THE PRINCE COUNTY GUARDIAN

Offices in Summerside, John Dickieson, Agent, and in Alberton, Herbert Clark, Agent.

—The latest news, first of all.

—Mrs W. A. Brennan, Summerside, was in Moncton, last week.

—Miss Mabel Howatt, Tryon, spent Sunday in Summerside.

—John Hall Lea, Tryon, spent Sunday with friends at Sherbrook.

—R. P. Moase, Kensington, went west yesterday on a business trip.

—Two large flocks of wild geese passed over Summerside Sunday going southward.

—Miss Eileen Noonan, Summerside, is visiting in Charlottetown the guest of Miss Josie Ryan.

—Henry Walker, Summerside, who had his leg broken six weeks ago is now able to be around again. He left yesterday for a visit with friends at Kensington.

—James McDonald, Kelly's Cross, returned to his home yesterday. He had been in Summerside for some time previous to the death of his son Dr. James McDonald.

—Mrs D. Grady, Summerside, the old lady who had her leg amputated about two months ago is recovering from the terrible shock but not as fast as her many friends would wish.

—W. H. Manson, Summerside, who has been confined to his home through illness for some time past was out driving yesterday and is feeling much improved. His many friends were pleased to see him out again.

SOUTH MELVILLE NOTES.

A correspondent from South Melville writes: Peter Malone and Sylvester Monahan, of South Melville, while working in the woods on January 24th, saw a number of butterflies flying around. It is now up to the weather prophets to explain this rather unusual occurrence at this season. James McAleer, of Hope River, is visiting friends in South Melville and Kelly's Cross. He is accompanied by his sister, Miss Katie. Miss Aggie Monahan, of South Melville, has been called to Charlottetown to attend her sister, Mrs. John L. McAleer, who is ill. John Trainor of South Melville, spent part of last week with friends in Hampton. He was accompanied by his cousin, Levi Trainor, of Kelly's Cross.

is always appreciated, whether it be a human being or an article; and this applies particularly to service in the kitchen, where the stove leads the list of serviceable articles.

That stove best serves which backs up durability with perfect operation and economy in fuel and labour. Such a stove is the—

ENTERPRISE MONARCH

To satisfy yourself on this score, go over it carefully. Compare it point by point with all other steel ranges and you will find that the "Monarch" has advantages not found in the others—that these advantages accomplish results by methods that are simpler, surer and more direct than in any other range.

Write for circular with complete information, or better still, go to our nearest agent and have the good points of the MONARCH demonstrated to you.
