Victoria and Vicinity

The lobster fishing season is about over and the catch has been rather small.

Mr. Ralph Taylor, St. John, N. B., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Claudine Wright, for a few days.

Mr. Wesley Clark of the staff of the Bank of N. S. Toronto, Ont., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Clark, being called home on account of the death of his uncle, Mr. Charles Clark, Charlottetown.

His friends are pleased to see Mr. U. Bertram Trowsdale around again after spending over two months under treatment in Prince County Hospital.

Mr. Richard MacQuarrie has left for Newfoundland, where he takes up work in his chosen profession of mining geology. Mrs. MacQuarrie (nee Miss Marion Rayer) remains to finish her term as assistant teacher of Victoria School.

The following pupils of Victoria School have returned after taking Entrance Exams: Hattie Rogerson, George Wotton, and Thelma Pidgeon.

Mr. Scott MacQuarrie left recently for Toronto, where he enlisted as mechanic in the R. C. A. F.

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Cameron was celebrated quietly at their home in Victoria on the evening of June 26 last. On their return from visiting friends during the afternoon, they were agreeably surprised to find their home taken charge of by their daughters and sons-in-law, and a feast prepared during their absence. They were each presented with an easy chair. Friends of the worthy couple called during the evening and extended congratulations and good wishes. Their daughter, Mrs. James Littlejohns, her husband and their daughter came from Moncton, N. B., to be present for the occasion.

Common Cause Unites Them

SLAMS TOWN HALL

MELBOURNE, Australia.—(CP)—Site of Melbourne's Town Hall is valued at $1,000,000 ($3,580,000) and a realtor has suggested the Hall is a "blot on the retail section of the city, and rears development."

A WAR'S ON, TOO

LONDON.—(CP)—Two men jumped from a motor-car in London's west end and scattered startled crowds, smashed a jeweller's window with a sledge hammer, and got away with $1,400 ($5,700) worth of diamonds.

HEILED WRONG CROSS

BOSTON.—(CP)—Claiming he shouted "Hurrah for the Nazi Cross", but meant the Red Cross, Michael Green was fined $10 for "disturbing a public assembly through loud outcries."
