Mr. A. Oris Gill Receive Presentation

At the home of Mr. Horace Gill, at York, Tuesday night, Mr. Gill was surprised when over 70 of his friends of York and Marshfield waited upon him on the eve of his departure for Charlottetown, and presented him with the following address accompanied by a well filled purse. The Ladies Institute presented Mrs. Gill with a handsome brass jardiniere. Mr. Gill leaves today to take up his residence in the city, where he has rented a house at Brighton. After the presentation speeches were made by Rev. Mr. Keirstead, Dr. McDonald, Miss Eliza Vessey and Mr. P. Brodie, M. L. A. After which amusements and games were kept up until a late hour.

To Mr. A. O. F. Gill, Dear Orris
 We your neighbors and friends learning that you are about to leave your old home to reside elsewhere, would take this opportunity to express to you our regret at having you leave our community, and also to vote in a small measure the esteem we have for both you and your better half. As a citizen you have taken an active part in every move that was for the good of the community; and in the wider sphere of advancing our country by the upbuilding of her staple industry, agriculture, you have by our industry and progressiveness contributed to a large extent.

In your new line of work we would wish you and Mrs. Gill and family a full measure of health and prosperity. Kindly accept this small gift as a token of our good will and also as a remembrance of your friends in York.
 Signed in behalf:
 J. C. McDONALD,
 ARCHIE VESSEY,
 PETER BRODIE,
 ELMER BROWN,
 C. W. KEIRSTEAD.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. SARAH JANE NEWSOME
 The sudden and unexpected death took place in Seartown of Mrs. Sarah Jane Newsome, aged 68 years. Her sickness was not thought serious at first, but gradually grew worse and all that kind and loving hands could do, death claimed her for his own and her spirit passed peacefully to her eternal reward on March 13th. There are left to mourn, the loss of a kind and loving mother, a family of three daughters, Mrs. C. S. Pearson, Chelton; Mrs. F. L. Jewell, Bedouque; Mrs. E. G. Bell, Seartown and four sons, Harry of Amherst, N. S.; Tinson of Muddy Creek; Frank of Rose Valley and Arthur at home; also two brothers, Wm. C. Collett, Boston, Mass.; James A. Collett, Bedouque.

The funeral service was held at Methodist Church, Seartown on March 15th. Rev. Mr. Fitzpatrick and Mr. Whitman, officiating at church and grave. The pall bearers were: John Crue, Wm. Cameron, Harry Francis, Mayor Lowther. The remains were laid to rest beside those of her husband in Methodist Cemetery, Seartown.

JOHN T. McLEOD
 At his residence, Chestnut St. Charlottetown, after a brief illness borne with Christian fortitude, there passed to his eternal rest on March 16th, 1923 John T. MacLeod one of our best known and highly esteemed citizens. The unexpected news of his death touched the hearts of many friends and acquaintances both in the City and Country with sorrow and fond recollections. Mr. MacLeod had attained the ripe old age of seventy-nine years, having been born at Springton, March 15, 1844.

He was a familiar figure on the staff of A. Horne and Co., where he worked for the last twenty three years. Mr. MacLeod was always robust and virile in body and mind and stood to his post apparently in good health until about a fortnight before his death, when symptoms of heart failure gave warning of the approaching end.

Mr. MacLeod's father was a prominent elder in the Church of Scotland and the son followed the father in the same office with great acceptance and strength to the Church. He was indeed one of the most zealous promoters in purchasing what is now the People's Church.

At a congregational meeting convened on the occasion of his death, the services rendered by Mr. MacLeod to the Church were warmly acclaimed and a message of sympathy conveyed to the bereaved family.
 Mr. MacLeod was one of the strong characters of his generation, a wise and far seeing councillor underneath a straight-forward, manliness there lay hidden a tenderness of christian love and a loyalty to Christ, known best to them who knew him intimately. A wonderful calm surrounded his last hours and bidding an affectionate farewell to his family, he repeated the 53rd Paraphrase dwelling solemnly on the words of the last verse.
 He leaves to mourn his widow, five sons and three daughters, Fred, Gorham, N. H., J. H. of Nanion Aka, Mrs. J. S. Cairns Dunstaffnage, Mrs. A. D. MacDonald, Forest Hill, Douglas and Allison of this city and Jean at home also a brother and two sisters.

FRY'S PURE BREAKFAST COCOA
 Packed in a paper bag

To help this fellow grow sturdy in body and active in brain, give him food that builds up his frame even faster than he wears it out in his strenuous play.

LET him have a cup of FRY'S Cocoa often. Here you have a delicious food beverage that is all nourishment. For instance, nearly one fifth of its bulk is "albumen" and albumen is only another form of muscle.

Fat, it has, for warmth and energy, and vitamins to give nerve force. All this because FRY'S is made from the richest and finest cocoa beans, by methods matchless after 200 year's experience. FRY'S is the best and cheapest of all foods for growing boys and girls. Of course, remember attended. Services at the house and grave were conducted by his pastor Rev. D. Lamont, Interment took place to Brookfield cemetery.

"Nothing will do but FRY'S"

MRS. BERNARD COADY.
 Death at all times and under all circumstances is sad, but when the thread of life is severed and the victim is carried off in the very prime of life, then may one indeed say that death is sad. So it was on Thursday, March 15th, with feelings of deep regret that many friends and relatives heard of the death of Mrs. Bernard Coady, Vernon River. Deceased was only thirty one years of age and had been in her usual good health until a few days before her death when she contracted a bad cold which developed into pneumonia and despite the most skilful medical aid and kind nursing she passed to her eternal reward. The late Mrs. Coady was a quiet and reserved disposition which endeared to all with whom she came in contact. She was a general favourite with both old and young, and her untimely death will not only be regretted by her relatives, but by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

During her illness she was consoled by frequent visits from her pastor, Rev. P. D. McGuigan, who administered to her the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church of which she was a devout member. She leaves to mourn besides a sorrowing husband and three small children, two brothers and one sister. The funeral, which was largely attended took place on Saturday Morning to St. Joachim's church Vernon River, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by the pastor, and all that was mortal of a kind wife and mother was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery.
