

THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

The Judgment Day

2 Tess. 1:7-10.

The Judgment Day is drawing near. When the archangel's voice will be heard...

Christ will appear in fiery flame. To all who had despised His name. But to the saints, 'tis lovely light...

Glorified saints will with Him come. And angels from the Heavenly home. In Jesus' beauty they shall shine...

When Christ will sit upon His throne. With nations gathered every one. His judgment He will then begin...

And from the grave the dead arise. To meet the Savior in the skies. All others on the earth are changed...

The righteous all will then rejoice. In praise to Christ will raise their voice. Their hearts are filled with joy and peace...

And vengeance on the wicked take. Who in their day against Him spake. Their plea for favor He won't hear...

Their faces also fill with shame. Although they once despised His name. They will get the reward of sin...

They were Christ's enemies on earth. Impure, unholy from their birth. And from this world they now must go...

By sin they league with Satan made. And serve court to Him they paid. They loved the garish sinful ways...

The day of grace is ever o'er. The Judge has come upon His throne. To render every one his own...

Their prayers now will not avail. Although they supplicate and wail. And though they quickly bow the knee...

And glorious shall be the place. Where we shall see the Saviour's face. And sweet, serene shall be the clime...

And happy, glorious the time. This is our great felicity. That Jesus Christ we soon shall see...

And dwell forever in His sight. In that fair land of all delight. D. MacLEAN.

Tragedies on Dominion Day. — A Former Wave of Crime.

(BY W. L. COTTON)

Dominion Day, a holiday in which all the people are reminded of the blessings that flow from the political union of British North America, has been marked in this province by two notable tragedies.

The first of these occurred on the First Dominion Day in which the people of this Province took part. In the afternoon there was a large assemblage in the upper hall of the convent of Notre Dame of this city.

Four years later early in the morning of July 1st, 1878, the five young gentlemen, viz. E.W. Davidson, Robert Weir, Lowman Yeo, Fred Compton and John Moore, left Charlottetown for a day's fishing at New Glasgow.

Mr. Beer, who must have been greatly heated by the exertion of sculling was the third or fourth of the party who ran into the water. He was quickly beyond his depth...

When Heaven and earth shall pass away. Then Jesus Christ will be our stay. With Him we shall forever be. From every sin and sorrow free.

And dwell forever in His sight. In that fair land of all delight. D. MacLEAN.

IN MEMORIAM

MR ALLAN MACQUARRIE

Many friends in this province and elsewhere, will learn with sadness, of the passing of his mortal rest of Mr. Allan Macquarrie, at his home in Seaside on the evening of July 14th at the advanced age of ninety-five years.

He had been confined to his bed for three months gradually becoming weaker until the end came. Possessed of a remarkable constitution, it was only of recent years that his familiar person was missed from his accustomed duties about his home.

About fifty years ago he removed from Crapaud to the farm on which he lived until his death and in that time, those who were privileged to meet him in his home were always welcomed in a kindly and hospitable manner.

His home was one in which God's name was revered the Bible his constant study in leisure hours. His excellent memory, which he retained in his old age made him a pleasant and entertaining person to converse with.

He leaves five sons and three daughters. Mrs. Allan MacLellan, Mrs. A. S. Mrs. Dr. G. S. Littlefield, West Harpswell, Me., Mrs. Frank Mahan Middletown, Conn., Edwin in Epworth Mass. A. W. in Mattapan, Mass. James George, and Calvin at home.

The funeral was held on Monday 17th. Rev. Ewen MacDougall conducting the service, interment being made in the cemetery at Cape Traverse.

MRS. JAMES CURRIE

It was with deep regret the many friends and relatives learned of the sudden passing away at Charlottetown on the 28th of May 1922, of Mrs. James Currie from this world to that of the Great Beyond.

Death at any time to us is sad, but when it comes suddenly and unexpected as it did in this case it seems harder to bear. Mrs. Currie was stricken with paralysis while attending service at Church. She was removed to her home, a doctor summoned and everything that was possible to do was done to revive her, but not so. God willed it otherwise. A few hours later she passed peacefully away. The deceased, who was of a quiet and loving disposition was 65 years of age. Dearly loved by all who knew her, was never known to hurt the feelings of her fellow men.

She was formerly of Bonshaw. Six months previous to her death ing the harbor seemed to be bearing down upon him and he taking no notice of it. They shouted to warn him, but he made no sound or motion. Mr. Dawson, who was by this time on shore, saw that he was not swimming and called to Moore to swim after him. Moore did so; and was horrified to find only the helpless body—the life, the spirit, which animated it but a few moments previously, all gone.

He shouted for help; and Yeo quickly came to his aid. Dawson also sprang in again. With the utmost difficulty the body was brought to shore. Resuscitative were instantly applied. The late Mr. Justice Hensley and others who were on the shore tried for more than half an hour by every method known to them to restore animation. All in vain.

The pulse moved not once, and no breath marred the brightness of the mirror held to the rigid lips. The soul of Walter Beer had fled to its rest; and neither by cry or moan was its flight made known to those who bathed with him. As soon as possible the body was removed to the hotel and a coroner's inquest held. The verdict was: Death caused by the pouring into the water overboard.

It was a warning to the bathers of that day as to these of the present day. Those who say that crime in this Province has greatly increased in recent years must be surprised to learn that for trial in the January term of the Supreme Court 1879 there were two cases of murder, two of arson four of forgery—The culprit in one of these cases being a youth of fifteen years—one of rape, two of sheep stealing, four of house breaking, three of maiming horses and cutting their tails, one of highway and five of larceny. At that time there were in Charlottetown twenty-one taverns, eight saloons and nine stores in which intoxicating liquors were sold under licence of the civic authorities, and there were other taverns throughout the Province. Even then it will be seen, was of crime occasionally broke over the Province.

she moved to Charlottetown. She leaves to mourn a sorrowing husband and two daughters, Mamie and Hannah of Charlottetown. The service was conducted by the Rev. D. M. Lamont Lat her residence, 92 Green St. Her body was laid to rest at Argyle Snore Cemetery to await the great resurrection of the dead.

Yes, friends will miss her, but it can be truly said, it is in the home of her husband she will be sorely missed.

MRS. ERNEST M. BRYNTON

Kincaid district, learned with regret on Saturday, July 15, that Johanna McBeth, beloved wife of E. M. Brynton had that day passed away at the home of her parents at Lorneburn, Sask. Mrs. Brynton had been in failing health for the past year, leaving here March 6, for Rochester, where she was operated on. After a month she was brought to Lorneburn but in spite of the best medical skill and care she rapidly failed.

Deceased who was in her thirty first year was a woman of sterling worth, a devoted mother and a most valuable asset to the community, never failing to give unreservedly of her able talents to any worthy cause. She first came to this community, Xmas 1916, living for two years in Hazenmore and since then on their farm in the Hudson District. She leaves to mourn their loss a husband and four children, ranging from four to ten years, also her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McLean, Lorneburn, six brothers, J. R. of Reston, N. B., M. S. of St. John's, N. B., Demaine, Sask., C. E., Gordon, and Oliver of Lorneburn and four sisters, Mrs. McIvor, Reston, Man. Mrs. G. F. Edwards, Grande Prairie, Alta., Mrs. B. F. Menzies and Miss M. McLean of Kincaid, also a brother in law, E. M. Tysdal of Brier Crest, all of whom attended the funeral. Her sister, Mrs. E. M. Tysdal predeceased her.

Funeral services conducted by the Rev. Robertson of the Union Church, Lorneburn were held from the home of her parents on Monday, July 17, interment taking place in Lorneburn Cemetery. The high esteem in which the deceased was held was manifest by the large attendance, over seven-hundred cars going to the cemetery. Her six brothers were pall bearers.

Among the floral tributes which were beautiful and numerous were a large cross of pink and white. From the parents, sisters and brothers, an anchor of lilies from her husband and children, a wreath from Mrs. Skatford and Mrs. J. Campbell, Hazenmore, wreaths from Mrs. C. Butcher, Kincaid, I. O. F. Hazenmore, Union Church of Lorneburn, Town of Lorneburn and E. M. Tysdal, Brier Crest and shield of roses from Elizabeth and Phyllis Menzies, Kincaid.

The family have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement. Sweet was her life, but sweeter far. Is her joy in the Heaven above. All time cannot dim the memory. Of joy shed by her, we love.

PARKING No Canadian motorist who has driven in the busy district of any big city has failed to realize the seriousness of the parking problem which the tremendous popularity of the motor car has created in recent years. Streets, laid out before motor vehicles were dreamed of, prove utterly inadequate for accommodation of the cars which the public would like to park in the business district. That some solution must be found at an early date is manifest. Of peculiar interest, therefore, is the practical solution, described in Popular Mechanics, which has been worked out by the management of a new office building in Los Angeles housing thousands of persons, a large number of whom use motor cars. Not only has provision been made for tenants of the building, but for patrons of these tenants as well, thereby giving occupants of this big structure a decided advantage over those in other buildings. In the construction of this skyscraper an underground garage was built at the rear of the lot and adjoining the office building. This fireproof storage space accommodates nearly 200 cars and is reached from the street by broad ramps. Stalls in the garage rent for $20 a month. Here a moderate temperature obtains at all times, and a car and its contents are safe from exposure to the elements, and also from thieves.

Gave His Business for Keep and Golf LONDON, Aug. 3.—Lord Riddell, who made many American friends at the Washington Conference, speaking at a luncheon at the Cricketh Golf Club, related this: "The greatest hero in gold history was a Scotsman who in the year 1710 used to start playing at dawn and end by putting the last green by candle light. "Matters reached such a stage that his wife, an innkeeper, applied for a separation order. This enabled the man to make one of the most pathetic declarations in history. "Let her have the business," he said, "provided she gives me sufficient to clothe and feed myself and provide myself with golf balls." "The magistrates must have thought at a very proper disposition of the marital property, because they decreed accordingly, and the gentleman lived to be 95 and continued his vocation."

COX AND ERSKINE TIED By W. H. Gocher When Cox won with Lee tide on the opening day of the Columbia Meeting, he tied Erskine's score for the year. Each of them had thirteen victories. Erskine shipped from Toledo to Marion where he won with Arnold, Frisco. Cox moved on to Kalamazoo where he came through in front with John Henry, Sunflash, Lee Tide and Jackson Grattan. The later paced in 2:02 1-4 when he defeated Edna Early and Trampate. The Good Time Stable's pupil Longset finished second to Peter Pluto while his stable companion The Great Volv was defeated by Champion in the first heat of Kalamazoo. In the first heat of his race he breezed home in 2:03-24 and came back on the third trip in 2:4 3-4. John Thomas had a busy time at Kalamazoo where in addition to winning with Abbaey in 2:04 1-2 he finished second with Minnie Wilkins and Edna Early. This southern driver is now in third place. He has won eleven races and is one point ahead of the New England reinsman Joe John INSTITUTE MEETING.—The regular monthly meeting of the Cornwall-York Point Women Institute was held July 5th at the home of the Misses McKinley, York Pt. The August meeting is to be held at Mrs. Geo. MacDonald's Monday Aug. 7th. A proposition to have a "Memorial Day" when the school children would decorate the Soldiers' Monument at Cornwall was agreed to and arrangements made to have it carried out, the teachers of the surrounding districts and members of the Institute assisting in preparing the programme. On Saturday afternoon July 16th, a very large number, considering the busy season, assembled to honor the heroic dead. A short programme given below was carried out of choruses, readings, songs and splendid addresses by Rev. Mr. Pierce, Cornwall, Mr. Frank MacDonald, Charlottetown, a former member of the 8th, Siege Battery and the chairman, Mr. D. McArthur. The speakers emphasized the need of keeping alive that spirit of patriotism, a spirit which prompted the sons and brothers whose names were inscribed on stone and many others, who gave their lives on the fields of Flanders. It is the intention to hold an annual Memorial Day at the close of each school year. Program, Opening address, Chairman, Chorus, O Canada, Reading, "The Pool", Harrison Horne, Address, Rev. Mr. Pierce, Reading "Flanders Field, and Answer, Peris, Cross, and Helen McKinley, Solo, John Heartz, Address Frank MacDonald, March and decoration by the children of wreaths and flowers. Last We Forget. God Save the King.

Flour Buyers! Attention! Carvell Bros. beg to advise the trade that from this time forward they will have a continuous supply of "Regal" flour, the brand which is known to consumers everywhere as "wonderful for bread". This flour is made of the choicest Manitoba hard wheat, in one of the most up to date mills on this continent and for some years now has been a great favorite with Canadian bread bakers. It also has a large sale in foreign countries where it has to meet the competition of the biggest American and European mills. Essentially a bread flour, "Regal" also gives excellent results in the making of pastry. Carvell Bros. will be glad to receive telephone or letter orders from the trade as well as personal inquiries at their warehouse. Yarmouth, N. S., March 24, 1921 The Secretary of the Yarmouth Athletic Association, who were the champions for 1920 of the South Shore League and Western Nova Scotia Baseball League, state that during the summer the boys used MINARD'S LINIMENT with very beneficial results, for sore muscles, bruises and sprains. It is considered by the players the best white liniment on the market. Every team should be supplied with this celebrated remedy. (Signed) JOSEPH L. LeBLANC, Secy. Y. A. A. Champions N. S.
