

In J. Fenimore Cooper's Leather Stocking Tales, we read stories of the wonderful agility, physical endurance and the unerring accuracy of the eye of the American Indian when he reigned supreme over this continent. Before he was debauched by modern civilization, he was a magnificent specimen of physical manhood. He lived entirely in the open air, and knew no medicine, save the simple herbs gathered by his squaws.

"A few of my symptoms," writes Charles Book of climax, Kalamazoo Co., Mich., "were heartburn, flatulency after eating, pain in my bowels, and taste in my mouth, and occasional fever and hot flushes. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cured all these and I am perfectly well."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are sure, speedy and permanent cure for constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative and two a mild cathartic. They never grip. Found at all medicine stores.

THE CARRION PARTIES.

Table XII.

The Bird Country had two Political Organizations, known as the Condor Party and the Buzzard Party, one or the other of which controlled the Government. At length an Agitation, led by the Doves and other Cleanly Birds of the Community, was commenced, having for its object the Abolition of the Disgusting Custom of eating Offal. For a long time the Discussion of this Great Que-tion was carried on, and the Doves wax-d most Elquent upon it, delivering Speeches in season and out of season from every Stump in the Forest, and making out a Clear Case against the Carrion Eaters. Notwithstanding their Excellent Speeches and their Commendable Enthusiasm, however, they made very little Progress with the Cause. The Condors or the Buzzards remained at the head of affairs, and the Carrion Feast went on without Interruption. This greatly puzzled the Blue Jay, and in his perplexity he applied to the Owl for an Opinion on the Matter. "It is very simply Explained," replied the Owl, with a cynical Blink of his Eye. "Take a seat beside me on this Limb and tell me what you see over yonder." The Blue Jay looked in the direction indicated and replied, "I observe a Condor and a Dove going along arm in arm, and also a Buzzard and a Dove in the same affectionate relation." "Exactly," responded the Owl. "This is Election Day, you know, and the Doves are going to the polls to vote the Ticket of the Carrion Parties. All their Eloquent Speeches go for Nothing. Nothing counts but Ballots. They thus undo in One Day the work of the other Three Hundred and Sixty-four." "I see," said the Blue Jay, as he looked on in Astonishment and Pity.

MORAL.—Liquor Parties care nothing for Talk, so long as they get the Votes. Hamilton Tripliar.

Almost Distracted

Dreadful Suffering by a New-market Woman.

The Bones in the Nose Affected—Face Would Swell Until Her Eyes Were Closed—How Relieved.

NEWMARKET, ONT.—"I have had a good opportunity of noting the great medicinal powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla. My wife has been a sufferer from catarrh for the past four years, and the disease had gone so far that the bones of the nose had become affected and particles had come away through an opening in the left side. Her eyesight was also affected to the extent that for nearly a year she was unable to read for more than five minutes at a time. She suffered Severe Pains in the Head and at times was almost distracted. She was treated by four different doctors, one of whom was a specialist. They all said they could not do anything for her, as the disease had gone too far. Her nose would swell about every three days until her eyes would almost be closed. Then it would break through and the swelling would subside for a day or two. About Christmas she commenced taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and since that time has steadily improved. She has not been troubled with any swelling since, and the sore on the side of the nose has all healed. She is on the road to a complete cure. I cannot speak too highly of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully recommend it to any person who is suffering with catarrh." W. H. FURBER.
N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, do not be induced to buy any substitute. Be sure to get Hood's.
