LOCAL BRIEFS

ANGUS KOOLY and Henry Brazil were each fined $2 or 10 days yesterday morning, and Wallace Baras and James Smith $5 or 30 days, all drunk and disorderly.

Rev. D. M. Campbell will preach [D.
V.] in Pleasant Valley on Saturday the 8th inst., at 7 p. m. on Sabbath the 9th inst. in Belle River, at 10.30 a. m. and in Murray River at 5 p. m.

Rev. J. H. McDonald returned on Wednesday night from Wolfville. He has been in consultation with the governors of Acadia making preliminary arrangements. A large number of aplicants for the vice principality have been received, including graduates from Wolsley, Chicago University, and many other leading educational institutions.

THE Picton Standard says: The Royal Templars' Excursion to Charlottetown on Saturday was attended by about one hundred and fifty excursionists. The passage over was a little rough, but comparatively few were seasick. The return passage was a delightful one.
Both trips were made in fairly good time, and on the whole, the "Lunenburg" proved herself a good excursion boat.

BAY FORTUNE NOTES.—The roads are in a shocking state with rutts. They have not been worse for many years.
The method now in vogue of filling in the rutts with clay taken from the sides of the road may be an easy way of earning money but a very poor way of giving value for it.—Codfishing is a little better this week than it was last —Lobster packers and fishermen are well satisfied with this season's catch.
—Miss Linnie Dingwell has resigned her position as teacher of the Fortune Bridge school. Sae is succeeded by Mr. Samuel Nicholson of Souris.—Rev.
J. D. Dingwell and wife arrived home recently, intending to remain during the summer months.

THE Anglo-American says:—British-ers who visit the Maritime Provinces on the new Plant liner, La Grande Duchesse, will be pleased to find that in one department of the vessel there is quite a colony of the members of which are of British birth. Mr. W. M. Newman, the chief steward, is a Londoner, and has a small host of Englishmen on his staff. The second steward, Mr. F.
A. Herring, is a Preston man, a true son of the soil. Under the direction of these two officers this department is run to the Queen's taste. One and all, the staff are most obliging, and have the rare faculty of making every passenger feel at home on the instant.
It is a model ship's family. Among others the following are also included on the steward's staff: F. Duffy, Liverpool; Percy Clegg, Liverpool; Alfred Jones, Hull; W. Blanchard, Birmingham; J. Costello, Sheffield; Wm.
Ogden, Birmingham; R. Wharmsby, Liverpool; Fred. Doe, Hamilton, Bermuda; Charles Mattheson who hails from Charlottetown, P. E. Island. Miss Purchase, stewardess, a Boston lady, and Mrs. Norris, who hails from Halifax, are general favorites among the ship's company.

FIRST boat leaves for Baptist S. S. picnic at Rocky Point 9.30 this morning.
Other boats at 11 a. m., 1, 2 and 4 p. m.

THE Charlottetown Engineers will meet for drill this evening at 8 o'clock sharp in uniform. Every member must be present.

MR. WILLIAM HARRIS met with a painful accident yesterday evening.
While wrestling he fell and fractured the fibular bone in his ankle. Drs.
Warburton and Goodwill set the bone and the patient was doing as well as could be expected at a late hour last night. The accident occurred at Camp Brighton.

THE First Methodist Church picnic takes place today. The boat leaves the wharf at 9 a. m. By the kindness of I.
Col. McLeod and officers of the 82nd battalion their excellent band will lead the procession from the Church to the wharf and furnish delightful music as far as West River.

The members of the League of the Cross will parade this morning to St.
Dunstan's Cathedral where High Mass will be celebrated by Rev. Father Clark of Boston, who will also preach a short sermon suitable to the occasion.
The celebration of the feast of St.
Aloysius the patron saint of the society which falls on June 21st had to, for various reasons, be postponed until today. The society will leave their Hall at 8.45 and proceed up Prince street to Kent, down Kent to Main, down Main to Richmond to the Cathedral. During Mass the members will receive Holy Communion in a body. After Mass the society will form and march back to their Hall over the same route. Mr.
Chas. McQuillan, chief marshal of the League of the Cross will have charge of the parade and his assistants are Messrs J. B. Hughes and P. J. Mc-Closkey. It is expected that about 150 members will be in the ranks. The League Band will head the procession.

THE Daily Record says: Of late months and especially during the last few years there has been quite an exodus of Baptist clergymen from eastern Canada to the west, and western pastors, as well as those having their place of nativity in Quebec and Ontario, have migrated this way to occupy pulpits.
Among those having gone to the west might be mentioned Rev. Mr. Stackhouse, who is doing excellent work in the Kootenay district, Rev. Mr. McDonald of Cape Breton, formerly located in Charlottetown, Rev. W. B. Hinson, formerly of Moncton, who is now in Vancouver, and others. Mr. Hinson's removal from the railway town has left a vacancy which it is said will be filled by Rev. Mr. Hutchinson of Ontario, a most able divine. While no confirmation of the statement has yet been given out yet it has been hinted that Rev. J.
A. Gordon of Main Street Baptist Church and formerly of Charlottetown, has been offered the pastorate of one of the leading churches of Montreal. The Upper Canadian people, it is said, made the call a very urgent one, but as to the local pastor's decision the Record is not in a position to say.

All-Wool and a yard wide is an expression you often hear nowadays.

This may be true of the goods when you buy them; but very seldom after they have been once or twice washed.

If they are then three-quarters of a yard wide, you can count yourself lucky.

WOOL
SOAP

washes woolen goods without causing them to shrink.
