A most enjoyable time was spent at the home of Albert and Mrs. Wise, Milton, on Saturday evening last, the guest of honor being Charles Holman, lately returned from the North West. Mr. Holman leaves for his home at Strasburg, Sask., Wednesday evening, Jan. 27.

The Chatham World says: "Rev. Dr. Campbell, of St. John, addressed three audiences in Chatham last Sunday, breaching in St. John's in the morning, and St. Luke's in the evening, and addressed a mass meeting at St. Andrew's church on the claims of the British and Foreign Bible Society as a great missionary institution. Dr. Campbell's audiences were charmed with the closeness of his reasoning, the beauty of his diction, and the force of his delivery. He made the old missionary there sound like a new story. Dr. Campbell has many friends in this City."

The death occurred suddenly at his home in East Boston, recently of Alexander Matthews in the 73 year of his age. The deceased although an invalid for many years was as well as usual up to two days before his death which took place on Dec. 26th, 1908. Mr. Matthews was born and educated in this Province and when quite a young man went to Boston and enlisted in the Civil War and after serving for about eighteen months he took up a home in East Boston and lived there until his death. He leaves to mourn a widow.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of George B. Mutch, Calgary, Alta., on Wednesday, Jan. 6, at noon when his sister Katie Stewart, daughter of Benjamin Mutch, Barnscliffe, was united in marriage to Geo. E. McLeod of Saskatoon, Sask., son of Capt. A. W. McLeod O'Neil. Only the immediate relatives of the young couple were present at the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. G. W. Kerby, pastor of the Central Methodist church, Calgary. The house was carefully decorated for the occasion, with carnations and other flowers. The bride who was unattended, looked charming in her travelling suit of blue broadcloth. After a dainty repast had been partaken of the happy couple left on the east bound train for a short wedding trip, afterwards they will return to their home in Saskatoon. The bride received many rich and beautiful gifts from Island friends in the West. Mr. and Mrs. McLeod have the best wishes of a host of friends for a long and happy journey through life.

The annual meeting of the Hillsboro Dairying Company was held in St. Herbert Hall, on Wednesday, the 26th. The secretary's report showed that, during the cheese season, from June 1st, until November 1st., the total quantity of milk supplied by 32 patrons was 587,445 lbs., from which 2,068 lbs. cheese were manufactured. Average price realized for cheese, 11.94¢ net value of B. fat, to patrons 25.95 cts. per lb., the following gentlemen, after receiving a hearty vote of thanks were unanimously re-elected. Directors for the ensuing year—Inspector Morrow, John McDonald, Frank Driscoll, David McDonald, Albert Ings, Seymour Wood and James W. Stewart.

REMNANTS

The sale begins
This morning 26th at 9 a. m.

YEAR AFTER YEAR wise women have watched for our great—annual remnant sale. It is always the one sort of bargain sale that is in a class by itself—never even the ghost of successful imitation offers comparison with it. It is the result of the strict and careful going over every shelf and drawer during stock-taking—every short end—every odd line no matter how intrinsically good—gets the hurry call. Tuesday's great sale bigger and greater than ever before.

Hundreds—thousands of remnants—

- Dress Goods
- Silks
- Ribbons
- Laces
- Print Cottons
- Ginghams
- White Cottons
- Flannelettes
- Embroideries
- Trimmings
- Sheetings
- Pillow cottons

and the thousand and one things that a well kept dry good store—where great selling is the constant rule—must accumulate.

We invite you to come—but from fifteen years of experience we counsel you to come at nine o'clock—Though there is enormous range of choice—the shopper who is here between nine and eleven has the best chance.

All the P. D. corsets are offered at 69c the pair

This is the last call on this line—which we are closing out on account of lack of room. You know the P. D. corset—we need not dilate on its excellence of fit and make—it is one of the best lines made in the world—probably best of all the French lines.

Our showing includes goods at $1.00, 1.35, 1.50 and 2.00 and we are placing the whole lot on our counters at..... 69c.

Half Price For Smart Corset Covers

These are cancelled lines, and you know that a store like this, carrying by far the most up to date stock in the city, simply cannot carry over odd lines from one season to another. The goods are well made—of good cottons—there is the same careful workmanship in each case as you would use yourself—and if we have your size there's a bargain waiting for you.

HALF PRICE.

Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock

Father Morrison's Remedies received Saturday. We ordered the complete stock A. W. Reddin, Phoenix B., Sunnyside. 1-2533.
