LARGE FUNERAL.—The funeral of the late John Richards Friday afternoon from his late residence at Bideford to Port Hill Cemetery was one of the largest ever seen in that part of the province, hundreds coming from all sections of the country to pay their last tributes of respect. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Bamford, who delivered an eloquent address, in which fitting reference was made to the life, work and splendid character of the deceased. There were many beautiful floral tributes from sympathizing friends at home and abroad. A special train from Summerside brought a number of leading men from that town to the funeral. The pall-bearers were, Messrs W. B. Hayes, Shelton Sharp, A. B. McDougall, R. C. Macdonald, Aldred England and W. Burleigh. The floral tributes included wreaths from the Liberal Association, the Prince County, the officers, non-commissioned officers and men from the 105th Battalion, Halifax, Mrs. W. McLea, Walbank, Montreal, Mr. A. C. Saunders, M. P., and other friends in Summerside and Charlottetown.

104th IN ENGLAND.—The following letter has been received by Miss Christina McLean, of Lewis, Lor 60, from her cousin, who is in England. March 14, 1917.

Dear Cousin.—Your always welcome letter came to hand a few days ago and was pleased to hear from you, also to know you are having a very good time which I am having also, considering the circumstances. One of the fellows in our hut took sick last week, and the medical officer suspected he might have had spinal meningitis. He was sent to the hospital and the hut put under quarantine. They have a guard on the hut, so we cannot get out only under escorts. They bring our meals in to us. There are 24 of us here in all.

We are going out to answer the paymaster roll this afternoon. I expect you know all about the 105th P. E. I. Highlanders being transferred to the 104th New Brunswick Battalion, both battalions being under strength they formed both into one, and the 104th being the senior battalion it got by its title. The 105th Colonel 13th is in command of the 104th. The 13th Reserve Battalion is at Bramshot, and some of our fellows have been transferred to it. Some of them were over age, namely, Kenneth McKinnon, Charles Martin, John Alex. McKenzie, and Norman McRae. Fred McRae is still with us. Whom do you suppose I saw Sunday by Neil McDonald. He is still in the 92 Battalion at Bramshot and looks fine.

I received a pair of socks from your mother some time ago and wrote to her to thank her for sending them, which I think it was awful thoughtful of her, as we appreciate good homemade socks here.

We have had a very fine winter so far, with enough frost to keep the ground frozen and as far as snow is concerned, we had a few showers, the other day which covered the ground, but soon went away. As you get all the news of importance by the papers, I must bring this letter to a close trusting it will find you in the best of health as I am myself, and hoping to hear from you soon as a letter is always cheerful. Good Bye. From your loving cousin DUNCAN McLENNAN.

BOYS WANT LETTERS FROM HOME Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin W. Bert, Head of Hillsboro, have received a letter from their brother, Lance-Corporal Edward E. Jay of the 105th Battalion from which the following notes are taken: Somewhere in France. April 8, 1917. My Dear Sister and Brother.—How are you all feeling this Easter. Hope you are all well and happy as this leaves me enjoying the best of health; also I am really happy. I can truly say I have never felt one bit lonely since I came to this nice country, called France. It appears to be very nice now, and I expect much nicer in peace time. I just wish I could tell you where we are and all about the place, but you know we are not allowed to do such things. It would really surprise you if you knew what a good time we are having. I have escaped pretty good from sickness since I left home. Well, just think, sister, it will soon be a year since I left that spot. I call home. It was the 29th of May. I went into town and went up as far as Mt. Stewart one Sunday. Do you remember that day? I never said good-bye to you people, but not much wonder as I nearly missed the train, but never mind, some day when we get the Huns, where we want them and get back to the "Garden of the Gulf," I will be able to tell you all about our trip. I did not write you since I came over here, and I ought to be ashamed to say so, but Hazel, dear, I really did not have convenience to do so, and then we are only allowed to write a certain number of letters each week and I thought you could hear from home how I was. I got twenty-two letters in three days, some dated before others, but sorry to say, I did not get to answer any more than half yet. I see by the paper ("Guardian") that some of the 105th boys are wounded and some dead already, and I hear some of them are still in England. I did not hear from Henry lately, just wish I could see him just for a few minutes to have an old talk with him and also some more of the boys, but there are about fourteen of the 105th boys with me. Now, sister dear, I guess I had better close as I have to write another letter today, and it will soon be supper time now. From your big brother. No. 712735. L.-Cpl. EDWARD E. JAY.

TO BE GOOD. Mystery's other and equally enticing name is woman. Many a man thinks himself a genius because he lives by his wits. He who pursues two rabbits will succeed in catching neither. It is well to watch virtue which employs a press agent. Many lives would be a great deal sweeter if they were not quite so sugary. If a man is unable to sleep in the morning when he should get up he has insomnia in its worst form. Try to be always at your best. Wherever the sun is it is 12 o'clock. Be particular about the people who praise you. The hog has a high opinion of his wallow. Careful wives who habitually make up their husband's minds refine the process until they attain the most satisfactory results.

PRISONERS IN GERMANY Mrs. John H. Bryant, Enmore has received the following cards from prisoners of war in Germany: Friedrichsfield, Jan. 11th, 1914. Dear Mrs. Bryant I am very pleased to say that I have received your letter but not the parcel yet, but it will be here any day now. I thank you very much for your kindness in being so in thoughtful as to think of our needs. I am sure it will be a long time before I will forget it. I hope by the time you get this card that the war will be over. I remain your sincere friend. Pte. T. Gill. 20/1/1917.

Dear Madam—Just a few lines to let you know that I received your welcome letter and parcel safely with many thanks. I was very pleased with the socks and mittens because it is very cold here, also to get some good tobacco. Please let me know if you receive this post card. Yours truly, T. H. SMITH.
