PERJURY IN PROHIBITION CASES.

That there has been in years past a good deal of perjury in Scott Act cases is a matter upon which temperance men and their opponents are alike agreed. It is a stock argument against prohibitory laws in general that they lead to perjury. But when the law is in operation and a witness goes on the stand and swears that the beer he drank was non-intoxicating, the illegal seller never makes the charge that he has perjured himself. Such perjury has become so common that the time has come for dealing with it rigorously, and THE GUARDIAN is informed that energetic action will be taken on the part of the Government to set the law in operation and enforce the penalties for perjury.

It is idle to say that prohibition is the cause of perjuries so committed. The moving cause is the wickedness of men corrupted by an appetite for liquor, and fearing to be denied their supply of intoxicants if they give testimony that will convict the illegal vendor. Such persons, whose appetites are never satisfied with beverage that is not alcoholic, go into court and call God to witness to a lie. They have become bold in their wickedness because the law against perjury has not been enforced. A terrible awakening may be near at hand, and public duty demands that the penalties shall be enforced.

Perjury is defined as "an assertion as a matter of fact, opinion or belief, or knowledge, made by a witness in a judicial proceeding as part of his evidence upon oath or affirmation, whether such evidence is given in open court, or by affidavit or otherwise, or whether such evidence is material or not, such assertion being known to such witness to be false, and being intended by him to mislead the Court, jury or person holding the proceeding." Section 146 of the Criminal Code provides as follows:

Every one is guilty of an indictable offence and liable to fourteen years imprisonment who commits perjury or subornination of perjury.

Subornation of perjury is the act of procuring, or persuading, or bribing another to commit perjury. This crime also, there is too much reason to believe, is not uncommon in connection with liquor trials. The law makes perjury and subornation of perjury punishable with equal penalties. Both are penitentiary offences. A long term at Dorchester awaits the first man and all others who may be convicted of this wicked and awful crime. Let us trust that no one will hereafter be found guilty of such an act. At least all who read this warning will have their eyes open to what is likely to happen.

REGRET EXPRESSED.

Alderman Dave, at Wednesday's session of the Common Council of Cork, apologized for the reference he made to the late President McKinley last Friday, when he opposed a resolution of sympathy proposed by Sir John Scott, declaring that Mr. McKinley was no friend of Ireland, but a friend of Great Britain. He expressed deep regret at having taken this attitude. The Common Council then adopted a resolution expressing abhorrence of the crime and sympathy with Mrs. McKinley and the American people.

INEXCUSABLY VULGAR.

English critics are declaring that Hall Caine's new book, "The Holy City," is inexcusably vulgar. One of the lines they refuse to forgive states that a character in the story "swallowed his saliva."

Wash day is easy and clothes get white if you use

When the story of Chinese atrocities filled the papers and shocked the world, it was the women who drew the pity and sympathy of all. Doubtless many a wife who heard her husband's words of sympathy for these women thought with a pang, of the blindness of men to the suffering under their very eyes. It is true. The suffering of women in China was severe but short. Many a wife suffers for years with a daily agony of pain, her nerves shattered, her strength almost gone, and never hears a word of sympathy.

To women such as these Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription brings the opportunity of a new life of health and happiness. It establishes regularity, dries the drains which weaken women, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

"I had falling of internal organs and had to go to bed every month; had frequent periods which would sometimes last ten or twelve days," writes Mrs. Alice L. Holmes, of [illegible], Uniontown, Pa. "Had also indigestion so bad that I could hardly eat anything. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery' cured me. I took three bottles of the 'Favorite Prescription' and one of the 'Golden Medical Discovery.'"

Sick people are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A HOME CURE.

Consumptives Need not Leave Their Own Homes to be Cured.

The Slocum System

Of Treatment is Offered you Absolutely Free.

A consideration not to be overlooked in the treatment of consumptives is the expense in quest of health. Some of our medical men are now advising their patients to go long distances in the hope that change of air will do them good. A lot of solemn nonsense is being said, and written, about change of climate, and its influence on the patient. "Stick to low altitudes", says one. "Go the mountains", says another. How is a poor perplexed sufferer with sore lungs, to decide among these different authorities? The fact is people die of consumption in all climates. They recover from it too, in all climates if they are treated properly. The only positive cure for the disease is to kill the germs that produce it. This is accomplished under the Slocum system of treatment. The disease must have nothing to feed on. That is the principle underlying the Slocum system. You can try it at your home.

POSITIVELY FREE.

You or your sick friends can have a FREE course of Treatment. Simply write to THE T. A. SLOCUM CHEMICAL Co., Limited, 179 King St. West, Toronto, giving post office and express office address, and the free medicine (The Slocum Cure) will be promptly sent.
