

A Laxative Cure for La Grippe and Cold

Ninety-nine in every one hundred remedies for colds, contain Quinine.

There are a good many people to whom Quinine is not the best medicine to give.

It causes ringing noises in the ears and sometimes brings on most unpleasant and annoying headache and a feeling of general prostration.

Foster's Laxative Cold Cure

is agreeable to everybody—to those who cannot take Quinine as well as those who can.

It is a pleasant and safe tablet treatment for the relief of colds, and is one of the most prompt and efficacious; it will cure an ordinary cold in a day and night. Try it.

JOHNSON HAS ANOTHER WHITE GIRL.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—Jack Johnson, the negro heavyweight champion pugilist, appeared before Chief of Police McSweeney today to explain his relations with Miss Lucille Cameron, a nineteen-year-old white girl, the daughter of Mrs. F. Cameron, Minneapolis, for whom the police had been asked to search by the mother. In a dramatic appeal Mrs. Cameron told of her failure to get her daughter away from the influence of the negro. She described her anguish when she learned last Friday that her daughter was a frequenter of Johnson's cafe, her hurried trip here to rescue the girl, her interviews with the pugilist, who she declared insulted her and flouted her plea that he give up the girl. Johnson, she said, told her he could get any woman he wanted. When I found Lucille I pointed out the wrong she had done. I pleaded with her. I told her I would give up everything I had in life to get her to go back, and I would go any place with her and shield her from criticism back home. She refused to come, being apparently under Johnson's influence. Then I telephoned the pugilist. He said he would send an automobile for me. Friends advised me to see if I wouldn't personally get him to give up my daughter. When his automobile arrived he was in it himself, although he said it would be empty. When I entered the machine I drew down the shades so as not to be seen. This settled him.

Oh, some of the best white women in Chicago, ride in this car, is what he said to me. I begged Johnson to give my daughter up. He said he wouldn't and leered in my face. We rode to a home on Sheridan Road where Lucille was staying. She wept and told me she had gone too far to go back. Every once in a while she would walk out of the room with the negro and talk with him. I left her undecided. Finally she came to my hotel. We talked of how she could become disengaged. It was convinced at that time that the negro had hypnotic influence over her. She went downstairs to use the telephone, she said, and never returned. Johnson told me he would give every dollar he had to hold her. I have appealed to the police, but they say they can do nothing, as Lucille is 19 years old.

Johnson made an absolute denial of unduly friendly relations with Miss Cameron, and that his intimation for the Cameron girl was one of the causes of the suicide recently of Mrs. Etta Duryea Johnson, his young white wife. He declared the girl left her position as cashier in his cafe for another position, and that his wife had never seen Miss Cameron.

Johnson denies the whole thing, said Chief McSweeney. One thing is certain. If I find anything wrong at Johnson's place he will be arrested in a hurry.

CHARLOTTETOWN AND ELSEWHERE

Two drunks were arrested last night and will come up for trial this morning.

E. R. Brow, Charlottetown, was a passenger returning on the express last night.

It is learned that Jack Riggs, Charlottetown, has not accepted a position with Frost & Wood Co., as has been reported but will continue his tonorial practice.

Rumors were afloat throughout Charlottetown and vicinity yesterday that Dr. Murphy, of Tignish, had received the appointment to the senatorship made vacant by the death of Senator McDonald. It is also reported that H. D. McEwen, St. Peter's, is appointed agent of marine and fisheries for this province. Neither report could be confirmed last night.

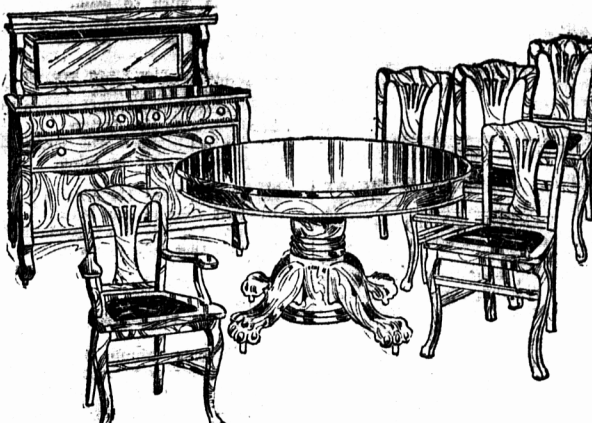

Andrew A. Lockerby of Boston, is on a fortnight's visit to P. E. Island accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Dunmore. Mr. Lockerby is a son of the late John Lockerby, a native of Scotland, who carried on farming for some years in Cavendish and subsequently removed to Charlottetown where he died at the age of 103. Andrew A. Lockerby has been absent from the island for thirty-seven years. The first seven of these he spent in St. John, but after being burned out in the great fire there he removed to Boston, where he has since resided.—St. John Exc.

At the home of the bride's parents, Vernon River, on Wednesday evening, Oct. 16th, Bessie, daughter of James and Mrs. Weatherbie, was united in marriage to Jabez Lane, of Hermitage, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. A. Brown. The bride, who was becomingly attired in cream serge, and wearing white roses, entered, the tastefully decorated parlor, to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Mrs. H. A. Brown. After the usual congratulations, all were ushered into the dining room, where a sumptuous table was spread. The bride was the recipient of useful and valuable gifts, which prove her popularity. Later in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Lane drove to their future home at Hermitage, and are followed by the sincere best wishes of their many friends for a long, happy and prosperous journey through life.

BROCKTON FAIR AND HORSE SHOW.

BOSTON, Oct. 12.—The Brockton fair and horse show for 1912 will go down into history as the best in general excellence of the whole thirty-nine that have been given. The management claim "that Brockton has the greatest fair the world has ever seen."

Toronto makes the same claim in respect to its "Canadian national exhibition" and without prejudice, the decision must go to the hostess of Ontario "Queen City." There is no doubt that the Brockton fair is now the largest outdoor exhibition of its kind held in the United States. The horse show in connection with it is the largest outdoor horse show in that country, while the cattle and poultry shows hold the same distinction.

ASSERTS PASTOR HUSBAND LEADS TWO LIVES.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 17.—While the Rev. William P. Sachs, president of Wabsher College, a Lutheran school, was surrendering to the sheriff on a warrant charging him with wife abandonment, Mrs. Sachs was scrubbing the front steps of her mother's home.

The husband filed a divorce suit and the wife swore out an abandonment warrant about the same time. Sachs is living with his daughters, Ruth, seventeen, and Naomi, fourteen.

Sachs, after a conference with his attorney, Taylor R. Young, went with Young to the sheriff's office, where he gave a $200 bond, which assured him against arrest. The bond is returnable in the court of criminal correction, when a time for his trial will be set and a new bond will be given.

BITTIFUL STORIES OF SHAREHOLDERS IN DEFUNCT BANK.

TORONTO, Oct. 17.—Shareholders of the defunct Farmer's Bank, from all parts of Ontario lined up today before Referee Kappelle in G. T. Clarkson's office to protest against the imposition of double liability and the demand of a return of all dividends.

It was a tragic meeting. Farmers, village merchants and workmen told the liquidator that they were unable to meet the demands, and they related stories of how they were deceived and induced in various ways to buy stock. Names of big men in many countries were obtained and used as bait. Whiskey was employed on one man and it was shown that the argument of government security was frequently employed.

TREATMENT OF IVY POISONING.

(Youth's Companion.)

Poisoning the skin by poison ivy (Rhus toxicodendron) is frequent in the summer and the early autumn. Some fortunate persons are not susceptible, but most are poisoned if they come in direct contact with the plant.

This disorder causes discomfort all ways, and sometimes suffering. It shows itself within a few hours, with redness, heat and irritation of the skin, swelling and the formation of small vesicles. These vesicles may occur in great numbers. After many of them coalesce to form blisters, and they also break and exude a sticky yellowish serum. It is this fluid that by its escape spreads the disease to the adjacent skin, or to the face and other parts of the body.

The swelling may be so considerable as to completely close the eyes. As a rule, the acute symptoms continue several days, at the end of which time the vesicles either discharge or crust over, and the swelling and redness slowly disappear. In this stage the itching may be intense, and is likely to provoke recurrent scratching, which may, in turn, bring about eczema.

The best way to treat ivy poisoning is simple. The inflamed skin should be copiously washed with lukewarm water and a soap that does not irritate. The parts affected should then be bathed with a watery solution of permanganate of potash as hot as can be borne. If the skin is broken a percent solution should be used; if the skin is not broken, however, the strength of the solution may be increased up to 2 or 3 percent. Treatment should begin the instant symptoms are observed.

In mild cases one treatment is enough. Occasionally the poison is more deeply seated and the permanganate must be applied for some time. In these cases and in the extremely rare instances of systematic infection, due to the entrance of the poison into the circulation, a physician must be called.

The patient must avoid scratching, of course. Bandages are undesirable because they tend to spread the poison over the surrounding skin. If any protector is needed let it be a loosely applied dressing of absorbent cotton and gauze, changed frequently and kept moist at all times with warm water containing a little bicarbonate of soda.

Permanganate of potash discolors everything with which it comes in contact and stains the skin a deep brown color, but that is a small stain which will wear off in a few days or it can be removed by vigorous applications of soap and water. In the healing stages of the disorder soothing ointments may be used.

ROOSEVELT GAINS IN BETTING CIRCLES.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—In recent Wall Street election betting previous to the shooting of Roosevelt, Taft had taken second place at odds of 3 to 1 against him and Roosevelt third place at the odds of 4 to 1 against him. Now even money is being quoted as between Taft and Roosevelt, with the tendency to favor of Roosevelt. Wilson continues favorite at 4 to 1, odds on.

MONTREAL GIRL IS DEAD.

MONTREAL, Oct. 17.—Miss Dupuis, on whom a criminal operation is alleged to have been performed by T. W. P. Patterson, a city broker, died this morning in the general hospital. The evidence of Miss Dupuis was taken by Judge Let in the hospital ten days ago, when the physician found there was no hope for her recovery, and she said it was Patterson who had performed the operation on her.

NEW GOVERNOR OF NEWFOUNDLAND.

ST. JOHN, Nfld., Oct. 18.—Walter Edward Davidson has been appointed Governor of Newfoundland, to succeed Sir Ralph Chomley Williams, who retires next February under the age limit. The new Governor comes from the Seychelles Islands, in the Indian Ocean, where he has been Governor since 1904.

TO OPERATE NEW ROAD.

OTTAWA, Oct. 17.—It is stated here, on apparently good ground, that the government is arranging for the operation, wholly or in part of the National Transcontinental Railway in New Brunswick. What the arrangement is to be, has not been made known, but the probability is that enough rolling stock will be placed upon the line to provide for a regular service, though perhaps not a daily one.

Much of the line from Moncton to the Phoenix Park murderers in Lewis has been completed and is lying idle. This, it is recognized is not good for the road itself, and does not help the people living along the line or shippers who would like to make use of it.

$100 REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in its efforts to cure. Proprietors have to much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for every case that it fails to cure. Send for that testimonial.

CONCERNING OLD LACE. (Boston Advertiser.)

Old lace hidden away in lavender in grandmother's cedar chest, may suggest romance, but the practical woman of today evidently thinks that romance in a cedar chest doesn't last. She is hunting up all such bits of finery for her own immediate use.

A real lace handkerchief that was perhaps part of a great aunt's trousseau makes a charming little boudoir cap. A frill of gold lace and plaiting of old neck and sleeve lace of a theatre cap.

Old lace collars and Berthas, even the coverings of real lace fans, have a lowly and behold, a love of a unlimited possibilities for caps, necker aprons and aprons. For, listen! the tea apron has come into its own again.

No matter how beautiful her gown, when the tea hour arrives the hostess dons a frilly little affair, all lace and roses and ribbon.

To make it, of course, any one may go to the shop and buy material, but how much better to find Cousin Prudence Hathaway's lace parasol which she was carrying when the Prince of Wales bowed to her at the garden party, and from it make a tea apron of lace that has had a past.

If there are pieces enough in the old lace treasure house one may have things to match, say a theatre cap and muff. Exquisite affairs are these muffs, with a square of rich old lace in the centre, bordered with velvet or fur and frills of lace and pleated silk or ribbon.

UNTIPPED SERVANTS MARK LUGGAGE. (The Queen)

The marking of luggage by hotel servants whose tips were not up to their expectation recently led to legal proceedings at Marienbad, one culprit—a head waiter—being sentenced to two days imprisonment and another being fined seven shillings.

Hotel keepers and their employees have on various occasions discussed at the official meetings of their respective associations means of doing away with the tipping system but travellers have made no attempt whatsoever to solve the problem, and they have not to any great extent even recognized the suggestions of hotel keepers.

It is of course impossible to have any exact regulation of such a matter and yet this is unfortunately the only solution offered by the various associations of hoteliers and their servants, namely the addition of a special item—10 per cent—at the foot of the bill. If all travellers spent a week or less at a hotel the percentage would seem reasonable; but it is an absurdly large amount in cases where a stay extends into months.

Then there are hotels where visitors considering they have been well treated, will far exceed the 10 per cent, while, on the other hand, no guest feels inclined to give any gratuity if he has had reason to complain of all round slackness in attendance and a general inferiority of food and accommodation. The knowledge of tipping, however, has now reached such a point that few servants who have shown proper attention are forgotten.

THAT'S PRIDE.

A farmer sold a horse to a man, giving him a month to try the horse before paying for it. Six weeks passed, and the farmer happened to meet his purchaser. He asked him how the horse suited him. The purchaser said: "Oh, he's all right, only he won't hold his head up."

"To which the farmer replied, "That's pride, he will hold his head up when he's paid for."

A few days ago a prominent, fox rancher took the trouble to call on James Callaghan, tailor to inform him that the clothes he made for him were the best cut and tailored garments that he had ever purchased on P.
