CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATES GIVEN TREMENDOUS OVATION

Great Reception For Messrs. Kennedy And MacKenzie At Bradalbane Meeting.

One of the largest political meetings ever held in the First Queens riding took place at Bradalbane on Tuesday evening. The large hall was packed to the doors, and hundreds were unable to gain admittance. The best of order prevailed throughout the meeting, and each speaker received an attentive hearing. Mr. Thomas R. Wigmore presided, and on the platform were a number of ladies and gentlemen from Charlottetown. Besides the addresses by the Candidates, splendid speeches were given in support of the Government representatives by the former member for the District, Mr. A. J. MacNevin, and by Mr. John D. Kennedy, Conservative Candidate for Second Prince; while Mr. James Brown, Bradalbane, spoke on behalf of Messrs. Sinclair and Stewart, Liberal representatives.

Mr. Peter Sinclair was the first speaker, and his address was along the usual lines. He contended that the Stewart Government had greatly increased the debt of the Province, and quoted from Blanchet report and many other sources to prove his contention. He felt that an injustice has been done in taking the liquor question into politics, and contended that the proper way would have been to have held a plebiscite. His address did not seem to impress the audience, and on taking his seat he received very little applause.

Mr. Walter G. MacKenzie, the next speaker, received great applause on rising to speak, and it was some time before the demonstration subsided sufficiently to allow him to proceed. He spoke principally on the proposed change in the prohibition law, and made a deep impression on the audience by his sincerity and the convincing facts which he presented. He strongly criticized the attitude of the Leader of the Liberal Party in his unwise contention that cheaper booze and cheaper scrips would strengthen the prohibitory law. In conclusion he made a strong plea for acceptance of Premier Stewart's assurance that his substitution for the present law was more in the interests of true temperance. His speech produced a splendid effect, and on taking his seat was tendered round after round of applause.

Mr. Allan Stewart the next speaker, was received with silence. He evidently felt the cool reception and only spoke very shortly. He gave his usual criticism of the roads, maintaining that they were in a dreadful condition, and closed by criticising the Improved Temperance Measure of the Stewart Government. He sat down, evidently convinced that his arguments had met with little sympathy.

Hon. Murdock Kennedy, on taking the platform, was greeted by a volley of hand clapping and cheering, and in a splendid speech, which was time after time punctuated by applause, pointed out the splendid achievements of the Government, and effectively answered Mr. Sinclair's criticism of the finances. He warmly upheld the Improved Temperance policy and censured those false and slanderous assertions that the Stewart policy meant bar rooms on every cross roads. It was quite evident that Hon. Mr. Kennedy has lost none of his popularity in his home poll, and if applause is evidence of what the results will be on Election day, then the election of the Hon. Mr. Kennedy and Mr. MacKenzie is a foregone conclusion.

Mr. A. J. MacNevin and Mr. John Kennedy followed, speaking on behalf of Messrs. Kennedy and MacKenzie; and Mr. James Brown, Bradalbane, upheld the cause of the Liberal candidates.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks to the Chairman and the singing of the National Anthem.

Says Japan Must Be Strong In Cruisers

(Special to the Guardian)

GENEVA, June 23.— Japan is unable to accept the 5—5—3 ratio of naval strength except as applied to capital ships, Admiral Saito, Japan, told Hugh Gibson head of the delegation in a conference they held today to begin harmonizing their conflicting views.

Japan must be strong in cruisers, destroyers and submarines, Saito said. He intimated Japan would consider making concessions in other directions.

Plan Evolved For Distribution Of Canteen Fund

(Special to the Guardian)

TORONTO, Junt 23.— Following a meeting of the soldiers aid commission held yesterday the chairman, Hon W. H. Price, announced that a definite plan was now being evolved for the distribution of Ontario's $900,000, portion of the Dominion Canteen and that it was probable that a settlement satisfactory to all would be made by the early fall.

Commissioner Bart Hooper is at present in England on work for the British Empire Service League and it is understood that incidentally he is making a study of Canteen fund distribution over there in order to submit constructive suggestions on his return. The problem is now one of long standing and has caused a good deal of discussion together with not a little friction, among the veterans themselves who have been laying scores of suggestions and counter suggestions before the commision.

To Decorate Grave Of Sir John A. McDonald

(Special to the Guardian)

KINGSTON, June 23. — Brig. Gen. A. E. Ross, M.C., in an appeal to leading Conservatives has realized a fine sum which will be devoted to the decorating of the grave of Sir John A. MacDonald in Cataraqui cemetery.

There will be a magnificent display and it will be a splendid tribute to one of the great master minds in the confederation of provinces into the Dominion of Canada. This historic spot will be the mecca for thousands during the weeks following Dominion Day.

In Cataraqui cemetery are also the graves of Sir Alexander Campbell, Sir Richard Cartwright and Sir Georget A. Kirkpatrick who contributed much to the unification of their native land.

Port Of Tsingtao Occupied By Nationalist Troops

(Special to the Guardian)

SHANGHAI, June 23.— The important port of Tsingtao, in Kiaochow Bay, in the province of Shantung, has been occupied by a detachment of nationalist troops, say the vernacular newspapers, which they recently captured and then proceeded along the Railway towards Tsinanfu, the capital of the Province.

The papers also state that the northern general Sun Chuan Fang, at one time the defender of Shanghai, who is now at Tsinanfu, is expected to surrender to the southerners.

The vernacular newspapers reported added military activity at Tsingtao by the Japanese, a temporary wireless station having been accomplished and preparations made to further troop accommodations.

A FINAL MESSAGE FROM PREMIER STEWART

To the Electors of the Province of Prince Edward Island,—

You are now nearing what is probably the most important political contest in the history of this Province. On Saturday you will by your votes decide whether you wish to retain a Government which has reduced taxation or to reinstate a Government with a record for increasing taxation; to retain in power a Government which has kept the promises upon which it was elected or to reinstate a Government with a record for flagrant violation of every pre-election promise; whether you wish to keep in power a Government that has succeeded in obtaining from the Federal Government by way of an increased subsidy the largest single amount ever obtained from that source,—or to reinstate in power a Government that in the face of a pre-election promise made no effort whatever during its four years' term of office to obtain such increase in revenue.

As the present Government goes to the country there is absolutely no fair or successful criticism of its record or administration. Perhaps the chief fighting ground lies around the proposed temperance policy of the present Government. You will have to decide whether you wish to retain the present Prohibition Law which has been found impossible of enforcement, not only in this Province but in every other Province in Canada, whether the enforcement has been in the hands of an independent commission or in the hands of a Provincial Department of Justice; a law under which there has grown up evils unheard of before and which if allowed to continue and to increase will undoubtedly jeopardize the future of our Province; a law which is not enforceable because it has not behind it the great weight of public opinion.

Or whether you wish to follow the example of our great sister Provinces and adopt a law which will have behind it the weight of public opinion; a law framed to deal in a practical way with conditions as they exist rather than to embody in a statute an ideal impossible of present attainment.

The Government asks you when going to the polls on this occasion to look at its record of business administration and its record of reduced taxation upon the people of the Province, and at its record of pre-election promises fulfilled. It asks you to eliminate from your minds mis-statements, misrepresentations, slanderous and untruthful propaganda which has been aimed at it throughout this campaign, and to trust this Government which has kept its promises to you to date, to deal with this troublesome problem of Temperance legislation and enforcement in the same manner which it has dealt with other governmental matters entrusted to it in the past so as to produce the results which all good citizens of our beloved Province expect and look for.

Faithfully yours,
J. D. STEWART.
