COUNTY COURT-At the session of the County Court on Monday before Judge Duffy, the case of Fred H. Trainor vs. Peter Conroy, absent or absconding debtor, was heard.
This was an action for $157.52 for the rent of a barn in which the defendant kept his horses. Under the attachment "Longest" was seized and when the case came up for hearing, Mrs. Viola Fall claimed ownership of the horse. Mr. James B. Johnstone appeared for the plaintiff and Mr.
Gordon Holmes for Mrs. Fall. After hearing the evidence the Judge indicated that the statute 41 Vic. C.7 (1878) prevented the claimant, Mrs.
Fall from maintaining her action as she never took possession of the horse. The case was accordingly proceeded with and judgment given for the plaintiff for the amount claimed, with costs. Mr. Holmes asked permission to file a brief on behalf of the claimant and this was allowed. On Tuesday, Nov. 4th the case of William A. Reddin vs. Albert Gallant-action for $100.00 for damage to plaintiff's automobile, arising out of a collision on Hillsboro Bridge on July 2nd, also the case of Florence B. Reddin vs. Albert Gallant-action for $200.00 for personal injuries sustained in the same accident, occupied the attention of the court. After hearing the evidence on both sides judgment was given for the plaintiff, Wm. A. Reddin for $47.15 and costs and for the plaintiff, Florence B.
Reddin for $100.00 and costs. Mr. J.
O. Claire Campbell appeared for the plaintiff and Mr. Sylvère DesRoches for the defendant.

-AINFUL ACCIDENT-A regrettable accident occurred at Glenwood on Monday the 3rd inst. when Denzil, the eleven year old son of Mr.
John W. Currie fell from the roof of a small out-building in the schoolyard. He struck the ground with considerable force and his elbow was put out of joint and the arm broken just above the elbow. The accident happened at noon and the plucky lad although suffering greatly walked the distance of approximately half a mile to his home. Dr.
Champion was summoned and immediately attended to the injured limb and at latest accounts the lad was resting as comfortable as could be expected. A curious coincidence is the fact that this boy's brother had his arm broken while playing at the same school slightly over a year ago.-O

Democrats

by Smith's son William. The shooting was said to have grown out of an altercation at the polls. Bingham was reported to have beaten Smith to the draw as both sought to shoot.
At Danville, Ky., Joseph Hayden, a Democratic candidate, shot and killed Ed. Doneghy, a negro. He was said to have fired in self defence.
Elias Dolson, 50, a farmer of PHELPS, Ky., was arrested and charged with murder after the death of Ward Hatfield, 35. It was said the two quarrelled over the removal of Hatfield as deputy constable. Dol-son had been instrumental in his removal.
At Elkhorn, Ky., Adam Cotter, a former deputy sheriff, was shot twice in an election row. One bullet pierced his ear and another creased his scalp.
WET CANDIDATES FAVORED
(By Ken Clark, C. P. Staff Correspondent)
NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 5.- Where the prohibition question held the spotlight in the Congressional elections yesterday wet sentiment predominated save for one notable exception. This was in Pennsylvania.
There Gifford Pinchot was conceded election to the governorship over John M. Hemphill, his wet Democratic opponent. Rhode Island in a referendum declared itself three to one against the eighteenth amendment.
Illinois and Massachusetts expressed themselves similarly though not so strongly. In the latter state William J. Butler, candidate of a dry administration for election to the Senate lost to a wet Democrat, Marcus A.
Coolidge. In Ohio, Robert M. Bulley, wet Democrat, took the Senatorial seat. Ohio is the birthplace and death place of Wayne B. Wheeler, once superintendent of the anti-prohibition

CAMPAIGN
CONTINUED
ZEALOUSLY

Only 5 Week-days Left Before Victory Supper.

Committee and team members in the $250,000 Prince Edward Island Hospital campaign continued their work yesterday with unabated zeal.

They have only five week days left before the Victory Supper, scheduled for 6 o'clock next Tuesday evening in the Social Hall of Trinity United Church, and they have resolved to reach their goal by that night.
Executive Chairman W. F. Tid-marsh and Commander Charles H.
Black, who spent Tuesday in Souris working with District Chairman Roy C. McLean, reported that they had strengthened the local unit there.
Other Charlottetown workers were active in the Provincial Districts elsewhere. District Chairmen visited campaign headquarters in 196 Richmond street and reported progress.
At the 4 p. m. meeting of the Executive Committee, Chairman H. Hooper Home, of the Allied Towns Committee, reported the following Provincial District returns for the day:

side the Province which those two chairmen have obtained by mail.
Cables announcing subscriptions have come from London, England, and Johannesburg, South Africa, and telegrams have been received from points as far distant as the Pacific Coast. The Memorial Committee expects eventually to receive a liberal gift from Buenos Aires, in the Argentine.
Mr. Edward Currie, of Fairview, Chairman of the Long Creek Division, which takes in Fairview, Rocky Point, Cumberland, Nine Mile Creek, Rice Point, Canoe Cove, Long Creek, St. Catharines, New Dominion and New Argyle, hopes the reports will be made under the heading of LONG CREEK and not reported under the individual names of the sections above named. Mr. Currie divided his Division of LONG CREEK into the TEN sections above-mentioned they are just subdivisions of LONG CREEK and should be reported

The matter was fully discussed. It was pointed out that the organization was of great benefit to returned men in other places, where it had been established. A motion was carried that a branch at Summerside and

Montreal Team To Play Caledonia
(Canadian Press)
MONTREAL, Que., Nov. 5.-The Hamilton-Ontario club have withdrawn their English rugby team from the MacTear cup competition this year, the cup committee was informed today. The Hamilton executive reported they would find it impossible for their team to make the long journey to Glace Bay, N.S., on Nov. 16th for the final even if they should succeed in defeating Montreal Amateur Athletic Association in the play-off game to have been played here Saturday. In view of the withdrawal of Hamilton, the Montreal team will now meet the Caledonians at Glace Bay on Saturday, Nov. 16.

ARMISTICE OBSERVANCE AT SUMMERSIDE-A meeting of returned men was held in the Armoury at Summerside on Tuesday evening. There was a very good turn out. Mr. G. W. Robinson presided.
The chief matter taken up was the program to be carried out on Armistice Day. A committee was formed to arrange for a parade and the placing of wreaths round the Monument in the public square. The co-operation of the clergy, business men and school teachers will be asked for. Poppy's will be obtained and sold on Armistice Day. Another important matter brought up was the desirability of forming a branch of the Canadian Legion at Summerside. A letter was read from Major McNutt of Charlottetown, Provincial President of the Legion, offering his

French Leave
Armistice Production
Successfully Staged At Prince Edward Theatre Last Evening by Local Talent.

"French Leave" the 1930 Armistice play of the Canadian Legion enjoyed its first successful presentation at the Prince Edward last evening before an appreciative if not large house, each of the eight in the cast was popularly fitted for his or her particular role, and all reflected much credit on the ability of local amateur actors to produce a successful play. The plot of the comedy centres around complications arising from a visit, unknown to military authorities of a lady to her husband who was on leave. When the general discovers this breach of military law things threaten to happen, but finally the husband is detailed to escort his wife back to Paris.
The part of the lady, Mlle. Juliette, so called, was acted by Miss Iphigene Arsenault, as few other amateur actresses could. Her charm of manner, and natural bearing while on the stage won the favor of the audience as on all former occasions.
The second principal Capt. Harry Dickson was played by Mr. A. Stuart Dickson in a most effective and forceful manner. Mr. Dickson had a very difficult role, and had a part in almost every scene.
As Brigadier-General Archibald
Root, C. B., D. S. O., Mr. Menton Whitlock held the audience from start to finish, his erratic flights contrasting strangely with the respect which he commanded.
Mr. A. J. Orford in the comic role of Corporal Sykes, the Brigade Mens Corporal, acted his part with superb confidence, and created many laughs.
Partnered with him was Mr. Allan Mosher, a newcomer to the local stage, who played most effectively the comedy part of Rifleman Jenks, a mess waiter.
Mr. Sheldon Mathieson had a hard character to portray in Lieut. George Graham, but he filled his difficult role admirably.
Mr. Jules Marnier, brigade interpreter, as represented by Mr. Wm.
Chiverie, took his part with perfect action and accent.
Miss Madeline Gallant, as Madame Denaux, lady of the brigade billet, was perfect in her role as hostess. In impersonating a highly excitable character she proved herself most competent in her rather difficult role.
To Mr. A. Stuart Dickson director of the production must go much of the credit for the success of the play.
The Canadian Legion Orchestra, directed by Miss Kathleen Hornby, rendered a number of pleasing selections between acts.
The play will be repeated at the Prince Edward tonight when a large audience is expected.

year, the cup committee was inform-
Nov. 16th for the final even if they
here Saturday. In view of the with-
at Glace Bay on Saturday, Nov. 16.

SUMMERSIDE-A meeting of returned men was held in the Arm-
oury at Summerside on Tuesday evening. There was a very good turn
out. Mr. G. W. Robinson presided.
program to be carried out on Arm-
placing of wreaths round the Mon-
men and school teachers will be

fore Judge Duffy, the case of Fred
H. Trainor vs. Peter Conroy, absent
or absconding debtor, was heard.
the rent of a barn in which the de-
when the case came up for hearing,
Mrs. Viola Fall claimed ownership of
the horse. Mr. James B. Johnstone
appeared for the plaintiff and Mr.
Gordon Holmes for Mrs. Fall. After
hearing the evidence the Judge in-
(1878) prevented the claimant, Mrs.
Fall from maintaining her action as
she never took possession of the
horse. The case was accordingly pro-
of the claimant and this was allow-
ed. On Tuesday, Nov. 4th the case
of William A. Reddin vs. Albert Gal-
of a collision on Hillsboro Bridge on July 2nd, also the case of Florence
B. Reddin vs. Albert Gallant-action
judgment was given for the plaintiff,
Wm. A. Reddin for $47.15 and costs
and for the plaintiff, Florence B.
Reddin for $100.00 and costs. Mr. J.
O. Claire Campbell appeared for the
for the defendant.
