BREAK A CHILD'S COLD BY GIVING SYRUP OF FIGS

Cleanses the little liver and bowels and they get well quick.

When your child suffers from a cold don't wait; give the little stomach, liver and bowels a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When cross, peevish, listless pale doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the clogged-up, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

If your child coughs, snuffles and has caught cold or is feverish or has a sore throat give a good dose of "California Syrup of Figs" to evacuate the bowels no difference what other treatment is given.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given to-day saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 5-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

SOCKS APPRECIATED

The following letter has been received by Mrs. Ambrose E. Wood, Pownal, P. E. I., from her husband A. E. Wood:

Witley Surrey, Dec. 24, 1916
To the Ladies of Red Cross Society at Pownal.

Just a line to show my appreciation and express my thanks for the fine pairs of socks I received from the Society. I can assure you that the long and tiresome hours you must spend in knitting these socks, are not in vain for one knitted pair is worth three of any kind.

Again let me thank you for your thoughtfulness for the soldiers away from home with best wishes.

Yours very truly,
AMBROSE E. WOOD,
105th Battalion C. E. F.,
Quarter Master Office,
Witley, England.

Give the "Kiddies" All They Want of CROWN BRAND CORN SYRUP

It is one of the delicious "good things" that has a real food value. A slice of your good homemade bread, spread with "Crown Brand", forms a perfectly balanced food, that is practically all nourishment.

So—let them have it on biscuits and pancakes, and on their porridge if they want it.

You'll like it, too, on Griddle Cakes—on Blanc Mange and Baked Apples. And you'll find it the most economical sweetener you can use, for Cakes, Cookies, Gingerbread and Pies.

Have your husband get a tin, the next time he is in town— a 5, 10 or 20 pound tin—or a 3 pound glass jar.

INDUSTRIES IN TRENCHES.

The monotony of life in the French, as in the British, trenches is varied by a number of small industries, turning to account bits of stone or wood or enemy cartridge cases and spent bullets in ingenious trifles for use or for mementoes.

Quite the most popular manufacture is that of finger rings from the aluminum used in German shells—these "bagues boches" they are called. These rings decorated with delicately-shaped art pieces of polished French copper or the top of the German metal. The French soldiers carry this passion for making amateur jewelry into hospitals. The British nurses at L'Abbaye Royaumont tell us that most of their patients who can use their hands are busy making "les bagues boches" at every available moment after surgeon's morning visit. They all have their little stores of German aluminum in their muskets or pockets and many have brought with them a complete outfit of files, vice, emery paper and finger-blocks cut from bits of sticks. When the time comes for the "sortants" to bid good-bye to comrades and staff there is an interchange of souvenirs. Then it is that "les bagues boches" fulfill a pleasant destiny of further strengthening the ties of friendship as gifts for the fingers of the British ward sisters and nurses.—Manchester Guardian.

SCOTCH NIGHT.

A Breath from the Highlands of Scotland drifted down Saturday night on the revival which will pass into history a week from today and added with the new, bright glow to the tabernacle atmosphere that has seen so many rare flavorings in nine full weeks of the old-time yeligion.

There was new revival music, new revivals dress and new revival scenes on the sawdust trail, because 500 men and women came in a "Scotch delegation," and it was "Ma" Sunday, with her delegation just one more new, bright glow to the tabernacle atmosphere that has seen so many rare flavorings in nine full weeks of the old-time yeligion.

Through the snowstorm the kilties came and marched into the tabernacle with bakpipes vipping their gayest. The Campbells Are Coming! shouted the audiences, and down the centre aisle came the pipes and drums playing that very tune as they climbed into their benches.

SOME CHURCHES LACK ENTHUSIASM.

"There are four places where you can find no enthusiasm," said Billy Sunday with a grin, Saturday night. "They are a museum, an ice house, a graveyard, and some churches. (Laughter.) O, you know there are churches where you can skate down the main aisle, where there is frost on the pulpit and icicles hanging from the chandeliers. What is the matter with the church today? Seldom do you see tears glistening in the eyes of anybody.

"If the church people get right, the whole world will get right. The world is challenging the church, instead of the church challenging the world. If it was as easy to get to church on its knees as it is to get the unsaved world into the kingdom, we wouldn't have any more trouble about religion. And God can't save you unless you're willing. He won't coerce you to it.

"If you haven't got in your heart an agonized concern for the unsaved—even if you are a deacon or an elder, yes, even if you are a preacher—go right down there in front and fall in the sawdust and ask God to forgive you."
