Entered into rest at Casumpec, Lot 6, on Dec 8th, after an illness of nearly three years, borne with Christian fortitude and submission to the Divine Will, Sarah Williams, dearly beloved wife of J. J. Raymond in the 72nd year of her age. She was a woman of more than ordinary physique up to the time of her illness, in which she gradually weakened until the end came, passing peacefully away. She leaves her husband and one son, Robert H., at home, and five daughters, Mrs W. H. Smith, Casumpec; Mrs Dan McLean, Type Valley; Mrs R. G. Smith, Kingston; Mrs P. P. Newman, New Haven, and Mrs S. Phillips, O'Leary. The remains were interred in Casumpec where she spent the last forty years of her life. She will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends and relatives to whom she endeared herself by her amiable disposition and kindness of heart and willingness to help those in need. Yet amid the better grief all can rejoice to know she died trusting in the merits of a crucified Saviour.
