OUR Monetary Times Says: Our readers will remember the pamphlets got out last year by the Tourist Associations of Halifax and St. John, respectively. We know a dozen or two of people who went down the Gulf or East by rail last summer to the Nova Scotia coast by reason of the pamphlet with the Union Jack on the back. Picturquesa Chester, on Mahone Bay, west of Halifax, is now sending out pamphlets on her own hook to attract the summer visitor. Digby or Annapolis might do the same—their claim to attractions is valid.
