THREE PLAYS STAGED IN COMPETITION

Charlottetown And Dundas Players Win First Place.

Two plays, one by Dundas and the other by Charlottetown players were given first place in the religious drama competition at Heartz Hall, Charlottetown last night. A production by Hunter River players placed second. The competition was open to United Church Young People's Societies, Eastern Section.

First play last night was "The Light in the Window" staged by Hunter River. The plot was woven around the story of the resurrection. The light in the window was the cheer, joy and hope of the Easter message. Composing the cast were: Mrs. Harold Mellish, Mrs. Gordon Carew, Miss Thankful Bain, Mr. Elmer Ling, Mrs. Ernest Cousins, Mr. Stephen McConnell, Mr. James Craig and Miss Hazel Sellar.

Some very good singing featured the presentation of this play.

Second play was "One Thing Thou Lackest" by the Dundas group. This drama was based on the Scripture message contained in a story of Mary, Martha and the rich young ruler.

In the cast were: Hazel Burdett, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Wigginton, Mr. Ralph Burdett and Mr. Norman McLeod.

"Cleopas" was the third play by members of the Charlottetown players. The story dealt with the change brought about in a youth through his association with the Master. In the cast were: Miss Betty Rogers, Mrs. Don Archibald, Mr. Frank Storey and Mr. Allister MacLeod.

The last two plays were staged with bright oriental costumes.

The Montague Society was to have entered the competition but withdrew when they found the stage here was not suitable for their particular production.

Judges last night were Mr. Harry Foster, Mr. Helen Ramsay and Rev. H. T. Denton.

This was the first time for the eastern section Y. P. S. to conduct such a competition. Those responsible for the organization were Miss Isabel Brown, Mr. Angus Gilmore and Mr. Harold Vessey all of York.

Re-union Of Ex-service Men Is Proposed

The Charlottetown Branch of the Canadian Legion, B. E. S. L., was authorized to conduct a re-union of ex-service men of Prince Edward Island this summer at the regular monthly meeting of the branch last night. During discussion a picnic was suggested in connection with the proposed re-union. Comrade President J. P. Hilion presided.

Comrade W. A. McLaggan of Montague, provincial president, was a guest at the meeting. He spoke briefly on the Dominion Convention and gave an outline of the working of the different committees. In the course of his talk he asked the co-operation of all members in giving their time and service to their respective branches.

Comrade H. D. Johnson moved a vote of thanks to the Coronation Decoration Committee for the splendid manner in which the Legion Home was decorated for the occasion, mentioning the fact that numerous citizens had passed very favourable comment on the work.

Comrade R. C. Chandler moved a vote of thanks to the Branch for their splendid turnout on the Coronation Day parade.

The matter of the purchasing of a standard was also discussed.

In reference to employment the Branch President, Executive and members also the members of the Honorary Local Committee—Veterans Assistance Commission wish to thank the Employment Committee of the City Council for the very generous quota given to the ex-service men on the different work projects being carried out.

The next monthly meeting of the Charlottetown Branch will be held on September 23rd.

Corpus Christi Procession Sunday

SCOUTS GIVE ENJOYABLE PERFORMANCE

Dramatic Presentation By 1st Ch'town Boy Scout Troop And Cub Pack.

A decided success was scored by the 1st Charlottetown Boy Scout Troop and Cub Pack in their dramatic presentation at Queen Square School Hall last evening. A large and appreciative audience witnessed the performance, which was the first of its kind attempted by the troop, the intention being to devote the proceeds to the expenses of their summer camp.

The entertainment took the form of a three-act play, entitled "The Snob". The title role of Worthington Leonard, taken by William DeCoste, was that of a rich boy who joins the Boy Scouts with snobbish ideas about his importance in the organization; who objects to the admission of Tony Ardis, a poor boy (played by Earl Doyle) but subsequently develops into a "good sport" through contact with his fellow Scouts and better understanding of Scout principles.

Comedy was supplied by "Nip" and "Tuck" (Francis MacDonald and James Morris) in the role of amiable youngsters who seemed to find it impossible to keep out of trouble.

The supporting cast, admirably played throughout, including "Fats" (Elin, with business instincts (Richard Rowley) "Chubby Childs who 'don't care if he is fat" (Arthur Brown), "Watermelon Jackson," a lazy "coon" Janitor (Vincent King), Dick Randolph, Patrol leader (John Dooley), Mrs. Jackson (Bob Morris), "Lippy" Scudder (Raymond McDougall), "Bub Waldron, (Loman McAuley), Jack Hall, assistant Patrol leader (Donald Gillis), "Puppy" Higgins, (Henry Dou-

PENSION POLICIES

-FOR MARRIED AND UNMARRIED PEOPLE

IF YOU ARE SINGLE

The Mutual Life "Pension With Assurance" Policy is becoming increasingly popular among the young men and women who wish, by systematic saving for a period of years, to guarantee themselves a monthly income for life, commencing at age 50, 55, 60 or 65. This policy also provides insurance protection for a parent or other dependents.

IF YOU ARE A MARRIED MAN

Family men are buying the "Pension With Assurance" Policy as a guarantee against dependent old age, and by adding the Family Income clause are providing insurance protection for wife and family while the children are growing up.

For instance, if a man lives to 60 or 65, whichever pension age he chooses, he will receive a monthly income for the rest of his life if he dies within ten years after the pension starts the Company will continue payments to the end of the ten year period.

Should the policy become a claim before the pension date, his beneficiary will receive a monthly income commencing at his death and continuing until the date the pension would have started, and at that date the full face amount of the policy will be payable.

Pension policies share in the Company's dividends, both before and after the pension commences. Under certain conditions the Double Indemnity Accident benefit and the Disability benefit may be added.

Further details will be given gladly by any of our representatives in Canada, Newfoundland or Bermuda. Or send the coupon below to our Head Office at Waterloo.
