FAMILY BEYERAVED — Mrs. A. N. Lyle and Miss E. Evans of this city received the sad news yesterday morning that their brother, James L. Evans had died suddenly in San Francisco, California. Mr. Evans apparently had been enjoying good health recently and his death came as a great shock to his family. The body was returned to this city by air and was interred in the Holy Trinity Baptist Church Cemetery, Hazelbrook.

66 YEARS OLD — On November 24 Mrs. Ada Jane Stevenson celebrated her 66th birthday at her home, North River. Friends and relatives who called upon Mrs. Stevenson in honor of the occasion found her wonderfully alert and active for her years. She retains her faculties to a most remarkable degree, recalling in detail the events of her life ago and later events. Her teaching experience began at the age of 19 years ago when Mrs. Stevenson recalls vividly that her first lady maintains a consistent interest in the welfare of her nephews and friends not only of the immediate community in which she has spent most of her life but in a wide circle of more distant friends. Many greetings of good wishes were received on the occasion of her birthday. Mrs. Stevenson's faith in her Lord is one of the bright spots of her advanced years.

DEATH OF ST. CHARLES BORROMEO — The feast of Saint Charles Borromeo was fittingly observed by the members of the Saint Charles Auxiliary Society of the Charlottetown Hospital, Mass., which the members attended in a body, was celebrated at 8.00 a.m. in the Hospital chapel. In the evening Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament was given by Reverend Leo Herrel following which Reverend Kenneth McArthur briefly addressed the members commending them for their splendid cooperation in all Hospital activities. He congratulated them on their spirit of devotion and reminded them of those encouraging words of our Lord "As long as you did it to one of these my least brethren, you did it to me." The ladies were then invited to the Nurses Residence where a tasty lunch was served following which a game of bridge was played. The evening was a most successful one and was a pleasant surprise to all present.
