The job of dropping bombs with deadly accuracy from dizzy heights is a highly specialized one requiring months of training. To-day in R.C.A.F. schools of the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan spotted throughout Canada thousands of keen-eyed young men are learning to do this job and do it well. These photographs were taken at the Bombing and Gunnery School in Jarvis, Ontario. The top picture shows a Fairey Battle bomber cruising over Lake Erie where tiny buoy targets await the eagle eye of the bombardier below, who is ready at the bomb sight in the belly of the plane with his thumb on the bomb release.

HE'S IN CLOVER—Most of us have searched diligently on occasion for a four leaf clover, and on as many occasions given up with the conviction that it would indeed be a lucky person that discovered one of these tokens of the favour of her ladyship. What then would you think if someone were to say he could find hundreds of fours and lots of fives? Yes, we thought and what's more we told him. So he presented us in addition a number of the more common varieties mentioned above, with two clovers one having seven leaves and the other nine. The gentleman is Mr. Lorne Jenkins, Southport, R. R. 1 and the spot where he found them is "somewhere on his farm". We believe he may consider himself the luckiest person in P. E. I. if not in the world, although he himself did not seem to be particularly impressed. In fact his only comment was "the seven and nine are kind of unusual."

CUSACK—CURLEY NUPTIALS

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Teresa's church, Ottawa, on September 20th, when Teresa Anastasia Cusack, formerly of St. Ann's Lot 65, P. E. I., was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Clarence Curley formerly of Kelly's Cross, P. E. I. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Monsignor Fay. The bride who looked very charming in a blue wool dress, with black accessories, and carrying a bouquet of gladioli and maiden hair-fern entered the church on the arm of her brother, Leo, who gave her in marriage. The bride was attended by her sister Anne, who wore a rose wool dress with black accessories and carried a bouquet similar to the brides; while the groom was ably supported by his brother, O'Leary. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the apartment of the bride on Osgoode St., where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served to the immediate friends and relatives. After the breakfast the bridal party left for a honeymoon trip to Montreal. When they return they will reside in Ottawa where the groom is a valued member at the Lord Elgin Hotel. Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower by her Island girl friends, at which she received many useful and valuable gifts. The Guardian joins in wishing the bride and groom many years of happy wedded bliss. (Patriot Please Copy).

PRETTY AUTUMN WEDDING.

Saturday morning at 8 o'clock the Cathedral of Mary Immaculate with its arrangements of pretty Fall blooms on the altar was the scene of a lovely Autumn wedding when Most Rev. Martin M. Johnson, Bishop of Nelson, B. C., united in marriage Mary Margaret, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Lanigan of Wilkie, Sask., and Albert Joseph, second son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Lindsay of Nelson. The bride entered the Church on the arm of Mr. P. H. Long, to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Shirley Herron. The bride looked charming in a two-piece afternoon frock of Queen's blue modelled on the new torso lines. She wore a race picture hat, rose accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds. The bridesmaid Miss Ignatia Lanigan of Wilkie, Sask., sister of the bride, chose a frock of rose crepe with white accessories and a corsage of rosebuds. Louis Gagnon supported the groom. During the signing of the register, Michael Prestley sang "Ave Maria." A breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Long, with whom the bride has resided for several years. The room was beautifully decorated with Fall blooms. Mrs. Long received the guests in a dress of mauve silk. Mrs. Lindsay, mother of the groom, assisting her in a dress of green printed silk. Both wore corsages of rosebuds. The bride's table was centered by a three tiered wedding cake. Serviteurs were Misses Marie
