Daniel Bull, of Abney, Lot 64, was in market last Friday with some select hogs. One tipped the scales at 564 lbs.

A very largely attended and highly enthusiastic meeting in the interests of the Independent Order of Foresters under the auspices of Cou't Albino, Eldon, was held in the Eldon hall last evening. The meeting was addressed by Rev. E. J. Rattee, Malpeque, S. F. Hodgson, and J. F. Wear, City, each of these gentlemen delivering a strong address on the Foresteric Fraternity, its aims and objects and the great means it has been for good in the community.

The American consul at Charlottetown has, during the last eighteen months, secured a number of ethnological specimens and other objects pertaining to the Micmac Indians of Prince Edward Island and sent them to The Smithsonian Institution at Washington. One of the most interesting of these objects now at Washington is a prayer book in the Micmac sign of character language. Many of the signs in which this book is printed were in use by the Micmacs when French missionaries first undertook the conversion of this tribe.

The sympathy of the public in general goes out to Aubrey Brown of the P. O. Department, on the death of his wife (nee Margaret J. McFadyen), whose gentle spirit was called away on Friday morning, Feb. 3rd, after an illness of only a few hours. Mrs. Brown was the only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. McFadyen, a well known and successful teacher, having taught for the past five years in Spring Park School and the love and respect of the children were shown by the beautiful floral tributes which they sent through their teacher.

Where tired feet, with sandals loosed may rest, when we shall clearly see and understand I think that we shall say, "God knew the best."

Teething time is always a time of anxiety to mothers. At this time baby becomes cross, restless and nervous. His gums pain him, he is troubled with constipation or diarrhoea, spasms, colic or convulsions. His little life is in danger unless a medicine is given him to keep his stomach sweet and pure and his bowels regular. Such a medicine is Baby's Own Tablets. Nothing can equal them during the teething period. They have lessened the worries of thousands of mothers among them is Mrs. W. A. Yeardon, Halifax, N.S., who writes: "I have used no other medicine for baby but Baby's Own Tablets and I would not be without them. Last summer baby was greatly troubled with his teeth until I gave him the Tablets. They helped him and now he is a big healthy child."

Thomas Bulpitt, formerly of Roseneath's most respected and progressive farmers, last summer retired, having built for himself at Mrs. Bulpitt a cosy little cottage in Montague Village, on Monday last he was stricken with paralysis and he fell breaking his hip bone. Paralysis set in and now there is no hope for his recovery. His family are Edward and Roy on the old homestead and farm adjoining, Mrs. R. H. Campbell of Charlottetown, Mrs. Moore, Union Road, and Mrs. Crawford, St. Peter's Road. M

WOULD V. RY OFTEN FAINT AWAY.

Doctor Said That Sometime He Would Never Come Out of One.

Many people may be unaware of having anything wrong with their heart till some little excitement, overwork, or confinement in an overheated or overcrowded room or public building makes them feel very dizzy.

If you neglect the warning the slight feeling of dizziness gives you, and if you take to treatment, there will be a gradual progression to something more serious.

There is no reason you should wait till your case becomes desperate before you avail yourself of a perfect cure by using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mr. F. S. Chute, Wheatley, Ont. writes: "It is with gratitude I tell you my Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills benefited me. I was very weak and run down, and had headache, nearly every day and I would often faint away. In fact, my doctor said that sometime I would never come out of one of them. After taking three boxes of your pills I am glad to relate that it has been a number of years since I have had a fainting spell and scarcely have had a headache. Too much cannot be said in praise of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills for in me they have effected a perfect cure."

There passed away at the home of her nephew John Andrew Hogg, Kelvin, Miss Jane Hogg, aged 82 years. Her death came as the result of a fall. Just three weeks previous she fell on the veranda, bringing her hip and shattering her outside bone. The shock being so heavy that she gradually sank, till on the 31st January, death ended her sufferings and she passed peacefully away to be Forever with the Lord. Her funeral took place on Feb. 2nd and was largely attended. Rev. E. J. Rattee officiated at the house and grave. Interment took place at Kensington Cemetery. The pall bearers were: Dougald Stewart, William Casely, Edward McCarvill, John R. Glover, Melbourne Leard, George Easter. (Pioneer please copy.)

The death took place at Kensington, Ont. on Jan. 30th 1911 of Miss Clara Webster, a short illness of pneumonia. Miss Webster was one of the old residents of the place, being the last of the family of three sisters who had resided in the old homestead. She leaves to mourn their loss, three sisters and one brother, Mrs. Joseph Rogers, Kensington, Mrs. Marchbanks, New Annapolis, W. Downes, Summerside, and Joseph Webster of Kensington, besides a large number of nephews and nieces. She was in her 77th year, and was much respected. Her funeral took place from her home on Wednesday, February 1st. Rev. W. E. Johnson officiated. Interment took place at Mt. Pleasant. The pall bearers were her six nephews—C. P. Bowness, H. Bowness, W. Bowness, Harry Webster, Frank Webster and James Marchbank.

In the election of Wednesday the Liberal candidate, Mr. McPhee, was at Catherine's poll all day and returned to the city about 6 o'clock. He was greeted warmly and congratulated heartily by his friends on winning his first political battle. A large number of the electors of St. Catherine's, New Haven, Nine Mile Creek and other sections of the West River district, assembled at the Marlborough Hotel where a celebration was held in honor of their victorious candidate. Supper was served in excellent style by Mrs. Sellers, to about eighty persons. Speech making then followed, addresses being given by D. T. Fraser, J. G. McFadyen, John McManus, James McPhee, Murdoch McKinnon and the memory elect. Mr. McPhee, with bagpipe and organ selections, songs, and other forms of entertainment the evening was most enjoyable spent.

A few weeks ago Mrs. Norman McCleod, Dundas, reviewed the sad news of the death of her son John A. who died of typhoid fever and pneumonia in the hospital in Edmonton, Alberta, on the 13th of December, 1910, in the 29th year of his age. He was a fine young man, standing six feet six inches and built in proportion. He went out west nine years ago, and had fairly good success. He was home the year before last and himself and his brothers bought Geo. Howlett's farm on Bay Hill, Dundas, and the whole family moved over from Caledonia and settled on it. He leaves to mourn their loss a widowed mother, three brothers and four sisters and a large number of relatives around Dundas, Caledonia and Wood Islands. The youngest brother, Isaac, was with him in Alberta, he too, had typhoid fever and recovered. Malcolm in New Hampshire, Annie and Catherine (Mrs. Meaker) in Cambridge, Jane in Brookline, Murdoch and Christy at home on the farm. Malcolm, Annie and Jane came home to comfort their mother when John died but are going away again in the spring. The whole community sympathized with them in their sore bereavement.

The young people of Vernon River Methodist Church, have been very much to the front of late and their most recent effort, the holding of a concert, pie and candy social in aid of the Parsonage fund came off in most excellent style in Vernon River Bridge Hall, Friday evening February 3rd. A crowded house, a representative and appreciative audience and a first class program rendered in a first class style. The pastor Rev. George Orman presided. The Choir rendered several choruses to the satisfaction of the hearers. Miss Evelyn Ross gave a reading which was well delivered and much appreciated. Miss Margaret Furness whose accompaniment was Mrs. A. L. Innes of Orwell, rendered two solos in her accustomed accomplished and graceful manner.

Several gramophone selections by Warren Hayden were much enjoyed by all. Miss Lizzie Lea in recitation and dialogue was in splendid form in the dialogue she was associated with the brothers Matthew and Frank, the former very satisfactorily personated a Photographer and the latter made a very fetching and attractive lady. Sydney Neilson, Montague, gave much pleasure by his singing. Milton Furness rendered his contributions in a way and manner most excellent. It is manifestly impossible to mention all who took part which is to be regretted, as all did so well. Miss L. VanDerstine was largely responsible for the initiation of the project and the training of those who took part. Miss Marguerite VanDerstine is an efficient accompanist and in other respects well sustained her part. John A. McDonald, with his accustomed willing kindness was the genial and witty auctioneer of the pies which realized good prices. The financial result was very satisfactory and the Church officials and pastor are grateful to all who contributed in any way to that end.

A large number of spectators gathered on Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 8th, to witness the races on Johnson's River ice. The ice was in first class condition, and all present enjoyed a good afternoon's sport.

It is some time since the community of Indian River has experienced so sad a shock, as the one occasioned by the sudden demise of an esteemed resident, Mrs. Jas A. Driscoll. Death came as the sequel to a brief attack of pneumonia, which having attained its advanced stage, baffled the untiring efforts of the medical attendant, Mrs. Driscoll was favorably known as a person of a kind and generous disposition, her many meritorious deeds, not being limited to her immediate surroundings, the community in general being the favored recipient of her charity. So that the sorrowing relatives are not alone in their bereavement. There is, however, much consolation in the fact that the lamented one, while suffering her affliction, was ever happy and consoled, being comforted and fortified by human and spiritual administrations. There is nothing in life more solemn than death, its invisible presence inspires the human sense with a sympathetic sensation. But as all admit, that this life, were it the only hope, would be a cruel mockery for even the most fortunate. Then one must not permit this profound sadness to so completely occupy them as to obliterate the more consoling view of the case. Why should one not find some joy in the fact that their friend having been permitted a lease of time in which to serve the Master, has gone, prepared to realize her one fond hope.—Com.

Special to The Guardian. WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Unless the vote is taken by the Senate on the Reciprocity treaty before March 4th Taft will call an extra session of Congress to consider the matter and bring about decisive action is necessary to obtain a vote in the Senate and this will enable the insurgents to be insistent on plenty of debate. With all the appropriation bills demanding action, it is improbable that there will be any action on reciprocity at this session.

Caught a Heavy Cold. It Left Him with a Hacking Cough.

Mr. J. H. Richards, 1852 Second Ave. East, Vancouver, B.C., writes: "Allow me to write a few lines in praise of your Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Last fall I contracted a heavy cold which left me with a hacking cough, and every time I would get a little more cold this hacking cough would become a lung splitting one. It kept on getting worse and I kept on spending money buying different cough remedies until a friend asked me if I had ever tried Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I told him I was willing to try anything I thought would cure, and on the same day bought two bottles. Before half the first one was used my cough began to get much easier, and by the time I had used a bottle and a half my cough was gone. I am keeping the other half bottle in case it should come again but I am quite sure I have a positive cure. Let me recommend Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup to all who suffer from a cough or throat irritation of any kind." Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 25 cents. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Only two days ago the fishermen declined the assistance offered them by two vessels, declaring they were in no danger and refusing to be taken off.

After they left the basement, smoke was seen emerging from the smoking room. The department was notified by the fire alarm bell in the theatre without noticing anything wrong.

At the hearing the youths admitted that while they were in the smoking room one of them threw down a cigarette which ignited a towel.

They said they threw the towel in to a pail of water and left the theatre.

EAST JAFFREY, N. H., Feb. 4.—One passenger was killed, another passenger was seriously injured and two railroad employes slightly hurt today when two cars of a Boston & Maine train left the rails and rolled down a bank at a sharp turn, known as Crow's Curve, three-quarters of a mile south of this town.

The train was running from Winchendon for Concord over the Peterboro branch of the Fitchburg division of the Boston & Maine railroad. There were only three passengers on the train and one of them, Morris Wheeler, escaped with nothing more serious than a shaken-up.

When the train took Crow's curve, the combination coach and a day coach left the rails and overturned on the side of the embankment. The locomotive did not leave the track.

BOSTON, Feb. 6.—All day Friday Miss Margaret McDonald, of 12 Breemen Street, East Boston, searched this city and Cambridge for Helen McDonald, her missing sister, fifteen years old.

It has been nine days since Helen has been seen by any of her family and friends.

The girl has been lured away by some man in the belief of her sister Margaret, and her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth McDonald, who are nearly wild with grief over the mysterious disappearance of the girl.

The greatest interest has been aroused in East Boston over the case. For Mrs. McDonald, the mother of the child, is a working woman, earning her living by going out to work.

Helen McDonald is described as a large girl, more than usually well developed for her age, possessing a wealth of golden brown hair and has brown eyes. When she was last seen at home she wore a blue dress brown coat and a black felt hat, trimmed with blue.

TORONTO, Feb. 4.—A large block of spurious stock in the Little Nipissing Silver Cobalt Co., Ltd., has been placed on the market and the former secretary treasurer, Reginald W. Eyre, is missing. This is the situation which is confronting the new directors of the company. The auditors are still working on the books but 200,000 shares of bad stock art known to be in circulation.

Wm. S. Milne, the new secretary-treasurer of the company, said: "We discovered the facts at noon on Tuesday, and the books were closed at 1 o'clock. We are not prepared to say as to how much of the bad stock has been put out. There should be a quarter of a million of stock in the treasury, but that amount is not there."

A well known New York brokerage firm and the names of a Toronto broker are connected by a street rumor with the distribution of the stock. It is stated that Eyre took a block to New York, and, raising a large sum on it, came back to Toronto and proceeded to corner the Little Nipissing market, by buying up the floating blocks. Unfortunately for his scheme the stock disposed of in New York followed him back to Toronto, and the story goes that he purchased a large amount of his own creation before he was aware of the situation. It is stated that more than one Toronto bank has a bunch of the stock tucked away as security on loans.

BERLIN, Feb. 3.—Mrs. Paula Woerner, a leading German advocate of woman's rights, has written an article for the Magazine Die Deutsche in which she advocates compulsory domestic service for the girls of young women of this country. She says that the introduction of compulsory military service in this country met with the same protest which is likely to be voiced against her plan, but that German citizens now appreciate the blessings of the former.

As if to win the men of Germany to her way of thinking the writer tells them that they have everything to gain by such a system, because the State under her plan would furnish them with trained housewives. She also argues that her plan would forestall any possible outcry against the limitation of personal liberty on the part of prospective husbands. She adds that the introduction of compulsory military service in this country met with the same protest which is likely to be voiced against her plan, but the German citizens now appreciate the blessings of the former.

She asks if German women would not in time thank the Government for bestowing a similar boon upon them.
