

OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY
Leut. Herbert Murray is spending his leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Murray.

CONGRATULATIONS.—Leading Seaman Everett Jay and Mrs. Jay (nee Mary Power, Kensington) are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son in the Prince County Hospital on Nov. 28th.

Miss Betty MacLeod, daughter of Mr. Robert MacLeod and the late Mrs. MacLeod of Breadalbane, who left for Montreal last April, has joined the Canadian Women's Army Corps in that City.

ARRIVES HOME.—Mr. and Mrs. Morley returned from Montreal where Mrs. Bell underwent an operation. It is pleasing to report that the operation was successful and that she is making a good recovery.

The death of Maud H. MacKinnon occurred after an illness of six months in Cambridge, Mass. Miss MacKinnon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. MacKinnon, was born at Heathcliffe, P.E.I. 48 years ago, but for some time past has resided in Mass.

PRIZE HERD SOLD.—Island livestock breeders will be interested in news received over the week-end by Mr. Walter Jones, M.L.A., to the effect that the secretary of the Holstein Association of Canada, Mr. George M. MacLeod, has sold out his entire herd at an average price of $630. The herd bull brought $14,100.

PAINFULLY INJURED.—Mr. Erwin Dennis, son of Mr. William Dennis, Port Hill, is recovering from a fracture of the right arm as the result of an unfortunate accident which occurred Saturday. The fingers of one hand became entangled in the gears of an automatic pump he was adjusting. At the Hospital it was found that the fingers were so badly lacerated it was necessary to amputate part of them.

WINS DRAMA AWARD.—Mr. Norman Macdonald, Principal of Kensington school, is receiving congratulations on being awarded the Canadian Drama Award (C.D.A.) for his contribution to Canadian Drama. Mr. Macdonald has written and directed a number of plays. His most recent play, "The Boy Who Knew," has been recognized by the winning of this much coveted award.

A shadow of gloom was cast over Charlottetown and vicinity on Wednesday, November 18th, when it became known that the Angel of Death had visited their midst and claimed for its victim one of the most respected and prominent citizens in the town, Mr. George McDearmaid at the age of 84 years. Although the deceased had been in failing health for the past seven weeks his condition was not considered serious until a few hours before his death.

SERIOUSLY ILL.—The many friends of Prof. Louis D. Thompson will regret to learn of the serious illness of the professor. Prof. Thompson is very well known in this city and province. He was formerly organist at Zion Presbyterian Church here. Now he is stationed at Cornwall, Ontario. It was learned that Prof. Thompson's condition is serious and his many friends hope for his complete and rapid recovery.

Fire early last night destroyed the farm dwelling of Miss Rachael Grant at Tyne Valley. Only a few articles were saved. A few articles were estimated unofficially at between $2,000 and $3,000.

Neighbors gathered quickly and saved nearly everything. Many left their homes to help.

Origin of the fire was unknown. It began while Miss Grant's older sister, whose car is in the garage, was alone in the house.

It could not be learned whether there was insurance.

A large number of friends and neighbors met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Penny, Eldon, to bid farewell to Miss Rachael Grant on her leaving to join her unit at Aldershot after the guests assembled the meeting was called to order by Mr. Earl Vandenberg.

Mr. Herbert Worth read a very appropriate address, a presentation of a well filled purse was made to Miss Grant by Mr. John Macdonald. Mack thanked everyone for their kindness, and speeches were made by several persons who expressed their regret at her leaving, and wished him a safe return. Lunch was served by the ladies and the remainder of the evening was spent in music and singing.

PERSONNEL OFFICER TRANSFERRED.—Lieut. J. B. Dunphy, Personnel Selection Officer stationed at Beach Grove Training Centre, accompanied by Mrs. Dunphy and young son, is being transferred to Halifax, N.S., where he will continue in the same branch of the service at No. 6 District Depot. At the gathering of the officers on the staff of No. 62 C.A. (B.T.C.) on Friday evening last, Lt. Col. Andrew M.M. expressed the general regret felt by Mr. Dunphy's leaving and conveyed the wishes of all present for his future success. An energetic, efficient and painstaking worker, Mr. Dunphy was a congenial and interesting personality. Mr. Dunphy will be greatly missed at the local training centre.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.—A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Crocker, Emerald, Nov. 24th, when about one-hundred guests assembled to bid farewell to their son, Mr. Wm. MacLeod, who was leaving for Moncton to take a course at Aero Engine Mechanic. A nicely worded address was read by Rev. J. H. Smith, pastor of the church, who expressed his hope that this struggle would soon be over and that the young man would be back with his old acquaintances once again. Mr. Claude Clow made a presentation as a token of the esteem in which he is held by his friends and neighbors. Plus responded in a most gracious manner, thanking one and all for their generosity and good wishes. After lunch was served the evening was spent in music and dancing and closed with the National Anthem.

Mr. A. Gordon Banks arrived in the city Friday night to spend the week-end but was called home Saturday due to the sudden illness of his mother, Mrs. W. A. Banks, of Annapolis Royal. He left on return Saturday afternoon accompanied by Mrs. Banks who has been spending the week-end with her visiting her sister, Mrs. A.R. Gillis.

ACORN - MACMILLAN - On Wednesday, Nov. 25th, St. Columba Church, East Point, was the scene of a pretty wedding when Lucy MacAcorn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Acorn of the Road, became the wife of William MacMillan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel MacMillan of East Point. Rev. George Macdonald, of St. Margaret's, celebrated the nuptial Mass and performed the marriage ceremony. The bride dressed in blue with white accessories, was attended by Miss Ella Beaton, who was also dressed in blue with matching accessories. The groom was supported by Ronald Macdonald. Immediately following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Acorn. The bride and groom were accompanied by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Acorn, and the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel MacMillan. The total enrollment of students is practically the same as last year with more of the students enrolled in their second and third year work.

BROKEN ANKLE.—The many friends of Corporal Frank Brown, clerk at the Armouries Recruiting Office will regret to learn that he broke his ankle while on his way to work yesterday morning. He is a patient at the Charlottetown Hospital and is resting comfortably.

TAKES BASIC TRAINING.—An aviation cadet, Edward F. Pratt, 24, of Quinny, Mass., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Pratt, Quinny, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Macleod of Springton, P.E.I., has completed his primary flight training and has reported to Goodwood Field, for nine weeks of basic instruction. Upon completion of this course he will move on to an advanced school to win coveted wings.

DOING HIS PART.—Mr. Robert E. Byrne, former postmaster at Bedford Station, is now living in Charlottetown. Mr. Byrne has been promoted to the important position of manager of a busy station, and under his direction the station will be steadily increasing. Mr. Byrne enlisted for Army Service last April but was rejected. Nothing daunted Mr. Byrne since war was declared in Sept. 1939, Lieut. M. C. McCarthy, Captain of H.M.O.S. Queen Charlotte station yesterday. In addition, six naval officers have left the Province for active service elsewhere.

Besides the Island boys, about one hundred and seventy-five ratings from other Provinces, primarily Ontario, have received training courses at H.M.O.S. Queen Charlotte since it was commissioned in January, 1942.

Capt. McCarthy hopes that the living quarters aboard the training ship will be fully equipped and ready for use before Christmas. Some articles required on certain equipment necessary to convert the barracks into comfortable living quarters for sleeping and eating have been ordered. In answer to a question by Crown Attorney he described layout of Greyhound Cafe.
