ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

At the morning service at St. Paul's Anglican Church, the Rector Reverend LeDrew Gardner in speaking to the boys and girls admonished them not to drift aimlessly through life like a rudderless boat. He advised them to have a purpose in life and to keep the rudder of obedience perfect.

"The Lord is my Shepherd," 23rd Psalm was the text of Mr. Gardner's morning sermon. He pointed out that for one to obtain the full significance of the 23rd Psalm, its relative position must be considered; the 22nd Psalm is the Psalm of the Cross, the 24th Psalm is the Psalm of the King; in other words the 23rd Psalm is on the road from the Cross to the Crown, the Lord is our Shepherd while we are passing from the Cross to the Crown. The ideal shepherd, Mr. Gardner explained is a constant companion, one who never leaves you —a road mate. "I have known my sheep and am known of mine, they hear my voice and they follow me." He gave a very vivid mental picture of the sheep following their shepherd's voice in Palestine and pointed out that if we do not follow Jesus, he is not our Shepherd and we cannot expect to have the good things promised in the 23rd Psalm. We have a great tendency to follow Christ as a Shepherd but not as our Shepherd. We want men placed in public positions, whom God has guided to such positions and not men who seek the position for self gratification; there we would receive the blessing promised us in the 23rd Psalm.

Canon Malone took as the subject for his sermon in the evening "The part a Christian must play in redeeming the world." He explained that the Christian religion attracts men for any one of 3 reasons. 1. Deliverance out of a life which is meaningless. 2. The Christian religion provides them with a more reasonable philosophy of life. 3. The Christian religion is the only remedy for conditions as they exist Salvation means more than seeking satisfaction or security for oneself for it is God's will that we as Christians working with Him should endeavour to save all. The Canon mentioned that we can do our part in the redemption of the world by living in close fellowship with Christ, by living lives of service to Christ and to our fellow men and lastly by living lives which bear witness of the faith that is within us.

The anthems sung at the morning and evening services were respectively "Jesu, Word of God Incarnate" —Mozart, and "Oh Sacred Head Surrounded," —Mozart. Mr. Burleigh Taylor assisted at both services.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

In his morning sermon the Rev. Harvey L. Denton, B. D., took as his subject "Christ Makes For Uneasiness." True it is that Jesus said "My peace I leave with you" but it has always been also true that Christ stirs, awakes, makes uneasy the hearts of men. Christ makes for uneasiness because he makes men agitated over wrong, he makes men see how hideous is sin. As men stand before Christ they feel his searching of souls. Christ makes for uneasiness because he reveals to men the outcome of sin. Always will wrong strive to crucify right. Christ reveals to us the futility of wrong. Christ renders those who commit their lives to him uneasy about wrong. Christ excites men with high ideals— man was made for the uplands. Christ calls men to the heights, where they may face the morning sun, where the air is pure, where the view is far and beautiful. Christ makes for uneasiness because he disturbs men with the thought of God whose being, goodness, justice are always disturbing. He disturbs with the thought of our duty and His Love. We have in Him a revealing light, a constant light, a constant challenge, an abiding hope

The morning anthem was Stainer's "God So Loved The World."

At the evening service the fifth sermon of the series on "They Met Jesus" was heard by a large congregation, Mr. Denton speaking on "Change In Life's Mode." Miss Pearl Burns sang "He Was Despised" from Handel's Messiah.

It was intimated that commencing with Wednesday evening at 7.30 special service would be held each evening except Saturday until Easter.

There was another good attendance at the morning service at St. James Church yesterday, conducted by the minister, the Rev. Dr. R. Moorhead Legate. He chose as his text, the 9th verse of the 63rd chapter of Isaiah—"In all their afflictions he was afflicted and the angel of his presence saved them." The gospel was good news, and called good news because it gives the highest and best kind of comfort to all who believe. The morning offertory by the choir was Gounod's "Ave Verum." Dr. Legate took as the evening text the words of Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemene, "Watch and pray that ye enter not into temptation." Self-criticism with regular periods of prayer are our best means of keeping our lives on the proper course. Mrs. H. S. Henderson sang as a solo "He Wipes the Tear from Every Eye."

Allies Seek 8,000 Planes

By Devon Francis
Associated Press Aviation Editor

NEW YORK, March 10—(AP)—Around a table loaded with pencils and scratch paper tomorrow, British and French purchasing missions will begin dickering individually with United States aircraft manufacturers for 8,000 warplanes to cost in the neighborhood of $1,000,000,000.

If the United States has a commercial stake in the war, it is represented by the country's airplane industry, one of the most highly publicized and, until 14 years ago, one of the least important industries of the period after the first great war.

Even today American airplane plants occupy a relatively unimportant place in the country's industrial economy. A bare 60,000 persons are on aircraft shop payrolls as against almost 600,000 on automotive plant and related industry payrolls.

No other industry has enjoyed as meteoric an increase in orders in recent months.

The chairman of the Charity committee showed in his report that the demands were about the same as the previous month.

The Chief Marshal, L. O. Kelly, reported that all arrangements are completed for the St. Patrick's Day parade and he expects a large turn out Sunday afternoon. He announced that the route of parade would be published later.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH

Rev. J. A. Murchison, travelling secretary of the British and Foreign Bible Society in the Maritime Provinces, was a very welcome guest to the pulpit and to the worship of Trinity United Church. Speaking in behalf of the great organization which he represents the minister spoke of the present crisis as a touchstone of the quality of our Christianity revealing whether our loyalty is steadfast only while the way is smooth and the going easy, or whether it will stand the storm and the time of trial. Rev. Mr. Murchison gave a stirring account of the essential service rendered to the troops by the Society in distributing to them copies of the New Testament and appealed strongly for the continued support of all in this worthy work.

Mr. George Johnson gave a very fine rendition of Gabriel's inspiring hymn "The Way of the Cross Leads Home." The choir contributed richly to the worship with the well known anthem "God Is A Spirit."

The evening anthem was "Seek Ye The Lord," the tenor soloist in this anthem was Mr. Harvey MacPherson. A very fine soprano solo was given by Mrs. T. Roy Cudmore. "He That Dwelleth in The Secret Place." Rev. Mr. Murchison gave a very fine rendition of the vocal selection "Will Your Anchor Hold?"

The evening sermon was delivered by Rev. Hugh Miller and was based on the subject "The Cross and the Bystander." In this address the minister stressed the need for every Christian to look again to the Cross, there to see Christ at his best in courage and resignation, and to determine our place in the beauty and glory of Christ.

Pound In New 1940 Low

NEW YORK, March 10—(AP)—The pound sterling sank to its lowest price thus far in 1940 Saturday at $3.87 after the British Government announced drastic tightening of foreign exchange controls for the purpose of assuring larger supplies of foreign monies in its exchequer.

Other European currencies did little or nothing in relation to the United States dollar except the French franc which is tied to sterling in strong trade and other economic pacts. That currency likewise slid to a low for the year at 2.19 1-2 cents.

The Canadian dollar was off 1-8 cent at 15 1-8 per cent discount, a drop of 1 1-2 cents for the week. (Ottawa Foreign Exchange Control Board rate 9.09-9.91 per cent discount).

The Belga and Swiss franc were unchanged in relations to the dollar while the Guilder dipped .03 of a cent.

Daily War Survey

(By The Canadian Press)

Diplomats scurried between European capitals during the weekend in an effort to straighten out the tangle of the Russo-Finnish war. Apart from the two parties directly involved, the Scandinavian neutral states are interested because the war is at their doors, it makes their people restless and they may be dragged in at anytime.

Nazi Germany is interested because the Reich needs Russia's undivided attention in the speeding up of the production and delivery of vital supplies to German industry and the German people.

Great Britain and France are interested because the principle for which they are fighting the larger war against Germany is at stake in the Russo-Finnish conflict. Russia is guilty of the worst kind o. unprovoked aggression and if Russia gets away with spoils in the Finnish fight it will be an encouragement to further aggression elsewhere.

Simultaneously with the revelation that peace negotiations of some sort were under way between Russia and Finland and that Germany and Sweden were interested parties, the extent of the assistance already given by the Allies to the Finns was revealed. They have sent 400 aircraft, nearly 1,000 guns and great numbers of small arms, shells, cartridges and bombs.

At the same time the talk of despatching an expeditionary force to aid the Finns was revived. Possibly the fear of such a force is one of the main reasons why Germany and Sweden are busying themselves to bring about a settlement and why Russia, while the Red Army is still advancing, is willing to talk peace with the Finnish government.

The approach of spring will not only slow up or halt the mechanized Red Army but will make practicable the despatch of a French force to Finland. The sending of troops from the comparatively mild climate of France and England into Finland in winter without giving them ample time to acclimatize themselves before going into action would be dangerous. When warm weather comes it will be a different story.
