting gifts.

After the presentation and address to which Mr. Ellis replied very fittingly, the evening was given up to social intercourse and music and dancing.

The pupils of St. James Sunday School gave their annual Christmas concert in St. James Hall last evening. It was a large audience of parents and friends. Mr. D. A. MacKinnon, superintendent of the school acted as chairman and introduced the performers in the number. The Minister Dr. R. Moorhead Legate spoke briefly at the close commending the teaching of the evening's entertainment. The success it was the arrival of Santa Claus with his load of candy and oranges was greeted with tremendous applause.

Peter Campbell and John Stanley were arrested by City Police last night charged with robbery with violence. Charges were laid following investigation of the alleged robbing of Arthur T. Sexton, Borden resident, in Charlottetown early Monday morning. Sexton was accosted when he came out of a lower Queen Street cafe. The two men accosted him near the Granon-Fowles street intersection and asked for twenty-five cents. He told them he had nothing but bills and they knocked him down and robbed him of $11 and a silver watch.

Sexton, a native of Charlottetown now employed on the S. S. Charlottetown, told police he recognized one of the men who accosted him as a former school acquaintance.

A happy event was celebrated on Friday evening, Dec. 17th, at Kensington, where a large number of relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Casley, to honor the occasion of their Silver Wedding. On the occasion of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Casley, the occasion of their Silver Wedding was celebrated. Mr. John W. Hogg, of Summerside read an address and Mr. Wm. Johnson, of Margate, made a presentation of a lovely chest of silver and other small gifts. Mr. Casley's own and Mrs. Casley's behalf, the occasion acknowledged the kindness of the present.

Rev. B. C. Salter made an appropriate speech. A Sing-Song was led by Mr. Russel MacKay with Mrs. MacKay as accompanist. At the conclusion of a most enjoyable evening a beautiful luncheon was served by Misses Mary Casley, Evelyn Johnson, Margaret Profit and Mrs. Ellis Profit.
