For five years I had been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and tried different doctors and proprietary medicines, but could get no relief. One day a friend told me to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I did not have much faith in it, but I thought I would give it a trial. To-day I am completely cured, and I will always recommend it.

Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for about thirty-five years and is manufactured only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

WANDERERS WIN AND SAVE THE CUP. NEW YORK, March 2—By a score of 4-1 the Wanderers' Skating Club's hockey team last night wrestled the Amateur Hockey Championship of this city from the Crescents of Brooklyn, N.Y., who carried off the honors twice previously and would have obtained permanent possession of the Stanley Cup had they won last night.

WAS A GREAT SUFFERER FOR FIVE YEARS FROM DYSPEPSIA. Dyspepsia is one of the most prevalent troubles of civilized life, and thousands of people suffer untold agony after every meal, for nearly everything that enters a weak dyspeptic stomach acts as an irritant.

The long train of distressing symptoms, which render life a burden to the victim of dyspepsia, may be promptly cured by the use of Burdock Blood Bitters. Mrs. Wm. J. Boyne, Lepreau, N.B., writes: "I thought I would write and tell you of the good Burdock Blood Bitters has done me and also tell you how thankful I am."

BANKER GIVES ALL TO HOLY JUMPERS.

WAUKESHA, Wis., March 1—Duke M. Farson, banker and dealer in bonds, of 233 South La Salle street, Chicago, has given up everything he has in the world to the Holiness Association, better known as the Holy Jumpers, a religious cult of which he is president.

His lands, his house, his business, his jewelry and personal belongings of value have all been cast into the treasury of the cult. Taking up scrip and staff the erstwhile rich man is even now "an humble pilgrim in the sight of the Lord," as he expressed it, "preaching the gospel in the highways and byways."

The lease upon his office at 233 South La Salle street, Chicago, expires on May 1. It will be renewed. The business itself, according to Mr. Farson, actually ceased Jan. 1, and only the flag ends remain to be gathered up and cut.

"I am winding up my business affairs right now," said Mr. Farson at the headquarters of the Holy Jumpers. He had come fresh from a meeting of his followers. "There is hardly enough of the business left at this time to count," he said. "I never owned an automobile, so I had none to sacrifice, but what family jewels I owned and all my property have been given to the religious society I represent."

"Why shouldn't I give up everything? There are so many heathens in Chicago, in this country, in the world, that it is selfish of any man, much more of a man considered at one time rich, simply to hang on to resources to the holiness cause."

I am denoting my time and all my The Holiness Association is incorporated in Illinois. Its headquarters are at the old Fountain House Waukesha, formerly a famous summer hotel, where there are 500 workers and preacher students in training.

Mr. Farson's announcement made on the heels of the domestic entanglement of Watson Bakesley, of Chicago, who was ordered by Municipal Judge G. N. Goodnow to provide for his family, the complaint being that he supported the Holiness church while neglecting his wife and five children. His case was continued until March 21, when Mrs. Bakesley is to report on his obedience to the court's orders.

ROSE ON OLYMPIC TEAM. SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28—The New York Americans and the Boston Americans have acquired respectively Michael Cam and H.B. Leonard, the star pitchers of St. Mary's College baseball team. Both men are left-handed.

BISHOP SCORES WOMEN FOR DISPLAY IN CHURCH. NEW YORK, February 28—Many Passaic society women, some blushing, others deeply touched, heard Bishop Lines, of Newark, addressing a confirmation class in St. John's P. E. church, Passaic and Lafayette avenues, score women for over-dressing.

"There is too much extravagance on the part of American women in the churches today," he said. "In one of the largest and most fashionable churches in New York the people stay away because they say they cannot afford to dress like the church. A church like this is not for the glory of God. Women should dress so that no one can feel offended at the display she is not able to afford."

"Don't speak too bitterly of the flood of socialism. It seems to be only means of expression against extravagance. There is a christian socialism and the question is approaching nearer every day. It hangs on this, I have more and will share with you have more and must share with me."

"There is one great difference between the church here and the church on the other side! Here the people use the church for display."

NO ERRORLESS BOOK. A London publisher once determined to publish at least one book which should be faultless in the matter of errors, says the National Magazine.

For a long time this was conceded, but six or eight months after its publication a letter called the publisher's attention to an error in a certain line and page. Later a second was announced, and before the first year had elapsed some four or five errors had been reported.

THE UNPARDONABLE SIN. The unpardonable... 6... 6... 6... 6... You can break the Ten Commandments and society will forgive you. But there's one sin that no man can ever manage to outlive.

You can buy a snow-white mantle and all misdeeds cloak— But the sin that without pardon is the crime of being broke.

You can break the Ten Commandments and the world will roll along. And no man will dare to question if you're with the wealthy throng. And no man will shun or scorn you while you're of the moneyed folk— But the sin beyond forgiveness is the crime of being broke.

You can break the Ten Commandments and avoid all worldly grills. For there's something that absolves you in a ready roll of bills. And we'll call you a good fellow and we'll pass it as a joke— But the sin that without pardon is the crime of being broke.

CENTENARY OF MOSCOW CAMPAIGN. One hundred years ago Napoleon set out on his campaign for Moscow, and it is perhaps only natural that Moscow and Russia generally should be eager to celebrate the centenary of a campaign which was so disastrous to the invaders.

Already preparations are being made in Moscow to open the 1812 museum, and an immense number of objects relating to the campaign have been collected. The centenary has already been celebrated by a concert, which revived the marches and military airs of both armies, and some of these, according to the Debats, are most interesting and curious. More interesting still, as likely to recall the events of that year, will be the visits that are to be paid to the battlefields and the ceremonies that are to take place there.
