SPLENDID RECITAL LAST EVENING

The Organ Recital and Sacred Concert given in St. James' Church last night, was one which was enjoyed to the full by all music lovers. Mr. Wats' proved a perfect master of the organ, his touch being a most sympathetic one. He had a wide range of music to cover, but never once was found wanting in ability or power. His selections, among which were, Sonata No. 1, by Mendelssohn, Nocturne, No. 2, Chopin, and "Reverie Pathetique" Godfrey, met with nothing but the highest approval. B. G. Westcott, as a baritone, soloist is undoubtedly good, his voice being rich and clear. He sang several times and greatly added to the enjoyment of the evening. The opening chorus, and chorus "Gloria Patri" (97th Psalm) by the combined city choirs were excellent beyond a question. Miss Bremner needs no praise added to her reputation as a soloist of the first order but if possible her voice was heard to a better advantage than ever before. Her rendering of "Aldie with Me" was nothing less than soul inspiring, every note being clear as a silver toned bell. Mr. Ritchie is well known as possessing a good tenor voice and he ably sustained his reputation last night. His notes are of rare sweetness, and in the duet "Love Divine," with Miss Bremner, this point was more clearly brought out than ever. The Male Quartette, consisting of Messrs Ritchie, Calder, Davis and Barlow gave a splendid rendition of "Whispering Hope," their voices blending well together. The concluding number was the Island Hymn, the accompanist being Professor Watson, and the soloists, Mrs. S. C. Moore, and E. Ritchie. The audience stood, and joined in the last verse. Congratulations are due to all who took part, especially to Professor Watson for his energy in bringing the musicians to Charlottetown, and his untiring efforts in making the concert a success.

McIntyre, chief counsel for the defence will present to the jury the plea of insanity on which the friends and relatives of the Captain base their hope of acquittal. It is understood that a considerable part of the address will be devoted to a severe attack upon the army officers who testified against Captain Hains. Provided there is no hitch in the proceedings a verdict deciding the fate of Peter C. Hains Jr., expected by Tuesday night.
