A Moncton despatch of the 21st says: John McDonald was today committed for trial on the charge of abducting the daughter of Andrew White, of Irishtown. The only witness to-day was the girl whom the accused is charged with abducting. She swore that the accused carried her away against her will, but said they visited Father Legere, of Fox Creek, who was asked by the accused to marry them. The priest refused because McDonald could not produce a reference from the priest of his native place in P. E. Island.

MOORE & McLEOD.

What We Advertise We Have.

THERE were large congregations in the First Methodist church, yesterday, especially in the evening. The morning text was: "Thy gentleness hath made me great," Psalm 8:35, and in the evening, "Casting all your care upon Him for He careth for you." 1 Peter, 5:7. The singing throughout was as usual excellent, the solo of Prof. Tanton, of New York, entitled Daughters of Zion, being a specially pleasing feature.
