Important Provincial News of the week for the Saturday Readers.

FRIDAY

The marriage of Mrs. Isabella McDonald of this city to Colin Campbell of Lunenburg, took place in St. Dunstan's Cathedral Tuesday morning at eight o'clock. Rev. Dr. McLellan officiating.

A very pretty wedding took place yesterday at the home of H. A. Simpson, Fourteenth Avenue West, Calgary, when J. Harper Prowse, barrister, of Taber, was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Colquhoun, daughter of William Colquhoun of Halifax, N. S. Miss Colquhoun was beautifully gowned in embroidered mousseline de soie with a cream picture hat, and carried a magnificent bouquet of bride's roses and maiden hair fern. The rooms were tastefully decorated with potted plants and a profusion of roses. Rev. A. S. Tuttle, M.A., pastor of Wesley Methodist Church, performed the ceremony in the presence of a number of friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Prowse left on the evening train for the south, the bride travelling in a smart navy blue serge with hat to match.

For Skin Sufferers

If you, or someone dear to you, have undergone the itching, burning, sleep-destroying torments of eczema or other cruel skin eruption and have suffered from its embarrassing, unsightly disfigurement; if you have tried all manner of treatment, no matter how harsh, to no avail, and have all but given up hope of cure, you can appreciate what it means to thousands of skin-tortured sufferers, from infancy to age, when the first warm bath with Cuticura Soap and gentle application of Cuticura Ointment brings instant relief, permits rest and sleep, and proves the first step in a speedy and successful treatment.

FRIDAY

Special to The Guardian. AMHERST, N. S., Oct. 9.—Abbie Wood of Montreal had to break Canadian records to win against Fred Cameron in the fastest ten mile race ever seen here. The contest was a magnificent struggle from the start to the finish. Five miles were done in twenty-five minutes and twenty-seven seconds and Wood won by five yards in fifty-four minutes twenty-five and a half seconds.

Special from Guardian Branch. SUMMERSIDE, October 11.—At a meeting of the building committee of the new Prince County Hospital, held on Friday afternoon, it was decided to complete the outside work on the building this fall and the contract for the different parts of the work and the material for which tenders had been called were awarded as follows: The carpenter work to C. E. Linkletter, Summerside; the plastering to E. P. Pinea, Miscouche; the painting to H. F. Farrant, Summerside; and the lathing to John Linkletter, Summerside. D. A. Pickering is to supply the shingles and M. F. Schurman & Co., the finish lumber. The work on these contracts are to commence as soon as possible.

Special to The Guardian. RAINY RIVER, Oct. 12.—So far as can be learned not a single life has been lost on the Canadian side of the boundary, in the whole fire-swept district. Rainy River is still full of refugees from Beaudette and other points, but they are gradually moving on, mostly going south and east. Many are absolutely penniless. Seventy-six identified bodies have been found in the burned area.

INTERNATIONAL FALLS, Oct. 12.—With two hundred and probably five hundred bodies lying in the woods, the village of Clementson, of two hundred persons is levelled to the earth. The utmost that can be done by way of relief will fall far short of meeting the needs of the sufferers.

MONTREAL, Oct. 10.—Thirty-five years ago Saturday, Rev. Dr. J. A. Gordon, pastor of the First Baptist Church, was ordained to the ministry and yesterday was the thirty-fifth anniversary of his first sermon after ordination. In all these thirty-five years of service Dr. Gordon has ministered to the spiritual needs of many thousands of people, and among them were thirty-one young men who afterwards entered the ministry.

At the Sunday morning service, Dr. Gordon made a brief reference to these facts and to some other features of his period of service in the ministry. He lived, he said, through a great period of service in the ministry. He had lived, he said, through a great period of unrest in theological thought. Never, probably, in his history had there been a quarter-century of such rapid change. He had made it his practice, during all his ministry to spend six hours a day—one-quarter of his time—in the study to keep abreast of the progress of thought, but he warned his congregation against the spirit of compromise in regard to the truth. "Do not trust a man who will compromise his convictions in regard to the truth," he said. "You cannot depend upon him not compromising your interests."

Dr. Gordon's subject for his sermon was "Victorious Love," and his text was Romans 8: 31-39. He emphasized the love of God for us as the central force in life. It was, he said, the sun and atmosphere of spiritual life. "Without the love of God," he declared, "we would have Hell on earth through the selfishness of man. If that love were withdrawn, man's spiritual life would wither and die just as would wither and die all life if the sun and air were taken away."

Special to The Guardian. ST. JOHN, N. B., Oct. 13.—The suit of Gershon Mayes, vs. the King, which was expected to occupy a considerable time in the Exchequer Court, came to an abrupt ending today when it was announced that a settlement had been agreed upon, the plaintiff to receive $9,750. The amount sued for was $62,871, arising from the famous dredging contracts.

Special to The Guardian. ST. JOHN, N. B., Oct. 9.—The Every Day Club sports held here Saturday were fairly well attended. N. Winchester, of Charlottetown, won the bicycle event with a bunch of Halifax men close behind him. G. Foot of Halifax was quite badly injured in the last lap. J. Gaudet, Charlottetown, met with accidents.

Special to The Guardian. MONTREAL, Oct. 13.—Twenty-five business concerns, including banks, dentists, dressmakers, and others, were wiped out, three men narrowly escaped death, being caught on the top of the building, and several firemen died when practically wiped out King's Hall on St. Catherine St. West, between Drummond and Mountain Streets. This is the heart of the uptown business area. The loss is $75,000.

Special from Guardian Branch. SUMMERSIDE, October 13.—A very pleasant surprise was given James H. and Mrs. Yeo, of Port Hill, when a number of their friends from Tyne Valley and vicinity assembled at their home on Monday evening, the 3rd inst. Mr. Yeo had recently resigned his duties as mail courier on the Tyne Valley-Port Hill route and his friends took advantage of the occasion to place on record their appreciation of his services. The following address was read and our best wishes for the future. Mr. Yeo, a cheerful, mission style, and an oak hall mirror—"Dear Mr. and Mrs. Yeo: We have gathered this evening, a few of your friends and well-wishers, to join in a particularly happy social event. We come, prompted by motives of good fellowship, with a desire to express in a substantial form our feelings toward you, our assurance of your continuance, and our best wishes for the future. For you, sir, the past week has marked an incident in your life above its commonplace experiences. It has brought the completion of your duties as courier of His Majesty's mails, after a service of twenty-three years. Your work has not been easy. Strict attention to duty and absolute punctuality has been required. With it has been a responsibility of no small degree. The day's limit of your work, has oftentimes been long—from the early dawn of the morning to the late hour of the night. The inclemencies of the seasons and the severity of winter's fiercest storms have never permitted a halt. Each day brought his duty to be performed, and it has been done with a care, a promptness and efficiency which has won the satisfaction not only of your department, but of the entire community, as well, who have shared the benefits of your services. You have been, too, the bearer of many good things. Each day have you brought to us tidings from the outside world, with its problems and happenings in every phase of life. To many a home you have also brought each day a message of love and joy from the ones absent from its fireside circle. Your daily visits in our midst and association with the friends of the many past years will be greatly missed. However, we share with you the pleasure that must come in realizing that the exacting labors of the long years are at an end, and that you are again free to spend your whole time in the enjoyment of the comforts of your own home. As an evidence of our esteem and good wishes we beg of you to accept this chair. We hope that you will spend many restful and happy hours in it—a pleasant contrast to the many rough and weary ones you have spent in the performance of your duties. We are also pleased to present you, Mrs. Yeo, with this remembrance, and assure you that you and Mr. Yeo will ever have our good wishes for all the time to come. In many years that we hope are in store for you, both Mr. and Mrs. Yeo made fitting replies. The remainder of the evening was passed very pleasantly. Musical selections were given by Mrs. H.F. Phillips and Mrs. J.M. Nicholson of Tyne Valley, and Miss Mary Adams of Port Hill. Refreshments were served. The merry gathering broke up after the genial host had been duly "bounced," three hearty cheers and a tiger given, and the singing of "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" and "Auld Lang Syne."

GOT A BAD SPRAIN Thanks to Zam-Buk, now well. Don't limp about in pain when you slip on the sidewalk or get a sprain, or get a bad twist at your recreation. Rub in Zam-Buk, and be well in a short time. Mr. Clarence D. Black, Legal Department, Transcontinental Railway, Ottawa, writes: "I have used Zam-Buk, with very satisfactory results, but I did not know its full value until just recently when I fell from a street car and badly sprained my ankle. I immediately applied Zam-Buk, and am pleased to say that it has proved invaluable to me. The sprain was soon cured."

Bear in mind that Zam-Buk is used by all the famous football teams, all the best trainers, and all the leading athletes. Men who are at sport all the time—whose living depends upon their keeping "fit," and Zam-Buk the surest way to fitness. They are the best judges. In addition to its use for sprains, stiffness, rheumatism and sciatica, Zam-Buk is eminently useful for skin injuries and diseases. Blood-poison, itching rashes and ulcers, etc., it quickly cures. Also cures cuts, burns, scalds, chapped hands, cold sores, varicose veins, bad leg eczema, ringworm, etc. All druggists and stores sell at 50c. box or post free for price sent to Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. Refuse harmful substitutes and imitations.

Special to The Guardian. LONDON, Oct. 11.—It is stated on trustworthy authority that Lloyd George is an Imperial Federalist, and has espoused the cause of an Imperial Parliament at Westminster with Provincial Legislatures for the British Isles.

Special to The Guardian. MONTREAL, Oct. 13.—Wm. Bentley, of Fredericton, N. B., was held up by thieves on Youville Square, last night and robbed of $90, and his steamship ticket for Liverpool. He was on his way to the steamer at the time.

BANGOR, Me., Oct. 11.—The forty-first annual session of the New England branch of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society opened today in the First Methodist church, and about 300 delegates, representing every important community in New England are in attendance. The meetings will continue through Thursday and in this time the work of the organization will be discussed and explained by some of the most successful missionaries and missionary workers in the country. The Women's Foreign Missionary Society contributed $500,000 toward the maintenance of missions in 1909 and of this the New England branch gave more than its proportionate share.

Special to The Guardian. MONTREAL, Oct. 13.—Sheldon, the broker is still absent. In spite of the announcement that the office should open this morning, it is still closed. Application has been made for the liquidation of the Sheldon estate, and also to have the post office take over his mail.

(This Montreal broker carried on operations to some extent outside of the city in which his office was located. He had some system by which he conducted business for investors by mail and handled their money for them just as conveniently as if they were in Montreal. Mr. Sheldon's assurances of stupendous dividends, which would almost make one a millionaire in a very brief period, were influential enough to attract a number of P. E. I. men of money who turned over moderate sums for investment. Of course, it will now be difficult to ascertain who these parties are as most of them will not relish the fact of being "taken in" any more than they will appreciate Mr. Sheldon's business methods.—BOSTON NEWS ED.)

BOSTON, Oct. 11.—When Hattie Le Blanc, the seventeen-year-old girl who faces death in the electric chair for the alleged murder of Clarence F. Glover, is called to trial in the East Cambridge Court in January a priest who has known the little French girl from childhood will take the witness stand and testify in her behalf. He is Father Joseph Robetaille of West Arichat, Cape Breton, the home of the accused girl. Since she was a child old enough to attend church Hattie Le Blanc went to Father Robetaille's church.

The priest and the people of the parish are astounded that the bright little girl, who left Cape Breton two years ago, innocent of evil, ignorant of the ways of the big world, is now in prison under the dreadful charge of having taken a human life. "That child is innocent. She must be saved!" That is the burden of the cry of the people who know the Le Blanc family and who remember Hattie before she came to Massachusetts. This news of how the people at home regard Hattie was brought to Boston by Captain Peter King. Captain King is seventy years of age. He knows Hattie Le Blanc. The girl was employed in his daughter's family a good deal before she came to the States. Hints that reflected on Hattie were dropped after the death of the girl's name and that of Captain King, old enough to be her grandfather, were connected. But Captain King is to look after that. He has seen Hattie in the East Cambridge Jail and assured her that he will be at her side when the trial takes place and that he will shatter any evidence that reflects upon her, so far as he is concerned. "Hattie Le Blanc has a good friend in Father Robetaille," said Captain King to a reporter of the Boston Sunday American. "He has known the girl all her life. He knows the secrets of her heart. Hattie went to the brightest little girls in the church. When there was any gathering in connection with the church where a girl could do anything Hattie was always the first to volunteer. "I talked with Father Robetaille before I came to Boston. He told me how sorry he was that such a charge could be made against anyone that had ever been connected with his church, let alone a little girl. "Father Robetaille told me that he wanted me to find out if it would serve any purpose for him to come to Boston and testify for Hattie. He said that he could tell the jury that she had always been an honest and an industrious girl. He said that he could tell a story on the stand that would show that Hattie had not a vicious drop of blood in her veins. "State Detective Byrnes saw Father Robetaille. I think he obtained an affidavit from the priest. That affidavit contains a statement that is in favor of Hattie. "The priest says that he will not put the State to the expense of bringing him to Boston, if he is needed to help save the accused girl. He will pay his own expenses. "I know that he could help Hattie Le Blanc a great deal. In a case of this character the reputation of the girl when she came here and went to work in the Glover family would naturally have much weight. "Father Robetaille has been in the same parish for about a dozen years, so that he has known Hattie since she was old enough to go to church."

EVESHAM, Eng., Oct. 13.—King Manuel, of Portugal, and the Queen Mother Amelia have accepted the invitation of the Duke of Orleans to become his guests at Wood-Norton.

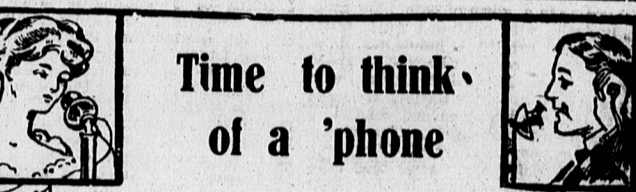

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 11.—Theodore Roosevelt today made an aeroplane flight as the passenger of Archibald Hoxey. He was delighted with the sensation.

PARIS, Oct. 11.—The washerwomen of the small village of St. Pierre d'Oleron in France decided to strike and sent the town crier through the streets to proclaim that henceforth their rates was 30 cents a day with meals. The women who employed them retorted by means of the same town crier that the new rate would only be paid on condition: 1—A day was to be from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m. 2—No linen was to be brought to the houses where the women were employed, to be washed. Sudden changes of weather are especially trying, and probably to none more so than to the scrofulous and consumptive. The progress of scrofula during a normal October is commonly great. We never think of scrofula—its blemishes, cutaneous eruptions, and wasting of the bodily substance—without thinking of the great good many sufferers from it have derived from Hood's Sarsaparilla, whose radical and permanent cures of this one disease are enough to make it the most famous medicine in the world. There is probably not a city or town where Hood's Sarsaparilla has not proved its merit in more homes than one, in arresting and completely eradicating scrofula, which is almost as serious and as much to be feared as its near relative, consumption.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 11.—A labor market in better condition than in 1909 and vastly improved over 1908 will be shown by the figures for the first six months of 1910, to be presented in the forthcoming quarterly bulletin of the State Department of Labor. Returns as to unemployed in about 190 trade unions throughout the State show for a total of between 90,000 and 100,000 members, or nearly one-fourth of the organized wage earners in the State. At the end of January the percentage of members reported idle was 24.5. Following the usual course in the transition from winter to summer conditions, the percentage declined until it stood for the end of June at 15.4, with an average percentage for the six months at 19.2. These figures are two to three points lower than those for the corresponding period of 1909, when the percentage of idleness at the end of June was 17.4 and the average for the six months was 22.3, and they are but little more than half the record-high figures in the depression of 1908, when the corresponding percentages for end of June and the six months average were 30.2 and 34.7. The idleness reported includes all kinds, whether due to labor disputes or disability or the state of trade as affected by weather or business. Idleness under the latter head is considering the only unemployment. Idleness in consequence of strikes or lockouts in the first six months of 1910 was considerably greater than in 1909.

The farmer at this season has just as much need for the telephone as the city dweller. The phone will prove its worth by each day's service, will save many "fool's errands" in raging storms and find a ready market for whatever produce you may want to sell. With a member of the family seriously ill the phone will prove its worth by allowing instant communication with the best of doctors and thus saving a fruitless trip to the surrounding country in search of medical aid. Now is the time to install a phone, it was never as cheap as it is today. See Contract Dept. today.
