RESOLUTION

"Certified Seed" should be the only stock graded and sold for seed purposes.

It was moved by Mr. J. W. Boulter and seconded by Hon. J. A. McDonald, that the wording of the act be changed to include the words "or seed potatoes." The discussion was then taken up as to whether this act should be changed to include "Certified small seed potatoes." After considerable discussion, pro and con, it was moved by Mr. J. J. Trainor and seconded by Mr. John McPadyen, that the act be not changed to allow such a grade, the opinion of the meeting being that it would be detrimental to the existing seed potato trade. Further discussion took place relating to the sizes allowed in table stock potatoes. The general opinion was that the existing size limit of 1 1/2 inches in diameter is too small. After considerable discussion on this point, a resolution, moved by delegation the problem of whether limitation of armament should be by total tonnage or by classification of warships, was turned over to a committee to be appointed from each delegation for further study and report at a later session. The British and American delegations in effect accepted in principle the so called French "transactional" project which would permit transferring tonnage from one category to another within certain limits. Ambassador Hugh Gibson said the U. S. would not press the American thesis regarding limitation by categories.

A. V. Alexander, First Lord of the Admiralty, indicated that Great Britain is willing to consider such a system with certain reservations. In support of the resolution, Stimson called upon Ambassador Hugh Gibson in the light of his experience at various Geneva conferences to address the plenary session. Gibson backing the American position which holds that determination of armament limitation by categories holds the greatest advantages to all nations involved, stressed the failure of previous disarmament conferences that split on the question of methods.

Premier Tardieu of France and Premier MacDonald of Great Britain backed the Stimson resolution which was adopted "without opposition." At a press conference following adjournment of the plenary session at 11:24 a. m., MacDonald emphasized the inability of the disarmament conference to secure any agreement for peace on the principle purely of global tonnage. He did not consider, he said, the Italian reservations to discussion of methods and principles any obstacle to the negotiations. "I think we are now within a measurable distance of a solution of the problem which has thus far defied the solution," he said. "I feel certain that the five powers can come to an agreement among themselves."

Opening the session, Premier MacDonald sketched briefly the complexity of the problems before the conference and said he was gratified at the progress already made.

creased the numbers of our contingent. I wish to thank too all the Association here at headquarters for their loyal devoted work, very particularly the members of the Jamboree Committee who under the chairmanship of Colonel Snow made all the arrangements for this undertaking. To Mr. Reford too, the agent for the Cunard Company, for giving special privileges to our contingent on their journey to England and for the excellent accommodation they got on board ship and to T. B. MacAulay the head of the Sun Life Assurance for the very generous insurance which he gave us for all the contingent during the time they were away and until they got back to their homes. My grateful thanks are sincerely given through the help of all these generous friends. We sent a contingent of scouts and leaders numbering one hundred and eighty five in all, and I am glad to say they all returned to us safe and sound and I have heard from the lips of many of them since they came home of the wonderful experience the trip has been to them."

RELEASED ON $100,000 BAIL

Trans made the fatal descent on Monday morning after having worked under water for several hours each day since January 17. On Monday he came to the surface, asked that his ladder be shifted slightly and went down not to reappear. He apparently stepped from the ladder and was forced by the current under the coffer dam, catching his uniform on a spike.

DID NOT LIKE JOB

MONTREAL, Que. Jan. 28—"I don't like this job," Peter Trans diver, told his friend, Bertrand Clark before he left for Point Aux Outardes on the Outardes River, to dive for the last time. Several times during the course of the evening spent with his friend before he left for the northern outpost, Trans reiterated his premonition. Today his dead body was taken from the river after three days submersion.

An astounding coincidence lies in the fact that Trans was once before caught on the bottom while diving, and for several hours expected death.

Mr. M. G. McNealy and seconded by Mr. J. L. Douglas, was adopted permitting not more than 20% of the potatoes by weight to be under 2 1/2 inches in diameter.

A great deal of discussion also took place with regard to the Cuban market for seed potatoes. The market in Cuba demands Bliss Triumph potatoes, a variety which it was not deemed advisable to introduce into the province as it carries considerable mosaic.

INVESTIGATIONS

President of Homer L. Gibson and Company; Maurice J. Young also of the Gibson Company.

TORONTO, Jan. 29—Hon. W. H. Price, Attorney General of Ontario, discussing the arrests of members of four Toronto mining brokerage firms today stated his Department had seized the assets of the houses concerned in order to protect the investors doing business with the various companies. Urging the public to keep cool while action was being prosecuted against the brokerage firms, Colonel Price expressed the hope that directors of the Standard Stock and Mining Exchange of Toronto, would suspend operations until the excitement had subsided. He declared however that he himself could take no action at present.

THREE MORE WANTED

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 20—Shortly after the arrest today of ten Toronto mining brokers and members of the staffs of four firms charged with conspiracy to defraud, similar warrants were sworn out by the provincial Attorney General's Department against three more men including Harvey Mills and I. W. C. Solloway of the firm of Solloway-Mills and Company, who are at present awaiting trial at Calgary. The third member of the trio against whom warrants were issued is W. Wray of Montreal, employed by Arthur E. Moysey and Company in that city. The charges against Solloway and Mills in Calgary concern alleged irregularities in connection with their dealings on the Calgary Stock Exchange; the charges being laid by the Alberta Attorney General's Department. A. W. Rodgers of the Ontario Attorney General's Department said the warrants against Solloway and Mills would be held pending the outcome of the proceedings in Calgary. He said the charges were all laid under section 444 of the criminal code under which the other ten men were arrested today.

ASKED TO DISCONTINUE TRADING

TORONTO, Jan. 30—Announcement was made this afternoon by the board of directors of the Standard Stock and Mining Exchange that the five member brokerage firms whose officials were arrested this morning on charges of conspiracy to defraud had been asked to discontinue all trading on the Exchange.

Seizure of the assets of the accused brokerage firms included bank accounts, Col. Price said I want to have the assets for the people who trade he said. Col. Price admitted the charges against the various brokers would involve a sum running into millions of dollars. He said all charges were for conspiracy in affecting the price of stock which involves short selling and bucketing. Some of those charged have several companies and were trading back and forth the said

Mr. M. R. Shaw thought Mr. Brodie's viewpoint altogether too pessimistic.

Mr. Alex. Dynes, well-known Canadian breeder of Yorkshires, says that if this province continues to breed the quality of stock exhibited at the show, that Ontario and Quebec will be demanding it for breeding stock. The class of animal raised at present is much higher than that of past years.

Mr. P. W. Clarkin, of the Canadian National Railways, who was called upon to deliver an address on transportation service thought that breeders should be extremely thankful to the Dominion Live Stock Branch for the men such as Mr. John Gillis. Mr. Clarkin stated that in his own farming experience he has seen the day when hogs sold for 50 per lb. Previous to car ferry service the produce was sold at 25% less than on the mainland. Live stock is always given precedence over every other commodity by the railway.

Mr. W. F. Boulter explained that Hon. W. M. Lea, Minister of Agriculture was absent on account of indisposition.

The Minister of Agriculture takes a very great interest in the swine growers. A meeting of secretaries and presidents of shipping clubs is to be held this morning at 9 o'clock in the Board of Trade rooms.

WINNIPEG, Man., Jan. 30—The Government of Canada must aid in dispelling unemployment according to the unanimous opinion of the Western Canada Unemployment Conference in session today. The Western Party approved the principle of unemployment insurance and asked an early Dominion wide conference on the matter and outlined the manner in which the Dominion should co-operate immediately in difficulty is often experienced when improving the jobless situation.

His Airline was caught and both he himself and those on top were sure he was doomed, but he managed to come out on top. "My last job was on a construction job below Quebec," Trans said, "and the water was very cold. I dressed more heavily than I usually do, putting on three suits of underwear besides my heavy leather leggings, and several pairs of socks. It was a job I did not like I never have refused to go down yet and don't expect I ever will, whether I come up or not." These words bear a grim significance telling of the unwavering devotion to duty of the diver.

FROZEN TO DEATH

QUEBEC, Jan. 30—An unofficial but probably accurate report received here this afternoon stated that the medical examination on the body of Peter Trans, diver, showed he had been frozen to death during his three day immersion in the icy waters of Riviere Aux Outardes.

ANNUAL MEETING

has been keeping in touch with available sources of supply and are in a position to buy feeds at good prices.

Last summer the high priced boars and highest priced sows were sold within the province, as was not the case other years. Rustico district has developed community hog-breeding in the Yorkshire line very successfully. Last year upward of fifteen breedings sows were shipped from this province to Quebec. The prices were not as high as that received for commercial stock. This last phase should be discussed by the meeting. It is exceedingly difficult to select boars of good breeding quality. The prize winners at exhibitions are not always good breeders. Young boars do not always come up to the standard that their early condition would seem to warrant. The tendency of a strain to deteriorate necessitates constant vigilance. It is therefore necessary to import many animals to prevent inter-breeding. A boar purchased by Mr. Clay proved a successful exhibit at the exhibition.

The secretary Mr. John Gillis, read the minutes which were adopted without discussion. The financial report showed a balance on hand of $223.88.

It was announced that the retiring directors of this year were Mr. Queens, Ernest Houston; Prince, W. J. Reid, and Kings, Mont Anear.

It was moved and seconded that the three retiring members be re-appointed.

Mr. Peter Brodie commented favorably on the reports. The hog industry is at present at a very low ebb, he stated. Education in the industry, since the beginning of the association eight years ago has been carried on Ontario with Saskatchewan following close rules the market. It is useless to attempt to carry weight in the Dominion body when but two men on the Island belong to that association. The percentage of select hogs has fallen from 67 to 34. Mr. Brodie criticised the type of boars imported. He stated that the type of animals are deteriorating. It is impossible to raise pork for 9c per lb. Mr. Brodie would like to see a return to the old policy of crossing Berkshire, Chester White and Yorkshire. The ham demanded by the British market is not being supplied. Frozen pork from New Zealand has taken an undesired first place on the British market. American pork takes an altogether too prominent place in the Maritime market. Bacon now 42c per lb. and ham about 34c, while carcasses of pork sell at 14c. Although grading has its good aspects every farmer should know what he is going to receive when he delivers his product at the station. Men should be able to do their own grading.

Mr. W. R. Shaw thought Mr. Brodie's viewpoint altogether too pessimistic. Mr. Alex. Dynes, well-known Canadian breeder of Yorkshires, says that if this province continues to breed the quality of stock exhibited at the show, that Ontario and Quebec will be demanding it for breeding stock. The class of animal raised at present is much higher than that of past years.

Mr. P. W. Clarkin, of the Canadian National Railways, who was called upon to deliver an address on transportation service thought that breeders should be extremely thankful to the Dominion Live Stock Branch for the men such as Mr. John Gillis. Mr. Clarkin stated that in his own farming experience he has seen the day when hogs sold for 50 per lb. Previous to car ferry service the produce was sold at 25% less than on the mainland. Live stock is always given precedence over every other commodity by the railway. Necessary facilities are always provided, on demand, by the company. Shippers are often themselves responsible for the grounds of complaint. Shippers should always attempt to adjust with the agent any trouble which might arise, and iron out difficulties. Trouble way billing shipments is often the result of disobedience to billing instruction. Difficulty is often experienced when improving the jobless situation.

Mr. H. W. Clay in answer to the criticism aimed at imported boars expressed himself willing to allow a vote to be taken among authorities in the Maritime Provinces on the matter. Some years ago "Marvin Duke" was brought into the province. The results were hardly mentioned to hog growers.

Oakledge Masterpiece bought by the Hunter River Club, has proved to be an excellent breeder, and this animal's stock has always been among prominent prize winners. At a great many imports have turned out failures the Dominion Live Stock Branch imported a number of boars to avoid in-breeding. Mr. Clay went up with orders for six boars, but came back with only four with which he was not too well satisfied. The most expensive has not proved to be the best while the cheapest is the leader. One has proved to be an outstanding prize winner. Sows all over the province have been bred to this boar. In connection with grading Mr. Clay stated that breeders are receiving as good service at the plant as they would in the country. During the last six months many pure hogs have been received. Mr. Olsen a well known grader, inspects stock in cars.

It would be a good thing to have five hogs from each breed at the Charlottetown Exhibition next fall. The result of judging would always be the same, the Yorkshire would lead. Of the hogs within the weights the animals which come into Davis & Fraser plant are the best in North America.

Mr. Doucette, Rustico, stated that he did not altogether agree with Mr. Clay in the statement that grading at the plant is as good as grading at the stations, as the latter inspection is of great educational value.

Resolutions of appreciation were extended to the Canadian National Railways for assistance and co-operation in shipping, to the provincial government for assistance rendered in paying express charges on the four boars imported from Ontario and to the officers of the Association for their efficient management during the year.

A resolution urging officials of the association to arrange for further importation of boars was also adopted. A resolution asking the Federal Department to increase the grading staff in order to inspect the product at the point of shipment was after some discussion rejected.

In the latter connection Mr. Clay stated that before the industry assumed its present proportions it was possible to do the grading at the stations. As a result many men in the province have a considerable knowledge of grading, and the change is therefore unnecessary. In any case it would be impossible to secure the additional graders. In newer clubs knowledge of grading is not so wide spread, and an attempt could be made to remedy this condition. A demand for grading demonstrations could be compiled with.

It was pointed out by Mr. W. R. Shaw that shipping clubs have decided on off car grading and therefore a demand for additional graders would be unwarranted.

Mr. Bertrand McLennan, O'Leary, voiced his opinion contrary to the resolution. Difficulty is often experienced in the shipping of two lots in one car.

Mr. John Gillis stated that the volume of the shipments increased to such an extent that it was necessary to do the grading at the plant. One half cent per lb extra is received by off-car grading. The federal Government is willing to give demonstrations whenever possible and feasible.

Mr. W. F. Boulter explained that Hon. W. M. Lea, Minister of Agriculture was absent on account of indisposition. The Minister of Agriculture takes a very great interest in the swine growers.

A meeting of secretaries and presidents of shipping clubs is to be held this morning at 9 o'clock in the Board of Trade rooms.
