And there's good reason for it, too.

Blended Flours

combine the rich nutriment, the whiteness, lightness and delicate flavor of Ontario wheat with the strong qualities of Manitoba wheat.

For all home baking—no flour, milled only from spring wheat, can compare with a BLENDED FLOUR.

Look for this trademark on every bag or barrel of flour you buy.

Take no other.

PRINCE COUNTY GUARDIAN

Offices in Summerside, D. K. Currie, Manager; and in Alberton, Herbert Clark, Manager.

Howard Mark made the round trip by the Empress yesterday returning to Alberton last night. Mrs. Jessie G. Higgins, 33 ton, formerly Miss Gouldrap of Tryon, was in Paris on August twenty-first. Mrs. Winnie Schurman and Miss Mary Beane leave this morning for Mt. Allison Ladies' College, Sackville. Mrs. J. Clarke Macquarrie, Summerside will be at home Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons and Tuesday evening. Barbering chair wanted. Any person who has a barbering chair to dispose of should apply at once to Frank Vutsko, barber, Alberton. Advertisers and subscribers in Alberton and vicinity are asked to hand all matters for The Guardian to Herbert Clark, the company's agent at that place. The Masonic lodges of Summerside will meet this evening at 7:30 to arrange for attendance at the funeral of the late Richard Hunt. The funeral takes place tomorrow at 2:30 p. m. with Masonic honors. A very pretty wedding took place at Summerside, Monday, Sept 2nd, when Miss Marion Lona Adams daughter of James Adams was united in marriage to Jason Bent Smith of the Suffolk Engraving Company, Boston, Mass. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. C. McLean. The bride was prettily attired in white muslin with lace trimmings and hat to match, and was attended by her sister Miss Myrtle who was becomingly dressed in white organdie and black picture hat. The groom was supported by Jos. H Wood of the firm of Maclellan Bros Charlottetown. After a short tour of the eastern part of the Province they leave for Watertown, Mass., where they purpose residing. The annual financial meeting of the Methodist Church, Summerside District was held at West Devon on the O'Leary circuit Aug 25th and 27th. All the ministers of District were in attendance and the following lay delegates answered to their names. N. R. Wright, J. B. Lea, H. T. Pickering, John Grigg, James Hudson, W. E. Brooks, Cephas Grigg. The reports from the various circuits indicated a healthy spirit of progress in all departments and on Monday evening a goodly number attended the preaching service which was followed by the sacrament of the Lord's Supper administered by the Chairman of District Rev. G. Steel, assisted by Rev. Hugh Miller pastor of District Meeting church. On Tuesday afternoon following the business sessions their crowning evidence of perfect hospitality and kindness in the form of an open air feast which was spread on the lawn of Cephas Grigg, and which followed by a service in the Methodist Church in the interests of the Conference Sustentation Fund which was addressed by Rev. H. Pierce and Rev. J. B. Gough, brought to a close one of the most encouraging and enjoyable District Meetings ever attended by those present. Mrs. Peter E. Halloran of Boston and Miss Helen C. Halloran are guests of James A. and Annie O. Halloran at O'Leary. Most every person has something to dispose of. All who reside in this county should hand an advertisement of same to their nearest Guardian Branch Agent and thus sell it quickly. The entertainment held at Kensington Monday night under the auspices of the Presbyterian church choir proved a decided success. The sum of $36 being realized. The program which consisted of readings, solos, duets choruses etc., was most satisfactorily carried out, Miss Harrison's readings were much appreciated. Miss Murray received her usual welcome and applause. Mrs. Gordon and Mrs. Campbell's efforts delighted the audience, while Fred McSwen was obliged to respond to numerous encores. At the Acadian Teachers' Convention held last week at Summerside the following officers were re-elected. President, Martin Gallant; Vice-Prés, Laurant Arsenault, Sec-Treas, Jas Blanchard. The subject of the selection of French books for use in schools was fully discussed and the matter was placed in the hands of the French clergy together with the president of the association and the Inspector of schools. The new series of books recently issued in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick will probably be recommended. A resolution was adopted asking that female teachers be paid the same salaries as male teachers. The convention was largely attended and a number of interesting subjects were discussed. ANNOUNCEMENTS. Hard Coal to arrive—The three-masted schooner Winifred will be due here about the 7th day of September with a choice cargo of Anthracite Coal in egg and chestnut sizes. This cargo will be sold at lowest possible prices while discharging. 8-30lmw/31. Advertisers are asked to have 'change in not later than ten a. m. each Saturday for the Morning Daily and Rural Daily, as Guardian employees have a half holiday each Saturday. The business, and news departments are open as on other days. Travellers complain of the condition of the roads in Charlottetown, especially along by T. F. Jones and A. S. Wright's. It is understood that these owners sold and taxpayers are wondering why repairs are being delayed. A very pleasing contrast is noticed in the adjoining district of West Albany where the roads are a credit to the community. Mrs. Joseph Nauger, Miss Bernice Naugler, and Mrs. Stephen Naugler returned last week to their home in Marlboro, Mass., after spending two months with their parents John and Mrs. H. Yac, of Harmony, Lot 13. At a reception before their departure about forty young folks and school mates assembled to bid them good bye, and to wish them a happy return home. Miss Mary C. Hunt daughter of the late Wm. T. Hunt, St. Eleanor's and Rev. T. M. Webster, rector of St. Mary's College will be united in marriage this morning in St. John's church, St. Eleanor's at 7:30 by Rev. Dr. Hunt, brother of the bride. Owing to the recent bereavement in the bride's family and the death yesterday of her uncle Richard Hunt the wedding will be private. Mr. and Mrs. Webster leave this morning by the Empress for Quebec. OLD OFFENDER CAUGHT. Impossible to escape being cured if you apply Putnam's Corn Extract to the worst corn in record. Painless, safe and costs only a quarter in any drugstore.
