HALLOWE'EN CONCERT.—The concert in the Kindergarten Hall on Monday evening next, 30 h inst., promises to be high class in every respect. The ladies in charge are sparing no means to make it the event of the season and everybody should make it a point to be present.

DON'T fail to wend your way to St. James' Hall on Tuesday evening, Nov. 1st, if you wish to spend a pleasant hour among the edifices and sights of modern Papal Rome. Remember that the Imperial City is not to be touched on, nor any pictures of the ruins shown. The paper deals with the city as we find it today, the city particularly of Pius IX and Leo XII.

I. O. G. T.—Charlottetown lodge met last night in Wright's Hall. A class in book-keeping and penmanship was formed under the auspices of the Lodge. The election of officers for the ensuing quarter resulted as follows.—C. T., B. F. Messerney; V. T., Fannie McLeod; Sec., H. J. Scantlebury; F. S., Louisa B. Swan, Treas., R. H. Jenkins; Chap., W. N. Tanton; Mar., Herbert Rodd; Guard, Essie McLean; Sent., Ernest Rice; A. S., Sister May Worth; D. M., Sister Florrie Winchester; P.C.T, E.H. Duchemin; Organist, Beatrice McNeill.

THE annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A. took place last evening. There was a good attendance. The financial standing of the institution was shown to have been greatly improved during the year, and many thanks were expressed for the efforts of the ladies who did so much in this behalf. The founding of a library was then considered. The bequest of $500 from the late William Dodd was deemed a good nucleus. As the evening was well taken up it was determined to adjourn for a week for a fuller discussion at another meeting. The prospects are bright for a good public library for the people of Charlottetown.

EDITOR'S MAIL

Should Have Been Honored.

SIR,—Permit me as one who was present at the very excellent banquet given by the young ladies of Victoria Division, S. of T. on Thursday evening last, to ask one question through your columns, of the reverend gentleman who presided, as well as the other more prominent members who were present on that occasion, and who so vigorously discussed the good things provided. Is it not customary on such occasions to in some way, by toast or otherwise, recognize and honor the hostesses of the evening?

The young ladies certainly deserve great credit for the graceful way in which they conducted their part of the evening's entertainment, and I think their courtesy and kindness, certainly merited an expression of thankfulness and compliment from those who partook of their hospitality.

Yours, etc.,
NOVICE.

SALVAGE SALE OF CATTLE

Duggan of Halifax, Tuesday, sold 156 head of cattle saved from steamer Grages, wrecked at Belle Isle, Nfld., and brought here by the steamer Harlaw. There was a large attendance at the sale—from P. E. Island, Montreal and St John. Good prices were realized for the stock, almost as good as the excellent prices obtained last year at a similar sale of 68 head. The cattle ran as high as 1400 weight. They are Canadian raised beef cattle, intended for the British market. The buyers were: J. A. Leaman and Co., 10 head at $46; J. A. Leaman and Co., 20 head at $43; J. A. Lennox, 12 head at $35.50; Frank R. Heartz, 12 head at Frank R. Heartz, 24 heat at $43.50; J. M. Davidson, 20 head ot $37; Frank R Heartz, 14 head at $40.—Halifax Herald, Oct. 26.

They will be fattened here and sent to the English market by steamer from Charlottetown. The cattle sold at prices ranging from $36.50 to $45 a head.

DALHOUSIE-ABEGWEIT.

Yesterday's Game Ended In a Draw Without a score.

The Dalhousie-Abegweit football match is a thing of the past but neither team is satisfied with the result. The cause of the dissatisfaction is that the game ended in a draw, neither team scoring a point. Draws are never satisfactory to the footballer, and we may also add, neither are they to the spectator. It was a good game though, even if the most of the playing was done by the forwards. The backs of both teams did some fine punting. In the first half the Abegweits' back division time and again gained ground by their long kicks into touch, they then having the wind in their favor; while in the second half the collegians' halves were just as active in propelling the ball in the same manner. Very little passing was noticeable; and but little ground was gained by runs, the players contenting themselves with kicking. The game was purely a forward one and at times the work of both rush lines was of the sharpest kind.

Dalhousie without doubt has a splendid forward line. When they struck the proper poise their superiority over their opponents was plainly evident. They could push the Abegweit scrimmen such occasions but in their onward movement they did not always have the ball with them. When they did have it, and managed to break through the opposing line, their dribbling tactics were used to good advantage.

The city team, especially in the forward line, showed a great want of practice. The heavy work they were called upon to do soon began to tell upon some of them and a consequent lagging in their play was the occasional result. The backs however were thoroughly alive to the situation, kicked well and tackled in fine shape.

The climatic conditions during the last ten minutes of the game were not conducive to good football. A stiff southwester blew during the whole afternoon but at this particular time Jupiter Pluvius took his innings and fairly made the raindrops rebound off the forms of the players. The previous slippery condition of the ground was thus increased, making a concentrated effort on the part of the forwards for a long push and a strong push end in their measuring their lengths on the sticky turf.

It was shortly after 3 o'clock when the referee's whistle called called the players out. The Abegweits won the toss and elected to defend the western goal, with the wind in their favor. Dalhousie kicked off and the ball was returned to touch about centre. From the throw in the ball was held and the first scrim took place. Thereafter the whole story of the half is easily told. It consisted in a series of scrims, the play fluctuating between both twenty fives. Once the visitors by combined dribble, which the city backs made a poor attempt at stopping, carried the ball to within about ten yards of the Abegweit goal line. From the scrim which followed though, they relieved their citadel by short dashes and kicks into touch. Twice during the half Dalhousie sent the ball over the line and the Abegweits touched down for safety, while the latter once compelled the visitors to do likewise. Dalhousie was once hard pressed during the half; and an apparent chance for the Abegweits to score was nullified by the players kicking rather than picking up the ball and running with it. Dalhousie made a good attempt at goal from a penalty kick awarded, the ball only going wide of the post by about six inches, Jardine took the kick.

In the second half the Abegweit forwards appeared to hold their opponents better, but play was not so open as in the first half. Both goals were in turn in danger, but despite the desperate onsaughts of the rushers neither side could score. Time was called with the ball about the Abegweits' twenty-five line. The best of feeling was manifested between the players during the game. The teams lined out as follows:—

ABEGWEITS		DALHOUSIE.
H. Bourque	back	Grant
F. Blake, W. McLeod, McQuillan, Richie	half backs	Cook, Murray, Cumming, Archibald, McKenzie
L. B. MacMillan, W. McKie	Q. Backs	Hale
