RETURNS TO DUTY — Cpl. J. T. Lines of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police returned to the province recently after completing a three-month course at the Canada Police College in Ontario. He is on duty once more at Souris where he was stationed before going away. During his absence Constable P. D. Trenchout was stationed at the Eastern King's town along with Const. D. J. Murray, and Trenchout is back in Summerside now.

FIREMEN OUT — City firemen were called out for two minor fires yesterday. The first was for a blaze in a yard on Upper Hillsboro Street which was extinguished without difficulty. This occurred at 4:10. The second blaze was in an old car body in the rear of Harbour and MacDonald's garage on Flizoy Street behind the Salvation Army Hall. This blaze was extinguished at seven o'clock. In both cases the fires were believed to have been started by children, firemen said.

FUNERAL HELD — The funeral of the late Malcolm J. Docherty, New Haven, was held from 10 to 11 a.m. at the St. Michael's church. A private service was held at his late residence conducted by Rev. T. W. Goodwill who also conducted the service at Clyde River Presbyterian Church, assisted by Messrs. A. E. Todd, Palibearers were: Messrs. E. Colwill, Clarence Frizell, Duncan Cass, John Gallant, Neil J. McKinnon, Donald McPadden, Interment Clyde River Cemetery.

FERRY READY TO START — It is expected that the "Prince Nova" will cross from Charlottetown to Wood Islands today and commence the regular schedule on Tuesday. It was announced last night by Mr. E. M. Mitchell and Mr. J. L. Macdonald, who are in charge of the ferry. The boat came off the dry dock Saturday and is supposed to undergo inspection by the government inspector today. Attention is drawn to the Northumberland Ferries advertisement which appears elsewhere in this issue.

OLDEST GRADUATE DIES — The funeral of the late Mrs. J. B. MacDonald will be held from her late residence, 171 Dorchester St., this morning at 8:45 to St. Dunstan's Basilica, thence to the R.C. Cemetery. The late Mrs. MacDonald was in her 87th year and was the widow of the late J. B. MacDonald, at one time a leading merchant of Charlottetown. The deceased was well known to the older generation and was the oldest graduate of Notre Dame Academy. She was Honorary President of Notre Dame Alumnae. She will be sadly missed by her family and a host of friends.

MAN'S GREATEST FRIEND — An object lesson in charity and brotherly love, and one deeply impressive inasmuch as the teacher was a dog, was demonstrated in the city recently. A reliable eye-witness relates the touching incident which occurred recently. He was in the habit of feeding a little dog with whom he had made friends, and the canine was a constant visitor. On a day referred to the dog showed up as usual and "begged" for something to eat. His friend gave him the customary peace offering, the dog immediately trotted across the street and laid it at the feet of another dog, apparently his friend. The little dog then ran back and "requested" more food, which he received. He again deposited it at his friend's feet and stood by watching him eat it. The man who watched this drama of the dog world was quite impressed with the behavior of his small canine friend.

Dodgers Run Into Snag At St. Louis Losing Doubleheader 14-10 & 4-2

ST. LOUIS, May 3 (AP)—"Don Burns" from Brooklyn bused into the St. Louis Gas House Gang's Ballpark today and in two typical "other side of the railroad track" games limped out on the short end of 14-10 and 4-2 scores, the second game being called at the end of 5 1-2 innings because of darkness. The first game lasted three hours and six minutes.
