13 Scrofulous Lumps

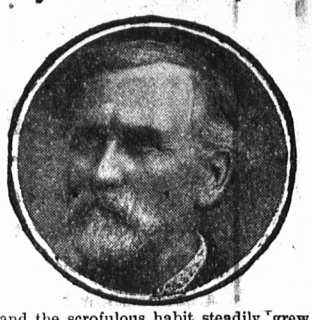

Inherited Disease—Eyes Affected—Weak, Could Hardly Walk—Life of Suffering.

Still Another Great Cure by Hood's Sarsaparilla

The following letter is from Mr. Geo. A. Zirkle, School Teacher in Mt. Horeb, Tenn., well-known all through that county, where he was born and has always lived.

"Mt. Horeb, Tenn., Jan. 10, 1906.
"C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

"I have suffered all my life, until lately, from inherited scrofula. When a mere babe I had a scrofulous sore back of my ear. At 21 I had 13 scrofulous lumps on my neck. At 37 the disease assumed a new and tantalizing form. My eyes were affected so that I could not read after sunset, and when I closed them it was difficult to reopen them. There was always intolerable itching all over my body. Then a tumor on my neck changed to the front of my neck, suppurated and was followed by others, until six had formed and broken. I became so weak I could scarcely walk, and could hardly attend to my teaching. All the medicine I tried failed to help until I began the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. In less than three months the sores healed, a troublesome catarrhal taint disappeared and the scrofulous habit steadily grew less apparent. Today I am in the best of health, weigh more than ever in my life. Do you wonder that I believe in Hood's Sarsaparilla? I can do no less than recommend it everywhere and every day."

A Valuable Remedy.

"I recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla as a valuable remedy for purifying the blood. As a spring medicine it is invaluable. I am using it for rheumatism and it is doing me good." MRS. BELISLE, 37 Hermine St., Montreal, Que.

AT Springfield, Lot 7, the store and warehouse of Charles McDougall was burned with all their contents on Thursday. There was 2,800 bushels of oats in the warehouse. There was some insurance on the goods. The fire is thought to have been caused by a defective safe set in the floor.

A lot of odd lines in China, glass, Japanese-ware, hand mirrors, picture frames and other goods will be cleared out on Saturday at cost and under, to make room for new spring goods. These are genuine snaps. It will pay you to look over the prices. All plainly marked at D. K. Currie's Bookstore. 3-8 d 2i

Yesterday evening Robert and Mrs. Milligan, Sherbrooke, celebrated the fifty-second anniversary of their marriage. Their four daughters with their husbands and ten children, and their three sons with their wives and eleven children, making a company of thirty-five in all, assembled at the home and the reunion was a most pleasant one. Mr. and Mrs. Milligan are both enjoying the very best of health and among their children and grand-children there has never been a death, a truly remarkable record.

The Farmers' Institute of Lots 27 28 held a meeting in Albany, March 1st. The first topic was Our Public Road System, How can it be improved on? A. S. Wright moved a resolution to the effect that the time has arrived when the present system should be abolished, or so regulated as to make it more acceptable to the ratepayers, as also a better regulation for the keeping of the roads in a passable condition. Mr. Wright said the roads should be repaired in the early spring, and the turnpike made much wider than it is at present, so that there would be room for at least two tracks on all the roads. W. Arnett seconded the resolution and claimed that it would be better if the making and keeping in repair of the roads was sold in sections, to be under the control of the Inspector appointed by the Government and all money to be collected and expended by the Government. The President said he always advocated the letting of roads in sections for a number of years to be kept in repair during the summer season. He believed if that were done there would be much better roads. D. J. Thompson said he was in favor of letting the roads in small sections, but the greatest need was better drainage, and that all ruts should be filled with broken stone instead of clay. Jas. Arnett agreed with the previous speaker in regard to filling the ruts with stone; he claimed that roads should be wider as on a high narrow road the heavy loads always tended to slide down to the side. R. F. Lord, Road Inspector, said he was in favor of wide roads, but he did not see how we could get all the roads made in the early spring as there was only a machine for 31 precincts. He also believed that when all farmers became thoroughly interested in the matter we would have better roads. Jos. Noonan said that the wide road was certainly the best, and instanced a piece of road in the vicinity of A. S. Wright's farm which was made wide some years ago that was good yet. Jabez Lea was surprised to hear some of the speakers condemn the road machine. He knew of roads kept in first class condition by its use, on which a plow would be utterly useless. B. W. Howatt believed if the holes were kept filled and the machine used for the making of new turnpike only, at the right time in the early spring we would have much better roads. Chas Craig claimed that the overseer should have power to repair breaks in bridges and washouts on roads, without having to notify the inspector; as sometimes it was several days before he could reach the place and have it done. The Pres. put the motion which was passed unanimously. The following resolution was then carried without a dissenting voice, Resolved that in the opinion of this meeting the letting of the roads in small sections for a number of years, contractor to give roads for the fulfillment of contract, would be most satisfactory. A very interesting discussion took place on general farm work and keeping of farm accounts during which the Pres. said that to him this was the best meeting of this year because of the presence of so many young men and boys, and he made a strong plea for the formation of a junior Institute for the encouragement of the boys in farming. Next meeting will be in Augustine Cove Mar. 15, 2 p.m. James E. Howatt, secy.

The library concert held last night in the Market Hall, Summerside, was another pleasing event in the excellent series of entertainments given during the winter and some of which are yet in store. The hall was filled to the doors, ensuring a substantial outcome, a fact on which the library committee are to be congratulated. That the audience thoroughly enjoyed the proceedings was evidenced from the hearty applause which punctuated each number. A regrettable feature was the unavoidable absence of Piper Gillis who was unable to be present on account of the railway blockade west of Summerside. Those who took part in the program were: Miss Inez Schurman, Mrs. W. S. Bearisto, Miss Ida Melrose, Miss Irene Duncan, Miss Deagan, Miss Bell, Miss Leard, Miss Blanche Craig, Miss Ruby McDonald, W. S. Bearisto, Clem Carr, Dr. A. W. Leard, Fred McSween, R. H. Lamont, Dr. J. E. McDonald, C. H. Pruner, Dr. McLellan, F. H. Leard. At the close of the entertainment Neil McLeod on behalf of the committee, presented Mr. Lamont with an address accompanied by a souvenir to which Mr. Lamont made a suitable reply, saying among other things that both the address and the gift were like the child that was baptised Onyx, because it was unexpected. The accompanists were Mrs. E. Gordon, Miss Blanche Craig and Professor Whitney.

THE FINEST WALL PAPER FROM THE GREATEST FACTORIES—the splendid lines we show are the cream of the output of the largest factory in Canada as well as the largest in the United States—both of these makers are, every season, months in advance of all competitors in all designs.—Moore & McLeod, The Wall Paper Men. 3-9d1.

To give you "something better" in all lines has been our constant endeavor. That we have provided for you "something better" in Wall paper lines is a fact admitted by all, while our prices are lower than you have been accustomed to pay for the ordinary kind. We can show you paper at 6cts the double roll, that would here-to-fore have been considered cheap at 10 cts. per roll for sidewalls, and 2 1-2 cts. per yd for border, or 80 cts. for the 32 yds. of border which you can now purchase for 6 cts., same as the paper. Don't fail to see our lines.—M. Trainor & Co. 3 9 3i.

SAVE MONEY AT THE WALL PAPER REMNANT SALE.—Remnants and odd lots of wall paper, selling at from one-third to one-half less than the regular price—with the borders thrown in free—that is pretty fair is it not?—Moore & McLeod, The Wall Paper Men. 3-9d1i.

CONVENIENT WALL PAPER SHOPPING.—At our new store you will find the largest wall paper stock ever seen in Charlottetown, exhibited on the ground floor. This handsome showing of goods is exhibited by experts in the line—bought by thoroughly qualified wall paper buyers whose years of experience has taught them what is wanted by particular people. —Moore & McLeod, The Wall Paper Men. 3-9d1i.

Why? Why am I able to sell clothing cheaper than competitors? 1st. Because I am doing a strictly cash business. 2nd. Because my expenses are comparatively small. —H. H. Brown, The Young Men's Man. 3-5dr6i.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

We wish to announce to the public in general that we have just opened up a complete and very beautiful stock of Wall Paper. You will find not only the patterns and colorings beautiful in the extreme, but the qualities are very superior, while the prices are much lower than you would expect to pay for such goods. Competent critics say it is the best and most beautiful wall paper they have ever seen, while the prices are a revelation. Added to the extremely moderate prices at which we are able to sell the wall and ceiling papers, we are about to introduce something unparalleld in wall paper selling viz:—Instead of selling the border by the yard as has been the custom, an item, by the way, which always added considerably to the cost of papering a room, we will sell the border by the roll, at the same price as the side wall paper. This is certainly an important saving, and one which will undoubtedly appeal to all.

Not only can we sell you both paper and borders at prices the most moderate, but we promise you an assortment of patterns and colorings which will both charm and delight you. They have been selected with infinite care, and undoubted taste, there being not an undersirable pattern in the whole lot of upwards of 300 different designs. In order to introduce this magnificient line to the public we will hold a
