A very important meeting for the purpose of the formation of a Fox Breeders Protective Association was held in the office of Mr. W. K. Rogers Saturday morning. Over one thousand pairs of breeding foxes were represented by the gathering of business men. The recent theft of foxes was the primary cause of the meeting. Mrs. Burhoe has crossed over to the Celestial City.

This was the thought that came to many a saddened heart when it was known that on Tuesday at midnight April 28th, 1925 (Mrs.) Elizabeth Martha Cousins, wife of Mr. Theophilus Burhoe, Alexandra had passed away, when it would seem in the prime of life and blessed usefulness. Always bright with perfect health, the shock of her death was all the greater in that it was entirely unexpected.

Worn by the constant vigilance of ministering at the bedside of her Mother to whom she had devoted so much of her love and life, she contracted pneumonia and in a few days joined that Mother. During her days of pain and suffering her noble, glorious life grew even more glorious in the love and wondrous faith of her blessed Redeemer and Saviour as she implored and her loved ones around her, to be reconciled to the Will of God, for she alone was calm and reconciled, as her daily walk and life had brought her peace and happiness in the eventide. The Savior whom she so closely followed, and faithfully served was her all and in all.

It is not easy in these few lines to make an adequate appraisal of the life and work of Mrs. Burhoe, being a woman of many rare gifts, but at the centre of them all lay her profound faith in God. Her gifts were of an essentially practical character, always optimistic, of noble courage and high ideals, truly it may well be said of her "She openeth her mouth with wisdom and in her tongue is the law of kindness, her children arise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her." In the passing from earth to Heaven of this precious wife, mother and friend, one is reminded, there is but a breath of air and a beat of the heart betwixt this world and the next.

The last faint pulsation here is but the prelude of an endless life hereafter. The blessed Lord always provides some compensating good to mitigate the severity of our loss.

When the good and the lovely and the one in whom our hearts have rested with fondness, dies, the memory of good deeds, like the moonbeams on the stormy sea lights up our darkened hearts, and lends to the sorrowing gloom a beauty so sad, so sweet that we would not, if we could dare wish her back.

She was a member of the Alexandra Baptist Church for almost 30 years and President of the Missionary Aid Society for a large part of that time. She took an intense interest in the Church and its Societies by giving of her wisdom, leadership, honor and judgment, backed up by the wondrous life she lived. Sincerity was the keynote of all that she said and did. But it was in the home that her sterling character and cheerful life shone pure and perfect—as wife, real, true and companionable—as mother one that her children idolized and worshipped—kind, tender and ever thoughtful, always lightening the pathway as the guiding star of angelic love.

And now her life here is over and her work is done but her noble influence, love and purity will not cease but will be felt in home, church and community for years to come. "For lives are like flowers. In dying they abide not alone, but sow themselves and bloom again with each returning spring and ever more and more."

She leaves to mourn besides her devoted and sorrowing husband two daughters—Mrs. W. Chester S. McLure, Charlottetown; Mrs. Harold McCabe, Indianapolis, who travelled home to attend the funeral two sons, Russell N. Medicine Hat, Alta.; and Hedley, young son at home.

The funeral took place Sunday, May 3rd, when a large gathering of her friends assembled to pay their last tribute of respect and esteem to one whom everybody loved and honored. A short private service was held at the home and as it seemed that so much of her life was spent in the work of the Church, that it was fitting indeed that the funeral services be held there. The services were conducted by her Pastor Rev. R. W. Lind, assisted by Rev. Geo. C. Taylor.

The first tragedy of this year's fishing season occurred yesterday forenoon near Spring Valley when Harold Bryenton, aged twenty, fell into the water from the motor boat in which he was hauling lobster lines and was drowned. The unfortunate young man was accompanied in the boat by a lad of twelve years named Ferris to whom he called from the water to start the engine of the launch. Before his young companion could do so, however, he disappeared for the last time. The boy's signals of distress were answered by other boats fishing on the same grounds, about two miles off Cousin's Shore, but no sign of the body could be found.

According to latest reports the body has not yet been recovered.

RETURNING FROM MT. ALIBON.—Many of the students attending Mt. Allison University returned home yesterday, including Misses Audrienne, Summerside; Mildred Muttart, Summerside; Georgie Read, Port Borden; G. J. Hubberlin, Murray Harbour. Accompanying the students were a number of parents who had gone over for the closing, including Mrs. A. W. Miller Mrs. J. L. Read, Mrs. Muttart, and Mrs. A. E. Holland.

Fire yesterday completely destroyed the fine dwelling house of Hiram Thompson of Margate. The woodhouse adjoining was also consumed.

The fire started from a spark from the flue and a heavy rain at the time prevented extinction. A call was sent to Kensington, the fire bell rang and soon cars of willing helpers flocked to the scene and a living water-line was formed from the river to the fire and buckets of water passed along, but the heat that could be done was futile as a heavy gale prevailing at the time carried the flames strongly.

New House Destroyed.—Fire yesterday afternoon destroyed the fine new dwelling house of Mr. Angus McLeod of Kinross. The fire originated in a spark from the flue. Neighbors succeeded in saving the furniture and contents of the rooms downstairs but were unable to stop the progress of the fire.

About 12:45 this morning the firemen were called to the residence of Mr. Fred Trainor, Pownall Street, where they found a disastrous blaze burning in the kitchen. The firemen at once got to work and after fighting strenuously for over a quarter of an hour they subdued the flames but not before considerable damage had been done to the kitchen.

At the usual hour Mr. Trainor and his family retired and everything appeared to be all right. About twenty minutes to one Mr. E. Owen, next door neighbour of Mr. Trainor's, was returning to his home and he noticed what appeared to be a bonfire in Mr. Trainor's alley-way. He had his suspicions aroused and knocked at the door to awaken Mr. Trainor. Mr. Trainor came down and found the kitchen in a blaze. He immediately sent in an alarm and then attempted to extinguish the blaze with the aid of a small hand extinguisher. The flames had spread too rapidly however and he was unable to cope with it single-handed. By this time the apparatus was on the scene and the blaze was quickly gotten underway.

From the general appearance of the kitchen it would seem that the fire originated from an electric iron and spread first to a clothes basket and then to the walls. The kitchen was badly gutted by the flames and a large amount of water damage was done. The entire house was filled with smoke and considerable damage was done to the walls and furniture.

The loss and damage is covered by insurance, the greater portion of which is carried with Messrs. Hyndman & Co., and T. E. MacNutt.

FRIDAY CITY PROPERTY SOLD.—The city property on Water Street, formerly known as Block's was sold at public auction today. There was a large gathering present and Mr. J. A. MacDonald put up the building at $1,000. Bidding was brisk from five would-be purchasers and in the end the property sold to Mr. George V. Moore of Queen Street for $1,750.

At Lewes on May 14th, after a lingering illness, Mrs. John A. MacKinnon, daughter of the late John MacBeth of Bellevue passed to her eternal reward, where pain and sorrow are no more. She was a good faithful christian and was ready when "God" called her home.

She was held in high esteem in the vicinity in which she lived. Her mother, Mrs. MacBeth and sisters, Mrs. John A. MacLeod and Annie MacBeth came on from Quincey, also a brother Dan MacBeth of British Columbia, arriving in time to comfort her in her last hours.

She is survived by two daughters Mrs. Jessie Murray, and Mary Alice, at home, three sons, John H. and Neil, at home, John Dan in Detroit, Mich., her mother, Mrs. MacBeth, three sisters, Mrs. J. A. Indigestion Bilious Spells

Mr. John Hresavich, Tenby, Man., writes: "My stomach was all upset, I suffered from indigestion, biliousness and vomiting, I became so weak, I had to go to bed. I tried Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and in three days was up and around again. I have not had an attack of this nature since."

PERHAPS it has never occurred to you that your troubles from indigestion are really caused by torpid liver action and consequent constipation of the bowels. Stomach tablets and lotions sometimes afford temporary relief but they do not get at the cause.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills positively remove the cause of trouble by their direct and combined action on the liver, kidneys and bowels. A single box will convince you of their efficiency.

The death occurred in Charlottetown quite suddenly on Tuesday morning May 12th, of Mr. Frank J. Bradley after several months of illness caused by throat trouble, which despite the best medical skill and tender nursing proved fatal. Mr. Bradley was widely known and greatly respected, having been for upwards of twenty years in Myrick's Fish Market and more recently at Reaney Gay's Meat Market, where his kind and courteous manner won him many friends.

He leaves to mourn the loss of a loving and devoted husband and father, his sorrowing widow, two sons and five daughters, Mrs. J. Carter, James Arbing, Edward Acorn, Edward Higgins, James Dalton and John Connors. Many lovely floral offerings and Spiritual bouquets were sent by sympathizing friends.

The sudden death of Mr. Dominick D. Ryan, the well known purser of the ferry steamer "Prince Edward Island" came as a severe shock yesterday morning. Since the departure of that steamer for Halifax to go on the dry dock, Mr. Ryan has been acting as purser on the "Scotia."

About nine o'clock yesterday morning just when the ship was ready to sail from Bowden he complained of a pain in the region of the heart. After the passenger cars had been placed on the ferry he went into one of the cars to start checking the passengers, and suddenly collapsed. When those who were in the car reached him they found that he had passed away. The body was taken ashore, and Dr. Bell of Cape Traverse, sent for. On his arrival he examined the body and pronounced death was due to heart failure.

Mr. Ryan was born at Monticello seventy years ago. When a youth he came to Georgetown and was apprenticed as Clerk with the late Michael Hessian, general merchant, remaining with him seven years. Later he began his career as purser, serving continuously on all forty-six years. In winter on the Dominion Government boats plying between the Island and the mainland, and in summer on the boats of the Steam Navigation Company, until the service was taken over by the Railway Department in

Letter from Mrs. Ayars Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her

Spring Valley, Sask.—"I took the Vegetable Compound before my last confinement, when I got to feeling so badly that I could not sleep nights, my back ached so across my hips, and I could hardly do my work during the day. I never had such an easy confinement and this is my sixth baby. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the 'Farmer's Telegram' and wrote you for one of your books. We have no druggist in our town, but I saw your medicine in T. Eaton's catalogue. I am a farmer's wife, so I have lots of work to do inside and outside the house. My baby is a nice healthy girl, who weighed nine pounds at birth. I am feeling fine after putting in a large garden since baby came. (She is as good as she can be.) Yours is the best medicine for women, and I have told about it and even written to my friends about it."—Mrs. ANNIE E. AYARS, Spring Valley, Sask.
