THE CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN

THURSDAY MORNING SEPTEMBER 26 1907.

UNIVERSITY OF HUMANITY.

"I hope to see established a great University of Humanity, with heads on both sides of the Atlantic, and affiliations in every land, where men and women may be taught to carry on this great work for the benefit of the human races. You have colleges of music, learning, theology and all theologies. Now I want university training for those dealing with broken hearts and fortunes, who nurse the sick, help the criminal and the woman of shame; where they may be trained in every art of aiding human misery. I hope to see it."

So said General Booth in his address before the Canadian Club in Saint John the other day. The idea is a noble one and worthy of the great humanitarian who originated it in his old age and who hopes yet to live long enough to see it carried into effect. There is abundant need of such an institution in the world and a great field for its operation. If General Booth shall succeed in calling into existence the University of Humanity, to operate along the lines he has laid down, and sufficiently endowed for its purpose, it will fittingly crown his long and useful career.

In all lines of useful activity there is the necessity for training. The eye, the hand, the brain, and the moral sense must be trained. Half the bad work turned out in the world is from those who are willing and strong enough, but know not how to rightly fulfil the task in hand. This is as true of the great work of rescuing and uplifting fallen humanity as in many other callings. Too few have the will to engage in the work and of those too few have the skill to make their work fruitful and effective and know not where or how to acquire it. It is to this latter class that the University of Humanity would appeal, and their number would multiply if such an institution were available. The supply would create the demand; workers in the humanitarian field would multiply, each doing better work because of the training and skill acquired.

A LEAN YEAR FOR ONTARIO.

Under this caption the Toronto Sun tells that roughly speaking Ontario has about nine million acres devoted to field crops of which about three million acres are in hay and two and three quarter millions in oats. Thus over 60 per cent of the field cultivation is in these two crops, and they are the poorest yield in many years. Hay will not give over two-thirds and probably not over half the yield of recent years, while oats are likely to be 35 per cent below the average. So far as grain is concerned Ontario will have practically none for export this year. The products of the farms for sale will be butter, cheese, bacon and beef cattle and the cost of making these will be higher than usual because of the cost of feed. Thus it is that this year Ontario has an unusually lean year.

An exchange has article on preachers, in which these worthy opponents of the Gospel are divided into three classes: 1, preachers you can't listen to; 2, preachers you can listen to; 3, preachers you can't help listening to. According to this classification we have no first-class preachers in Charlottetown.

Mr. Mackay who has been chosen to lead the Liberal opposition in Ontario, in succession to Mr. Graham who is now Minister of Railways, was for two months a member of the Ross Government just before its fall. Montreal Witness intimates that Mr Mackay is not in favor with the temperance electors of Ontario. At present there are twenty-six Liberals in the Ontario Legislature out of a total membership of ninety-four, the Conservatives numbering sixty eight. Premier Whitney's majority in the House is forty two.

Of late some leading public men, notably Leader Borden of the Opposition and Messrs Aylesworth and Pugsley of the Government side, have had a good deal to say about the corrupt practices of the opposing parties at the last general election. Both parties are frightfully bad according to these pronouncements and we are presently to have a scandal session by way of preparation for the general election of next year. The country is quite prepared to believe that both parties are corrupt, the only difference of opinion being as to which is worst. Both appear to spend in elections all the money that they can lay their hands on, with the usual result that whatever party may be in power, the Government has most money. They fight each other bitterly, these parties, but are always ready to join hands in a corrupt "saw-off" in election positions or an equally corrupt salary grab. And yet the pot continues to taunt the kettle with its blackness. What a farce it all is!

THEY ALL FAILED.

Many have tried to devise a corn cure, equal to Putnam's, but after fifty years nothing has come upon the market that so painlessly cures corns and warts. Don't experiment, use the best, and that's "Putnam's."

EDITOR'S MAIL.

Dear Guardian—Permit me, on behalf of her loved ones far away, to sincerely thank the many who showed such kindly interest in our late comrade, Mary McDavid. It will be a comfort to know that employers, nurses, officials, friends from her own land and friends and comrades in the Salvation Army showed by their tokens and kindly acts their deep personal interest in her.

Though but an unassuming Scotch girl, making her own humble way in the world, this city is deeply indebted to her. She was true to the standard of all true service, taking a personal pride in the performance of her daily duties, without regard to the monetary consideration.

And on the Market Square and in gospel meetings, her winsome Scotch voice, fervid with zeal, gave clear note to the sweet message of eternal hope and salvation. There are many to say that her song reached their hearts with conviction or blessing.

The honor of being a blessing in the world is one to which we may all aspire. "There is no life so humble that it is true and genuinely human and obedient to God, it may not hope to shed some of His light".—Phillips Brooks.

Thanking you,
W. A. HAWLEY.

Sleepless?

Nerves Are Racked.
Vitality is Lowered.
Brain is Congested.
Health Undermined.

Opiates, Sedatives, Narcotics, Worse Than Useless. Produce No Permanent Good.

Worry, overwork, over-study and indigestion cause Insomnia. Healthy, natural sleep can't be produced by drugs.

First, the blood circulation must be improved. Congestion of blood in the head must be removed.

Irritation in the brain must be relieved. It's because Ferruzone equalizes circulation, because it soothes the irritation, because it removes congestion that it does cure insomnia.

For building blood and nerve, for instilling force and life into over-worked organs, for establishing strength and vitality, where can you find anything so sure as Ferruzone.

Remember, sleep is just as important as food. You must sleep, or break down. You can't if you'll use Ferruzone and thereby remove the conditions which now keep you from sleep.

Ferruzone is not a narcotic, not a dope; it is a health-giving tonic that any child or delicate woman can use. Absolutely safe is Ferruzone.

Take it for a month, take it for a year—no harm, but immeasurable good will result. To sleep well, look well, feel well, to be free from depression, nervousness or blues—use Ferruzone. It's a food tonic, a heart to the weak and wretched, a boon to the sleepless—sold everywhere in 50c boxes.

50,000,000 FOR ADVERTISING

"James B. Duke, the tobacco king of Long Branch, New Jersey, recently claimed in an interview that he had spent more money in advertising than any other living man. He said that the figures would reach fifty million dollars.—Newspaper item."

Yet James B. Duke is today one of the wealthiest men in the world. When you see a liberal advertiser you see a rich man. The business man who in this age of advertising is afraid to invest his money in publicity will never accumulate a fortune.

I bought a horse with a supposedly inflexible ringbone for $20. Cured him with $1.00 worth of MINARD'S LINIMENT and sold him for $55.00. Profit on Liniment, $54.00.

THE OUTING MAGAZINE

OCTOBER

Is on sale on every news stand in your city

The wholesome, hopeful, national magazine of the American outdoors. Its articles have the grip of personal experience. Its fiction is the best contemporary American literature. Its facts are accurate and authoritative. Its artistic beauty is unexcelled.

The October number contains:

THE WAY OF A MAN, by EMERSON HOUGH. This series generally conceded to be the greatest novel of the year.

THE COUNTRY FAIR, by DAVID LANSING, in which the author recalls the old country fair as it used to be.

BALLOONING AND AERIAL NAVIGATION, by F. P. LAHN, U.S.A., being an outline of the immense and practical air ships could render to science and to nations in war.

YARNS OF THE FORWARD DECK, by VANCE THOMPSON; being a bunch of yarns unskinned by a congenial party on board an ocean liner.

ROUND UP DAYS, by STEWART EDWARD WHITE, will take the reader away from the noise and bustle of the city to the plains.

GENERAL ISAAC SHELBY, FIRST GOVERNOR OF KENTUCKY, by LYNN TEW SPRAGUE. One of a series of articles retelling American history in the form of vivid personal sketches.

And a dozen other features of interest with photographs of a score of divers scenes, supplemented by a liberal proportion of paintings and drawings.

There is no decaying the intensity or the diversity of interest that pervades, not only this but every number of THE OUTING MAGAZINE.
