PREACHER TRIES TO SELL HIS CHILDREN.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 26.—The Rev. Thomas G. Boord, pastor of the Wylie Ave. Baptist church, of Pittsburg, was almost mobbed by his parishioners after the church people had read in the morning papers how their pastor, pleading poverty, had tried to sell two of his children at public auction on the streets of Circleville, Pa., his home town.

The minister had been subjected to some rather harsh treatment when he tried to get bids on two of his children in the public square of Circleville. Boord explained that he was too poor to keep his five little ones, and that he must sell two of them in order to support the other three. He flooded Circleville with the following handbills:—

"Auction tonight. The undersigned will sell at public auction his two children as hereinafter described: One boy, seven years old, fair complexion, weighs forty-three pounds; strong of body and mind; has never been to school, but would make a competent newsboy and be able to earn good wages in three years. Will be a great support to buyer in less than three years.

"One girl, aged ten, dark complexion, weighs fifty-three pounds. Has had four years' schooling; was youngest pupil in her class. Can execute any household duties, such as plain sewing and cooking, dishwashing, etc. Will be competent to keep an ordinary house in six years' time."

"Sale is to take place corner Third and Main streets at 7.30 tonight. Purchaser must be good, moral person." At 7.30 o'clock there were 1,000 persons on hand and when Rev. Boord appeared, accompanied by a nice, clean-looking boy and a girl, and announced that the auction was ready to start. He declared that the children he was offering for sale were his own. The announcement struck the crowd dumb. When Mr. Boord asked for his bids some of the prominent citizens of Circleville interfered and told him

DOCTORS TELL HOW "CUTICURA" CURED SKIN DISEASES

One says, "I have Great Faith in Cuticura Remedies." Another, "They Always Bring Results."

"I wish to let you know of a couple of recent cures which I have made by the use of the Cuticura Remedies. Last August, Mr. — of this city came to my office, troubled with a severe skin eruption. At first I could not understand the nature of the case. I finally traced it to his occupation, as he was a painter and decorator. It was dermatitis in its worst form. It started with a slight eruption and would affect most parts of his body—thighs, elbows, chest, back and abdomen—and would terminate in little pustules. The itching and burning was dreadful and he would almost tear his skin apart trying to get relief. I recommended all the various treatments I could think of and he spent about fifteen dollars on prescriptions but nothing seemed to help him. In the meantime my wife who was continually suffering with a slight skin trouble and who had been trying different prescriptions and methods with my assistance, told me she was going to get some of the Cuticura Remedies. But as I did not know much about Cuticura at that time I was doubtful whether it would help her. Her skin would thicken, break and bleed, especially on the fingers, wrists and arms. I could do nothing to relieve her permanently. When she first applied the warm baths of Cuticura Soap and the Cuticura Ointment she saw a decided improvement and in a few days she was completely cured. I let her buy a box of the Cuticura Remedies to Mr. —, and this was warm bath and Cuticura Ointment. I applied the Cuticura Ointment generously. I am a practicing physician and very often prescribe Cuticura Remedies in cases of eczema, and they have cured where other forms have failed. I am not an unkindly-minded enough to proclaim their virtues to the world. I have been practicing medicine for twenty years, and must say I find your Remedies as good as ever. They always bring results."

Cuticura Remedies are sold by druggists everywhere. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston, Mass. Mailed free on request latest 32-page Cuticura Book on the speedy treatment of skin diseases.

that the sale could not go on. They told him slavery had been abolished in this country and that it was contrary to the constitution of the United States to sell persons at public auction.

Mr. Boord tried to defend his action, but was unsuccessful. He finally called the auction off when many in the crowd showed a disposition to become rough.

There was much trouble in store for the Rev. Boord when he reached his Pittsburg church. He was jeered at and many left the church, refusing to listen to the explanation which the pastor offered in tears. The Rev. Boord is a prohibition candidate for the state legislature, and his explanation is that he wanted to illustrate a point in his campaign by the auction block and his two children, but before he could reach the point in his story the crowd jumped at conclusions and left him in a "painful and embarrassing position."

MAN ATTACKED BY BULL

ANTIGONISH, Sept. 27.—William McIntosh, of South River lake, was yesterday almost killed by a bull. MacIntosh was leading the animal to water when it suddenly attacked him. The terrified man rearing his perilous position fought the infuriated brute for fifteen minutes, when he was overpowered and dreadfully mangled by the crazy creature. The conflict was witnessed by two men, who, with great difficulty, rescued the man. Before the bull was overpowered it tossed MacIntosh twenty feet into the air. MacIntosh now lies in a serious condition with several broken ribs and possibly some internal injuries.

RECIPROcity IS URGED.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The report of the Royal Commission into the trade relations between Canada and the West Indies has been issued. The Commissioners strongly represent half the preference granted the West Indies by Canada or some years has been of value in furnishing a favorable market for West Indian sugar. The West Indies are strongly urged to make reciprocal concessions to Canadian goods—so that the advantage already obtained may be continued.
