"A MAN OF HEART"

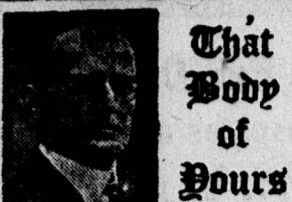

Probably one of the best and most widely known Prince Edward Islanders has been removed by the death yesterday of Mr. L. E. Prowse. From North Cape to East Point Mr. Prowse's name has been a household word for almost half a century.

MYSTERIOUS MOSUL

By a decision of the League of Nations Council, as stated in our recent despatches, the disputed territory of Mosul is awarded to Iraq. Mesopotamia which had been mandated to Great Britain by the Peace Treaty of Sevres in 1920.

Notes By The Way

The United Kingdom was the biggest buyer of Canadian wheat during the month of November and took 24,095,814 bushels during the month.

Notwithstanding these stories which evidently have no foundation in fact, there appears to be little enthusiasm in England over the decision of the League of Nations Council.

Agitation has so far brought some expressions of sympathy from Boards of Trade newspapers and individuals, but there is not the slightest intimation that it has moved the Government of the day.

And this from a Special correspondent of the Westminster Gazette. "The position in Iraq is quite simple. Its present revenue is roughly £4,000,000 a year.

"The resulting yearly deficit of £4,000,000 is to be met by the British taxpayer until King Feisal's Government can squeeze a revenue of £3,000,000 out of a country which 14 years ago could only produce £1,500,000.

EDITORIAL NOTES. What is the use of wishing a Merry Christmas if you can't wish the means to make it merry?

Even four years of the King government didn't make a dent on the prosperous face of Prince Edward Island.

The markets are very busy and well stocked these days. It would appear from present indications that there is plenty money and plenty to eat in the country.

The automobile business in Canada is growing by leaps and bounds, thanks to the protective tariff. In 1917 the wages paid in auto factories amounted to $5,239,000.

The Maritime ocean ports are nearer to the Mother Country than are the most eastern ports of the States, but between two-thirds and three quarters of Canadian wheat shipments are made through the foreign ports.

The Toronto Globe devotes a short editorial to the subject under the heading, "Maritimes Must Agitate."

Agitation has so far brought some expressions of sympathy from Boards of Trade newspapers and individuals, but there is not the slightest intimation that it has moved the Government of the day.

When skies have lost their roseate glow And stars their gold, When all the garden flowers that blow, And all the joys I used to know, Seem dead and cold.

DECEMBER 18.—You have a strong, powerful will, and you are liable to brush aside opposition without regard to the feelings of others.

WINNIPEG, Man., Dec. 17.—There is at all times a market in Great Britain for all the food-stuffs Canada can produce, providing they are of good grade.

Great Britain Wants Canadian Foodstuffs. (Canadian Press)

WINNIPEG, Man., Dec. 17.—There is at all times a market in Great Britain for all the food-stuffs Canada can produce, providing they are of good grade.

The visitor made an earnest plea for greater employment in the trade. "I believe," he said, "if such a policy were thoroughly pursued, it would solve the immigration problems of the dominions. With the exception of cotton the Empire could become self-supporting."
