SALVATION

and had been an officer for 50 years in traversing the British Empire he had travelled not less than a million and a quarter miles, and had come in contact with all classes of people in all conditions of life.

The speaker himself was the product of a Scotch revival. From 1882 to 1900 the Salvation Army had made remarkable progress in Scotland.

The Salvation Army had been pushed to the front very quickly, although 40 years ago the work was handicapped for lack of buildings.

The Army found it necessary to carry on much inquiry work with its social work. Salvation Army officers were interesting studies.

The Army had a great work before it in Australia, as in that continent seven adults out of eight do not attend church.

The Commissioner briefly acknowledged the vote.

Y BASKETBALL

Abbie Sisters 18-P. W. C. 10

In their first game played Saturday night at the "Y" the Abbie Sisters showed some of their old time class when they outscored the P. W. C. co-eds by a score of 12 to 10.

The all-around prize in the Seniors was won by James Millman, Summerside, with Bev. Wheaton a close second, and the intermediate prize was won by James Cousins, of Kensington.

The following is the summary of the events: 50 yd. dash (14 yrs. old and under)—1st, Bruce McPherson; 2, Charles Hogan.

For the winners of the work of George McMahon and Len Connolly was outstanding the former scoring over half of the points secured by his team.

Summerside Athletic Sports

The sports held in the Summerside rink on Nov. 3rd, were a real work-out for those interested in athletics in Summerside and vicinity.

The merchants of Summerside are to be congratulated on being so kind in donating all the prizes to encourage the coming generation along the line of clean sport and developing real men.
